Notes to Other Students—Peer Evaluation

- I liked how you involve the class by asking us questions about our pets. Thank you for sharing your story about Chester.
- I like how you used a chart to present the pros and cons of owning a dog. Your presentation was easy to follow. Maybe you can ask the class a few questions next time to get them involved in a discussion.
Letter Writing

9. Literacy and Reflection—

Friendly letters have 5 parts

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th></th>
<th></th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1. The Heading:</td>
<td>The heading can include your address and the date. In casual, friendly letters your address is not necessary.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2. The Salutation (greeting):</td>
<td>This usually begins with Dear_________. The blank is for the name of the person you are writing. After you write the person's name you put a comma ( , ).</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>3. The Body:</td>
<td>The body of the letter is the information you are writing in your letter. Indicate progress this week. Include:</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>a) topics studied,</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>b) an interesting fact that you learned,</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>c) one unanswered question that you still have.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>d) Indicate if you are you working to the best of your ability and if not what can you do better next week?</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>e) State2 indicators of your success this week.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>4. The Closing:</td>
<td>In the closing the first word is capitalized and you put a comma after the last word. Ask parents for feedback to your letter/comments. Have them respond to you on the back of your letter.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>5. Some examples of closings are:</td>
<td>Sincerely, Your friend,</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Love, Very truly yours,</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>6. Your Signature:</td>
<td>This is your name. It goes under the closing</td>
