FRESHMAN REGISTRATION was made up of many long lines and much waiting around. Here the English division signs up freshmen for its classes. Mrs. Marjorie Guardia and Miss Dorothy Few were two of the helpful faculty members present.

'Prof' Schedule is Set; Enrollment High 3 New Teams on List

Georgia Teachers College will play a 22-game basketball schedule this season. The schedule, released this week by J. B. Searce Jr., athletic director and basketball coach, includes a three-game swing into Florida in December, three new opponents, and several old rivalries renewed.

Making their first appearance on a regular GTC schedule are Belmont-Abbey College of Belmont, N. C., Valdosta State College, and the University of Tampa. The Professors played Tampa in the semi-finals of the 1951 District NAIB, and won 75 to 71. Belmont-Abbey is a new basketball power in the south, winning 18. The Wofford and Florida Southern rivalries are being renewed after three years. Spring Hill makes their first visit to Statesboro on February 12, following three straight wins over the Professors at Mobile.

Four lettermen, including the two high scorers, will return this year to help Coach Searce improve on last season's so-so 13 and 11 mark. Center Chester Webb of Elberton, now a junior, scored 529 points last season to earn his second straight all-state rating. Sophomore Howard "Bo" Warren of Ludowici threw in 292 counters for second place in team scoring. Sophomore guard Don Wallen and junior guard Buddy Ward saw enough service to earn letter awards. Both are from Kentucky.

Newcomers to the squad include 6 foot 5 Ronnie Rush from Savannah Commercial; Tolbert's Lanny Heath, Garland Campbell, an Air Force dischargee from Keesler Field, Miss., Ted Strickland, a Georgia Southwestern transfer from Woodbury, and Wimpy Odom from Augusta's Richmond Academy.

Coach Searce arranged the schedule to enable the Professors to play their home games in the new gymnasium now under construction. The architect has promised completion by early January.

The schedule is as follows, with only a home date with Mercer University to be arranged:

Dec. 1, Parris Island, T; Dec. 9, Stetson, T; Dec. 10, Rollins, T; Dec. 11, Tampa, T; Dec. 18, Wofford, Augusta; Jan. 6, Piedmont, T; Jan. 8, Erskine, T; Jan. 10, Florida Southern, H; Jan. 12, Quantico, H; Jan. 15, Belmont-Abbey, H; Jan. 17, Erskine, H; Jan. 22, Valdosta State, H; Jan. 26, Parris Island, H; Jan. 28, Tampa, H; Feb. 2, Stetson, H; Feb. 5, Rollins, H; Feb. 10, Piedmont, H; Feb. 12, Spring Hill, H; Feb. 15, Mercer, H; Feb. 19, North Georgia, H; Feb. 21, Florida Southern, T.

Dr. Park Assumes Duties at GTC As Chairman of Education Division

Dr. James D. Park arrived on the GTC campus August first to take over duties as chairman of the division of education and director of the Laboratory School. Dr. Park has experience on all levels of education. He has served as superintendent of elementary and secondary schools. For seven years, he served as superintendent of schools of Colorado and at the same time was associated with the Colorado College of Education. Other educational experiences has been with the Kellogg Foundation, a program for improvement of education.

He received his B.S. degree from Southeastern Oklahoma

Teachers College, M.S. degree from Western State College of Colorado, and Ph.D. from Colorado State College of Education, and has done further work at the University of Texas and Southwestern University of Texas.

Dr. Park is a member of National Education Association, American Association of School Administrators, National Honorary Fraternity in Education, Phi Delta Kappa, and Masonic Lodge. He now resides at 314 South Zetterow with his wife and three sons.

He succeeds Dr. Thomas C. Little who left last July to accept a position with the Richmond, Va., city school system.

Enrollment High Says Registrar

According to figures received from the office of the Registrar, the enrollment for the current school year shows a slight increase over the figures of a year ago. The total enrollment as of last Monday had reached 576, with the possibility of a slight increase over that before the deadline for registration is reached.

As is usual, the freshman class leads in number of students with a total of 217 registered. The sophomore class comes next with 145 followed by the junior class with 111 registered. The senior class is the smallest with 103 members. This smaller figure can be attributed to the transition from eleven to twelve grades taking place in most of our high schools at that time.

With this increase in enrollment and the new degree program now being offered, all signs point to a very successful school year ahead.

Homick, Wells, Replace Business Faculty at GTC

Stephen B. Homick replaces Dr. Cameron Bremseth as chairman of the business education division and Mrs. Ione Wells has filled the position vacated by Miss Marjorie Keaton.

