Professor of Logistics and SCM Nominated as President-Elect of Premier International Society

November 14, 2022

Jerry Burke

Professor Jerry Burke, Ph.D., in the Department of Logistics and Supply Chain Management (LSCM), Parker College of Business, Georgia Southern University is this year's nominee to serve as president-elect of the Production Operations Management Society (POMS). This position entails a three year commitment to the POMS board of directors including leadership of the board during 2024.

POMS is a premier, international professional organization representing the interests of over 2000 academic and practitioner members residing in over 50 countries across the world. Its namesake journal, Production Operations Management, is included in the BusinessWeek top 20 and Financial Times top 50 lists of business journals.

Burke previously served POMS as the vice-president for colleges from 2015–2018. Most recently, Jerry served as vice-president of meetings and served on the executive board of POMS during the dynamic and challenging times from 2018–2021. In April of 2022, Jerry was honored to receive the Sushil K. Gupta POMS Distinguished Service Award in recognition of his outstanding service to POMS. Jerry is also a longstanding member of the POMS special interest group for supply chain management and, during his time as chair of the Department of LSCM, he was a member of the POMS Forum of Academic Leaders.
