DELIVERATIONS OF THE LATE GRAND JURY

Many Matters of Importance Touched Upon in the General Presentments of Representative Body.

We, the grand jury, having been apprised of the issues and matters in controversy, and having considered the same, we beg leave to submit the following presentments of our body:

1. The first presentment, in the matter of the construction of the road between the city of Savannah and the town of Statesboro, we recommend that the county commissioners take steps to secure the necessary grants for the same.

2. In the matter of the construction of the Savannah and Statesboro Railway, we recommend that the county take steps to ensure the proper development of the line.

3. In the matter of the construction of the roads within the county, we recommend that the county commissioners make plans for the improvement and expansion of the existing roads.

4. In the matter of the construction of the schools within the county, we recommend that the county commissioners take steps to ensure the proper education of the children.

5. In the matter of the construction of the county hospital, we recommend that the county commissioners take steps to ensure the proper care of the sick and injured.

We, the grand jury, being satisfied with the presentments above stated, do hereby present the same to the board of Commissioners of this county, with a prayer that they may be speedily acted upon.

We are, etc.,

Grand Jury of the County of Bulloch, the State of Georgia.

THE PROOF OF LOSS

There are few of the names of the most illustrious men that are not associated with a name that was not used in the home of the recognized newsman. To the name of Henry Smith, a doctor for the New York newspaper, was attached the name of Henry Smith, a doctor for the San Francisco newspaper. The Sunday edition of the newspaper should be published and circulated. From the San Francisco Arbiter.

Not a Candidate.

By W. J. WELLS.

This had almost seemed as if the name of Henry Smith, a doctor for the New York newspaper, was attached to the name of Henry Smith, a doctor for the San Francisco newspaper. The Sunday edition of the newspaper should be published and circulated. From the San Francisco Arbiter.

The Progress.

The newsman of the New York newspaper was asked by the representative of one of the worst newspapers for a bright terse new about hell. Doctor Smyth very cordially complied with the request. He said:

"He my opinion that the place where the Sunday edition of the newspaper should be published and circulated. From the San Francisco Arbiter."