Mrs. Wells is a graduate of Alabama College where she received her B.S. degree in business education and her Masters in 1953 from Florida State University. Mrs. Wells has two daughters, Patricia and Susan. Her home is in Dothan, Ala. She has taught in high school in Dothan, and at Troy State Teachers College.

Mr. Homick received his B.S. degree from Kent State University in Ohio, and his Masters from Peabody College and part of his Ph.D. at Peabody College in Columbia.

Mr. Homick has taught at Berea College in Kentucky, State Teachers College in Tennessee and Peabody College. He has a wife and one son, John Louis. He served with the Courtier Corps during the war and traveled in thirteen countries for forty-three states out of the forty-eight states during that time.

Twenty-five TC Seniors Now Student Teaching

The fall quarter of Georgia Teachers College teacher training program moved into full swing last Monday as 25 practice teachers, all seniors in the GTC education division, began their assignments in six southeast Georgia schools.

G-A Staff Is Reorganized For Fall Quarter

With this issue, the George-Anne begins operating with an enlarged and recognized staff.

Under Editor hCerrill Williams, senior, Perry, the editorial and reporting staff that follows will operate this quarter:

Jo Ann Hill, sophomore, Hawkinsville; Nancy Armstrong, senior, Decatur.

Congratulations to Someone

Congratulations to the freshmen for making orientation Week a big success with many pleasant memories to be recalled.

You really participated in everything and made the welcome party, the night at the Skate-R-Bowl, the Community Center Dance, Skit Night, Faculty Reception, and especially the Student Council Dance a success. Now all of you have to do is wear your rat hats.

Also a big word of congratulations to the Student Council and the student advisors for their splendid job of steering the freshmen through the week.

Be Collegiate, Be In a Club

Masquers is typical of the GTC organization off to a good start for 1954-55.

The other night at their introduction meeting an estimated 100 students packed and jammed the auditorium's rehearsal hall.

Returning to a favorite organization when it has come alive so much is certainly a thrill.

The summer brought about most of this change;
the new students the rest. After a lovely quite summer spent at home, most students are ready to come back and do something again.

Being active in a club is one of the best ways to constructively use this stored energy and also to have a good time.

This week the church suppers which really are more typical than unusual showed just how much fun an organization can have.

The work that one can accomplish showed up in the George-Anne cave Tuesday night as three typists were kept busy for three hours.

This good beginning in extra curricular activities should be indicative of an entire year of activity and fun. The only question is; will it last?

Hitch Your Wagon to a Star

Another year, another fall, another school term already under way.

This new session of life at GTC has all earmarks of being mighty successful. After all, look at everything there is to work with, a bright new freshman class of 217 eager faces and numerous physical improvements.

GTC is really on its way up in the world as is typified by the buzz of continuous building activity at the gym.
Even better signs though, are such completed projects as the president's new home, the public address system in the auditorium, and television sets in the lounge of each dormitory.

The student council tries and tries to do small things that will benefit the students and the lighted tennis court is the result of one of these projects and more will be completed soon.

All our growth is not materialistic though; winter quarter a Sunday afternoon concert by the Boston Pops Symphony Orchestra will perhaps outshine the Beauty Review and Homecoming weekend that it crowns nicely.

All together, isn't it nice to be here.

Rat Squeaks

By A FRESHMAN

Sunday, we simply arrived.
Simply, yes! From the kingpins of high school seniors to the lowliness of a freshman "rat."
Some of us came from stardom in scholastics, music, athletics, and other extracurricular activities. Others of us just came.

We were impressed first by the natural beauty which God, with His own hands, worked out to make one of the most beautiful campuses we had ever seen. It not only had this, but cleanliness and the environment, which could almost be felt within, which made each of us feel as though, "I've been here before."

Finally, after meeting our new mothers, and telling our other one goodbye, we started noticing how friendly everyone was. In the chow line, the dorms, the gym—yes, they were truly friendly, even the upperclassmen.

We finally ended our tour back in our own little rooms, turned on the radio, and what was playing? "Wish You Were Here." Turning the picture of that special one around, we felt like crying. Some of us did. We didn't have a shoulder available, no one to turn to, no mother to call, but we stuck it out, and we received something for it
—our "rat" hats!

Here, straight from the "rats," are some individual impressions of GTC, based upon the question "How were you impressed by GTC, as a "rat?"

Herman Wood, Barlow—"I think it's a nice college and I believe the teachers can help you with any problems which you face."

Bobby Moore, Brunswick—"I like the music division and the friendly atmosphere."

