Bylaws Change re: definition of full-time faculty

Submitted by: Michael Moore/SEC

11/8/2007

Motion:

In Bylaws II.1.a and IV.17.f, delete the phrase "regular full-time faculty" and replace it with "full-time faculty."

Rationale:

The term "regular" serves no purpose in these passages defining how apportionment is to be conducted since all full-time faculty -- whether temporary, permanent, tenure-track, or tenured -- are part of the GSU faculty electorate. The term only can cause confusion by suggesting that some full-time faculty are somehow "irregular," like cheap suits.

Senate Response:

Approved by the Faculty Senate 11/27/2007

Motion: Bylaws change re: definition of full-time faculty. Michael Moore (COE) for the SEC moved that in Bylaws II.1.a and IV.17.f, we delete the phrase "regular full-time faculty" and replace it with "full-time faculty."
