Instructional Methods: Class meetings will be a combination of lecture, class discussion, case studies, small group work, and possibly guest lecturers. Written assignments (marketing plans), participation (in-class case studies, and general participation), exams, and one group debate assignment constitute the basis of student evaluation.

Participation: Participation in an integral part of the learning process. Students will be expected to remain current with the readings, contribute to discussion of the week’s topics, have completed the current week’s assignments, ask questions, make comments, and agree/disagree with the professor. Two in-class, small group, activities will occur each week - case study analysis. You must come to class prepared (read chapter and other readings for the week before class and do assignments), discuss issues, and review assignments. A rubric for participation can be found in the Folio classroom.

Brief Ad Critique: Each student will select some publicly available representation of an organization (advertisement, mission statement, social media entry, e.g) to present in class. Presentation should be no more than ten minutes. Guidelines will be provided.
Group Project: Each student will be assigned to a team, and each team will develop 1) an organizational strategic marketing plan, and 2) a social cause marketing plan that includes a social media marketing plan.

Samples of your work may be reproduced for search purposes and/or inclusion in the professor’s teaching portfolio. You have the right to review anything selected for use, and subsequently ask for its removal.

Exam Schedule and Final Examination: Final Examination Period: 1 May, 2017 3-5 pm

Three exams will be given throughout the course. Final Presentations will occur during the Final Examination Period.

Student Assessment: Assessments are linked to learning objectives for this class. Each assessment below is linked to the learning objectives above.

Weighting of assignments of grading will be as follows:

For calculation of your final grade, all grades above will be included.

Your grades will be posted in Folio. Quizzes and assignments will be graded and returned promptly so that students may accurately calculate their grades at any point in time during the semester.

There are times when extraordinary circumstances occur (e.g., serious illness, death in the family, etc.). In such circumstances, and/or if you need additional time to satisfactorily complete any course requirement, please consult with the professor within a reasonable amount of time.

Extensions are not guaranteed and will be granted solely at the discretion of the professor.

Academic Misconduct: As a student registered at this University, it is expected that you will adhere to only the strictest standards of conduct. It is recommended that you review the latest edition of the Student Conduct Code book, as well as the latest Undergraduate & Graduate Catalog to familiarize yourself with the University’s policies in this regard. Your continued enrollment in this course is an implied contract between you and the professor on this issue; from this point forward, it is assumed that you will conduct yourself appropriately.

Academic integrity relates to the appropriate use of intellectual property. The syllabus, lecture notes, and all materials presented and/or distributed during this course are protected by copyright law. Students are authorized to take notes in class, but that authorization extends only to making one set of notes for personal (and no other) use. As such, students are not authorized to sell, license, commercially publish, distribute, transmit, display, or record notes in or from class without the express written permission of the instructor.

Academic Handbook: Students are expected to abide by the Academic Handbook, located at http://students.georgiasouthern.edu/sta/guide/. Your failure to comply with any part of this Handbook may be a violation and thus, you may receive an F in the course and/or be referred for disciplinary action.

University Calendar for the Semester: The University Calendar is located with the semester schedule, and can be found at: http://www.collegesource.org/displayinfo/catalink.asp.

Attendance Policy: Federal regulations require attendance be verified prior to distribution of financial aid allotments. Attendance will be recorded for each class. Chronic attendance problems (missing two or more classes may lead to a reduction in your grade). Attendance is required and students are expected to attend every class.

One Final Note: The contents of this syllabus are as complete and accurate as possible. The professor reserves the right to make any changes necessary to the syllabus and course material. The professor will make every effort to inform students of changes as they occur. It is the responsibility of the student to know what changes have been made in order to successfully complete the requirements of the course.