Darwin Humphreys, Vidalia—"I love the ratio of the boys and girls."

Garland Campbell, Hoosier—"From
the pitter patter of feet,
I think it's going to remind me of home."

Mike Jones, Ashland, Ky—"I think it's great! People in my own home some aren't as friendly as they are here."

Gwen Shell, Savannah—"I hated it at first, but after settling down, I fell for it."

Beverly Perkins, Richland—"I'm crazy about the friendly atmosphere."

Genelle Bussey, Waynesboro—"I like the food and the nice looking boys."

Jo Ann Carroll—"I think it's kind of mixed up."

Helen Knight, Vidalia—"I like it because it's coed, but I don't like the ratio."

Shirley Jones, Hazelhurst—"I'd already had a pre-look, and fell in love with it."

We were impressed—yes, but we are still looking forward with hope, love, and sincerity to the time when we shall find our place in life here at GTC.

Letter

To Students of Georgia
Teachers College:

As your representatives, the Student Council is especially anxious to work on projects that are wanted by and will benefit you.

Very soon the social activities
for the year will be planned, and we are eager to receive suggestions from you for improving campus life.

We are happy to report that two of last year's projects are already completed, or will be very soon. Lights have been installed on one of the tennis courts, and a phonograph and

Temporarily...

By BABS WISENBAKER

Lewis Hall has been rich in social doings so far this quarter.
The social picture focuses such varied phases as summer vacation trips, weekend guests, and bestowal of several engagement rings on Lewis Hall residents.

Midge Bentley took to the mountains, serving as secretary to the president of Young Harris College, Young Harris, Georgia. Angene Culbreth
spent some time in Baltimore, Maryland, while Cherrell Williams went to Battle Creek Michigan for a while.

Visitors to Lewis Hall and the GTC campus last weekend
were Faye Tharpe, Theresa Williams, Betty Hartley and Nelda Edwards, who are all from Perry. Another signature in the Lewis Hall guest book was that of Shirley Dykes, Savannah, a former student of GTC.

Many new residents of Lewis Hall are transfer students. Dale Warnock of Tarrytown and Betty Horne of Mount Vernon, are both transfers from Brewton Parker Junior College. Other transfer students are Johnnie
Mae Edwards, Bonilyn Bell, Annette Deen, Dorothy Landon, Betty Perkins, Margaret Hale, Carolyn Pierce, and Caroline Readdick.

Leaving Lewis Hall for practice teaching assignments recently were Mary Jo Ramsey and Mary Dillworth, who went to Vidalia.

Making their home in the Home Management House this quarter are Mary Jo Jackson of Attapulgas, Sara Fletcher of Chula, and Rachel Powe from Camilla.

The East Hall girls seem to have kept up their rapid pace which they set last year from the looks of their summer activities.

Tissie Jordan, Bartow, took a trip to New York which lasted for two weeks. On her way back she took in the sights of Washington, and points of interest in Virginia.

Barbara and Marcia Wilkins spent their summer vacation at Look-Out Mountain in North
Georgia.

Nancy McIntosh, Waycross
junior, went with friends to New York for two weeks. She visited Coney Island and other points of interest.

East Hall also has added new students by way of transfers.
June Prescott, Waynesboro
junior, has transferred from South Georgia. Lilli Douberly, Savannah junior, has transferred from Erskine. Priscilla Smith, Claxton junior, has transferred from Shorter College.

Mr. McDougall made the statement that the termites were not letting the eager beaver freshmen get ahead of them.
The termites have been found in the books at the book store getting their supply of knowledge.

The freshmen, however, do not let any grass grow under their feet from the looks of the summer vacations of these new "Frosh" and the way they are entering into college life.

Freshmen June and Jane Knight, Uldine Shuman, Shirley
Wood, Gladys Brown, Diane
Wright, Sue Buchan, Mary Jane Harper, Nancy Stubbs, and Eugenia Wright went to New York for their summer vacations. They had a marvelous time getting around to see all the fabulous sights of New York.

Marilyn Krugman of Daytona attended the Elks Club National Convention in Los Angeles this summer and came back by way of Ohio to see the All-Star Baseball game.

Rochelle Woodward spent three weeks at Camp Glisson in Dahlonega, Georgia as a member of the North Georgia MYF conference council.

Marilyn Coons, Savannah, plans to spend the weekend in Brunswick with Punky Allen and Vila Browne.

A surprise birthday party was given Wednesday night for Joan Hurst, freshman, Savannah, by some of her friends in West Hall.

