National Library Week

April 12, 2010

The Friends of Henderson Library are hosting the following two events to help celebrate National Library Week, which is April 11th through the 17th. The Friends recently updated their membership levels and benefits. Read more about these here. For more information about the following events or the Friends, e-mail library@georgiasouthern.edu or call 912-478-5115.

Title: The Hollywood Librarian

Location: Sorrier Community Room within the Statesboro Regional Library

Street: 124 S Main St

Date: Thursday, 4/15/2010

Time: 6-8 pm

Details: Help us celebrate National Library Week by enjoying the funny, insightful documentary film, The Hollywood Librarian. We will screen the film within the Isabel Sorrier Community Room of the Statesboro Regional Library on Thursday, April 15th at 6:00 pm. Sponsored by the Friends of Henderson Library and Friends of the Statesboro Regional Library, this event is free and open to the public. Light refreshments will be served.

Title: History of Libraries in Bulloch County

Location: Henderson Library Amphitheater

Date: Saturday, 4/17/2010

Time: 10:00 – 11:30 am

Details: Interested in Bulloch County history? Love libraries? Then, join Roger Allen for a discussion of the history of libraries in Bulloch County on Saturday, April 17th, as part of National Library Week. This free event is sponsored by the Friends of Henderson Library and the Statesboro Regional Library. At 10 am, we are meeting at the Henderson Library Amphitheater, located on the east side of the library (the side closest to the gazebo). A limited number of chairs will be available, and you are encouraged to bring a blanket or other seating for this natural space. In case of inclement weather, we will meet in Room 1300 located on the first floor of the library. Light refreshments will be served.
