Georgia Southern MFA students present work at Sulfur Studios in Savannah

October 28, 2019

Matter is an exhibition of work by current MFA students at Georgia Southern University.

Work will be on view from Oct. 31 to Nov. 1 at Sulfur Studios, 2301 Bull Street in Savannah, Georgia. A reception will be held Nov. 1 from 6-9 p.m.

Highly interdisciplinary and multimedia in nature, the exhibition offers a range of approaches for understanding the relationships we have to each other and to our lived environments, by exploring the physical and emotional conditions that shape (and are shaped by) our current world.

The exhibition features work by Nicole James, Meredith Conger, Makaili Taylor, Nikolaus James, Lyndsey Frantz, Cody Thomas, Zohreh Galdizadeh, Tameka Philips, Madeline Shelor, Eric Sanders, Jessica Cartwright, Amy Nelson, Jada Miller and Ashrafi Sultana.