At the time this was written a title for this column was not decided upon, therefore it is simply called "Temporarily."

SOCIETY...

Looking about the campus anyone can see that there are quite a number of old faces missing which were supposed to return this quarter.

The reason for this absence in most cases is due to a very old custom which is termed "marriage." Not all of the students who have married, however, failed to return to school. There are also those who plan to return later in the year.

Among these students mentioned above are:

Dot Hamilton, freshman of last year, from Brunswick who was married September 18,
to Farrell Sparks, sophomore, from Canton.

Linda Brown, freshman of last year, from Brunswick is engaged to be married October public address system is to be installed in the dining hall in the near future.

Again, we are interested in working on improvements that you want. You can help a great deal if you will let us know your ideas.

—Sincerely, Phil Norton,
president of Student Council.

24, to Royce Mock, June graduate from Colquitt.

Patsy Edenfield, one of our chosen beauties from the freshman class last year, from Portal, will be married October 3, to Jack Bowen of Register. Patsy plans to return to school in the winter quarter and resume her studies.

Janel Fields, our "Miss Gator Maid" of last year, from Portal, is making plans to be married to Henry Smith, freshman of last year, from Statesboro.

Claudia DeLoach, sophomore of Glennville, was married to Bo Bragg, freshman of last year, from Statesboro. Claudia, however, is back at school
again this year.

Shirley Hanson, senior, Avondale Estates, is engaged to Ensign Spencer Overstreet.

Betty Vardeman, senior, Waverly Hall, Georgia, is wearing the engagement ring of Mallie Denmark.

Shirley Rountree, sophomore,
Twin Cities, is penned to Bob Tanner of the University of Georgia.

This must be the reason why the benches out on front
campus are so broken up;
heavy courting!!

Did Watchbird Find You Asleep

This is a watchbird watching you! Did you go to church last Sunday?

If you are not sure about the bus schedules for church activities this is for you:

Baptist bus—Sunday School, 9:45; church, 10:45; BSU, 6:15, and church, 7:15.

Methodist bus — Sunday School, 10:00; church, 11:15; Wesley Foundation, 6:20, and church, 7:15.

Presbyterian—Sunday School, 10:00; church, 11:15; Westminster Fellowship, 6:15; and church, 7:15.

Episcopalians—Church, 8:00 a. m. and 11:30 a. m.

Primitive Baptist — Sunday School, 10 a. m.; church, 11:15 a. m.

Catholic—Mass, 8:30 a. m. and 10:00 a. m.

If you went to any of the church parties on Wednesday night you more than likely had a really good time and met lots of wonderful people! Participate in your church activities and get to know your ministers—then you really get inside college life.

DUNCAN REPLACES ROGERS AS NEW DEAN OF WOMEN

Miss Helen G. Duncan is the new Dean of Women succeeding Miss Ida Long Rogers who resigned this summer to accept a position at Peabody College.

A native of Cameron, Mo., Miss Duncan has resided most of her life in Ohio where she served as guidance director in several high schools.

Before accepting a position on the GTC faculty, she served in the capacity of a resident hall counselor at the University of Florida for two years. Prior to this Miss Duncan was at Fitzgerald High School as guidance director.

Thirteen Frosh Exempt English

Thirteen freshmen were exempted from English 102, the first freshman English course because of the high grades they made on the English tests during last week.

Dianna Bair, Pelham, with a 95, made the highest score of all. Others exempted on the basis of their score include Stanley H. Brobston, Baxley; Careen Hatcher, Albany; Nancy Stubbs, Statesboro; Charlotte Blitch, Statesboro; Mary Jamison, Hazelhurst; Darwin Humphrey, Vidalia; James Niblett, Monroe; Kelly Brown, Nahunta; Beth Bannister, Coolidge; Carmen Roach, Statesboro; Shirley Jones Hazelhurst; and Shirley Maxwell, Cairo.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Caplenor visited in middle Tennessee during the summer.

Vacationing in Detroit, Mich. and the Great Lakes area were Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Hanner Sr.

Harold C. Steele, biology instructor, spent the summer promoting his book "I Was A Stranger."

Dr. and Mrs. Leland Wilson and family visited in Richmond, Ky., in the region of the Renfro Valley.

The Music Box

"Jig" music seems to be the main thing at the Grill these days, but Kitty Kallen's ballads are still causing a few of us to sigh in our coffee cups.

"Hey There" is our favorite from the Hit Parade and "Sh-Boom" runs a close second, followed by "This Old House."

By the way, have you heard "Hold My Hand" by Don Cornell? It's from the newest Debbie Reynolds' picture, "Susan Slept Here," and the gals in Lewis Hall are real crazy 'bout it.

