'BFA 2019: Senior Exhibition' on view at Center for Art & Theatre

May 6, 2019

The Georgia Southern University Betty Foy Sanders Department of Art (BFSDoArt) will present the "BFA 2019 Senior Exhibition" May 6- May 10 at the Center for Art & Theatre's University and Contemporary Galleries on the Statesboro Campus. The reception will be held May 10 from 5 to 7 p.m. Light refreshments will be served, and the public is invited to attend.

The Bachelor of Fine Arts program at the BFSDoArt is comprised of a dynamic and multi-faceted curriculum that is led by exceptional faculty. Every year, the Department graduates many gifted and diverse undergraduate students that go on to successful careers in a variety of professions. This exhibition is a cohesive record of the ideas and images that each student has investigated throughout the last semester of their academic pursuits.

The exhibition will showcase the portfolios and capstone projects of Bachelor of Fine Arts graduating seniors in a variety of media including ceramics, digital and traditional painting, mixed media, photography, printmaking, sculpture and video.

"In recent decades the art world has expanded to incorporate a wide range of ideas and disciplines," says gallery director Jason Hoelscher. "This expansion of potentials and mediums is definitely on display with this group of emerging artists, who have created an exhibition teeming with creativity manifest in forms ranging from ceramics, installation and painting to powerful political points, sequential narratives, game design and more."

Students with work featured in this exhibition include Marjorie Adams, AJ Aremu, Charlynn Crutcher, Allison Exley, Taylor Goody, Shelby Head, Abigail Newman, Alyssa Santana, Raven Waters, and Krisann Wellington.
