Mar 2nd, 10:30 AM - 11:45 AM

Reaching vs. Teaching: How to Connect with Youth in a Way that Changes Behavior

Jackie Brewton
CEO of MotivationN3D, jackie@jackiebrewton.com

Follow this and additional works at: https://digitalcommons.georgiasouthern.edu/nyar_savannah

Part of the Public Health Education and Promotion Commons

Recommended Citation
https://digitalcommons.georgiasouthern.edu/nyar_savannah/2015/2015/78

This presentation (open access) is brought to you for free and open access by the Conferences & Events at Digital Commons@Georgia Southern. It has been accepted for inclusion in National Youth-At-Risk Conference Savannah by an authorized administrator of Digital Commons@Georgia Southern. For more information, please contact digitalcommons@georgiasouthern.edu.
“Reaching” vs. “Teaching”: How to Connect with Youth in a Way that Changes Behavior

National Youth at Risk Conference
Savannah, GA
March 2, 2015

www.jackiebrewton.com

I. ___________________________ must come along with ___________________________.

II. How to make a “Connection”

1. You must show some level of ___________________________.

2. Youth must _______________ your ____________________.

3. Youth must __________________ you ______________.

4. You must be _______________________and know their ________________.

III. What I’ve learned…

1. There must be a _______________ _______________.
   a. Teach ______________________________ instead of ________________________________.

2. Youth must know about ____________-_________________ and __________________________ as indicators of ________________.
3. Youth must know about ____________ ____________ __________________________ and the importance of ____________ __________________________ when making major ________________.

4. You must give specific ____________________________ for __________________________ change.

5. Talk about the impact of their ________________ on their ______________

__________________________.

IV. Effective teaching strategies...

1. Make them ________________.

2. Use ________________.

3. ________________ the students’ ________________.

4. Make them ________________ instead of ________________ them how to

__________________________.

5. Use ________________ to engage the ________________.

6. Tell ________________.

7. Let them ________________ from other ________________.

V. What students appreciate...

1. Being ________________ as young ________________ and not ________________.

2. Not being ________________.
3. Not being ________________.

4. Being ________________ and ________________ to do the ________________ thing

5. Being ________________ with the ________________.

6. Being ________________ to.

7. ________________ talk with no ________________ ________________.