Saturday night at the freshman dance, there seemed to be a special fondness for the dance band's rendition of "Blue Moon" and "Tenderly."

A few energetic souls are still sweating through the Bunny Hop, but the "Dirty Boogie" and "Cat Dance" are slowly taking over. We have some real cool jitterbuggers on campus this year—they were really "livin'-it-up" at the Skate-R-Bowl the other night.

Don't get drunk doing the Mambo, and I'll see ya' soon.

Saxes — Harriet Woodard, Hazelhurst; Glen Coston, Metter; Martha Lacey, Hazelhurst; Peggie Jackson, Brunswick; Milton Horris, Albany; Clinton Smith, Sylvania.

Percussion — Don Flanders, Statesboro; Billie Kinchen, Hazelhurst; Nina Jones, Charleston, S. C.

Miss Nita Graham Joins PE Staff

Joining the health and physical education division this fall, and probably the youngest member of the growing Georgia Teachers College faculty, is Miss Nita Graham, the pride of Coach J. B. Searce and the physical education department.

She comes here from high school physical education work.

A native of Princeton, Ala., she is the new instructor in girls' activities.

MISS FREEMAN AT CONFERENCE ON RURAL EDUCATION

Miss Bertha Freeman will be attending the national conference in rural education in Washington, October 4, through October 5, as state president of the Association for Childhood Education.

Mr. Taylor Naps During Vacation; Campus Shines

Mr. Taylor says he slept through vacation—that is, in between jobs, he slept.

Many of those "oh's" and "ah's" you've heard around the campus are part of the pay-off for the maintenance department and are the result of long summer hours spent with hammers, ladders, paints, brushes, and whatnot. East and West Hall have really been put through the works. Almost everything has been repaired, refinished or replaced, and the entire buildings have been freshly painted on the inside. However, the work Mr. Taylor is particularly proud of is the installation of fire doors.

In Sanford Hall, the screens have been repaired and new doors installed. Tile has been used to improve the general appearance and practical purposes of the bathrooms and all first floors.

By now you have noticed the new look in the dining room. And did you know there is a newly installed 80-gallon steam kettle?

The maintenance department has been very active this summer, but it seems they still have many interesting ideas for the future. At present the upper lake is in the process of being deepened and restocked. Some of the new plans include improvements on Lewis Hall, the Blue Tide, and the Lab. School.

Surely must have been wonderful sleep, Mr. Taylor. Forty winks between a lazy drain and a rotten sash. All this and little fishes, too.

The Green Turtle

By IDA WHITTLE

The painters really did go wild this summer in East and West Halls, and they managed to come up with some very unusual but beautiful results. All the rooms in both dormitories were completely done over in such colors as pink (which is quite a shocking shade), blue, green, green, and more green. Green certainly must be somebody's favorite color around here because so much of it has been used.

While attending one of the first of the staff and faculty meetings, Mrs. Johnson, during the course of the evening was asked to introduce herself. She jokingly announced that she was house mother at "the Green Turtle," formerly known as East Hall until some very green changes were made. However, she would like to clarify her statement in order to make certain that anyone seeking refreshments should not confuse her "Green Turtle" with the very famous dining and night club establishment of the same name located in Florida.

All joking aside, everyone agrees that now our dormitories are really something to be proud of with their recently painted walls and freshly sanded floors. Everything looks so nice and clean and "Donie" says that she thinks it will be easy to keep it that way if everybody is willing to do his part.

Dr. Zach S. Henderson, president, will speak at the regular assembly program in the auditorium Monday at 10 a. m. Dr. Guy Wells, former GTC prexy, the following Monday.

Lab. School Has Enrollment of 454

The Laboratory School of GTC has an enrollment of 454 for the school year, reports J. A. Pafford, principal. Of these, 205 are in the high school and 249 in the kindergarten and elementary school. Many of these students are new due to zoning of an area of Bulloch county to the Laboratory School.

In spite of many problems, the school has had one of its best beginnings, with a well qualified faculty and one of the best programs in the history of the Laboratory School, states Mr. Pafford.

There are nineteen regular members of the faculty of which three are new and one a returnee. New teachers are: Mrs. Beatrice Teel, seventh grade; Alvin McLendon Jr., exact science; and Mrs. Miriam Smith, business. Miss Elizabeth Kessler is a returnee, having been in England for the past year as an exchange teacher.

Two teachers, John Huxford and Melvin Seidel, will be employed on a part time basis in the music department.
