Mar 2nd, 10:30 AM - 11:45 AM

Reaching vs. Teaching: How to Connect with Youth in a Way that Changes Behavior

Jackie Brewton
CEO of MotivationN3D, jackie@jackiebrewton.com

Follow this and additional works at: https://digitalcommons.georgiasouthern.edu/nyar_savannah

Part of the Public Health Education and Promotion Commons

Recommended Citation
https://digitalcommons.georgiasouthern.edu/nyar_savannah/2015/2015/78

This presentation (open access) is brought to you for free and open access by the Conferences & Events at Digital Commons@Georgia Southern. It has been accepted for inclusion in National Youth-At-Risk Conference Savannah by an authorized administrator of Digital Commons@Georgia Southern. For more information, please contact digitalcommons@georgiasouthern.edu.
“Reaching” vs. “Teaching”: How to Connect with Youth in a Way that Changes Behavior

National Youth at Risk Conference
Savannah, GA
March 2, 2015

www.jackiebrewton.com

I. ______________________________ must come along with ______________________________.

II. How to make a “Connection”

1. You must show some level of _____________________.

2. Youth must _____________ your _____________________.

3. Youth must ________________ you _____________.

4. You must be _______________________ and know their _________________.

III. What I’ve learned…

1. There must be a ____________________.

   a. Teach ______________________________ instead of _______________________________.

2. Youth must know about _____________-______________ and _______________________________ as indicators of _________________.

3. Youth must know about ___________ ____________ _________________ and the importance of ____________ _________________ when making major _________________.

4. You must give specific ____________________________ for __________________________change.

5. Talk about the impact of their _________________ on their ______________
   ________________.

IV. Effective teaching strategies...

   1. Make them ________________.
   2. Use ________________.
   3. ________________ the students’ ________________.
   4. Make them ________________ instead of ________________ them how to
      ________________.
   5. Use ________________ to engage the ________________.
   6. Tell ________________.
   7. Let them ________________ from other ________________.

V. What students appreciate...

   1. Being ________________ as young ________________ and not ________________.
   2. Not being ________________.
3. Not being ________________.

4. Being ________________ and ________________ to do the _____________ thing

5. Being ________________ with the ________________.

6. Being ________________ to.

7. ______________ talk with no ______________ ______________.