Welcome to The G-A Daily newsletter! Thank you for your present and future readership. Be sure to keep up with us through our social media links above.

Two more teens have been arrested for threats at Bulloch County schools

A female Southeast Bulloch High School 9th grade student was arrested after writing a threatening message on the bathroom wall Monday, and a female 7th grade student from Langston Chapel Middle School joined her. "Gonna shoot up school on 2/12," the threat at SEB read.

Georgia Southern involved in lawsuit against the state of Georgia

The state of Georgia prevented Abby Martin, a documentary filmmaker and journalist, from speaking at a conference at Georgia Southern University this month, resulting in a lawsuit against the state.

Blue Room to host second annual Stop Light Party on Valentine’s Day

The Blue Room will be hosting their second annual Stop Light Party on Friday. A Stop Light Party is a party in which guests dress in colors relating most to their relationship status.

THE GEORGE-ANNE REFLECTOR MAGAZINE

How to Be Single on Valentine’s Day

Valentine’s Day. The most loving time of the year, right?
Nope. For the lonely, it’s the most dreaded day of the year. Cheesy cards, oversized stuffed animals and heart shaped candies galore. As a single person on Feb.14, how do we cope with this day of red madness?

Savannah’s List: Top 5 Things to Do On Campus This Week

Happy Valentine’s week! It’s a busy week on the Georgia Southern campus, so here are the top five events to check out this week!

PHOTO OF THE DAY

Spencer the dog was giving out $1 kisses for the Service Dog Training and Education Program.
Photo by Kristen Ballard