Seventy-One Students On Winter Dean List

Seventy-one GTC students met the minimum academic requirements for the Dean's List last quarter, according to an announcement posted last week.

Delegates Attend ACEI Meeting In Kansas City

Miss Bertha Freeman, associate professor of education, will go to Kansas City, Mo., April 11-16 to attend the Association of Childhood Education International Study Conference. Accompanying Miss Freeman will be Misses Marie O'Neal and Gladys Waller, instructors in the Laboratory School. Student delegates will be Nancy Armstrong and Shirley Scott. Nancy is a senior from Decatur, and Shirley is a junior from Reidsville. The conference theme will be "Focus on Children" and will feature the following personalities as speakers: Alyce Keliher, New York University; Agnes Snyder, Adelphi College; J. D. M. Griffin, Canadian Mental Health Association; James L. Hymes, Peabody; and Leland B. Jacobs, Columbia University.

Miss Freeman, as state president of ACEI, will make the ACEI report of the state of Georgia, and will serve as a consultant to branch forum groups.

Excursions have been arranged for conference attendants to points of interest in and near Kansas City. Among the places listed are Truman's Home in Independence, Mo., Kansas City Stockyards, Kansas City Museum, Hallmark Greeting Cards Co., and an inter-city night tour.

Hooley - Broucek To Give Recital

Professors Jack Broucek and Dan Hooley of the music faculty of Georgia Teachers College will be presented in a duo-piano recital on Wednesday evening, April 27, by the Music Education Club of the college. This will be a benefit performance for the club and will be the third concert presented by these young artists of the keyboard.

The program has been designed to please all types of music lovers and will be released at a later date.

Mr. Broucek has been on the faculty at GTC for ten years having formerly been connected with the music department of the University of Connecticut. Mr. Hooley, now serving his second year at GTC, was formerly instructor of music in the public schools of Mercersburg, Pennsylvania.

Social Calendar Set for Quarter by Committee

A changed program for the annual May Day Festival was revealed in the spring quarter social calendar released this week.

The activities, as scheduled by the Social Committee, a sub-committee of the Student Council, range from record dances, to the May Day Formal, and includes two movies.

Because of the lack of student interest shown the May Day Festivals the past few years, new plans are being made. According to the Social Committee the May Day Formal will be held on Thursday night, May 5, a departure from the usual rule against week-night social activities. Final plans concerning May Day are being completed by the Student Council and will be announced later.

The activities planned are as follows:

- Saturday, April 9—Movie, "Mr. Deed Goes to Town."
- Saturday, April 16—Orchestra dance, West Hall (H. S. seniors as guests).
- Saturday, April 23—Student Council sponsored activity.
- Saturday, April 30—Orchestra dance (FBLA).
- Thursday, May 5—May Day Formal.
- Saturday, May 7—Movie, "Good Humor Man."
- Saturday, May 14—Dance (Music Education Club).
- Saturday, May 21—Science Club.
- Saturday, May 28—Orchestra dance (sophomore class).

I-A Club Begins Work on Signs

The signs for the front entrance to the G. T. C., a project of the Industrial Arts Club, will be completed in time for the Commencement in June.

There will be two signs, and they will be the reflective type which shows up at night. The size of the sign depends on the size of the lettering of the sign. The approximate size of the signs will be 18 by 16 feet.

A faculty committee composed of: Zach Henderson, president; John Erickson, associate professor of industrial arts; Miss Roxie Remley, assistant professor of fine arts; and Roy Powell, director of public relations is working on the final design.

Jimmy Johnson, senior, submitted the sketch winning the first prize of ten dollars. Prizes for the second and third best sketches were also awarded.

The design must be approved before the construction of the sign is a project of the Industrial Arts Club.

Billy Dennard, Abbeville; Billie Kinchen, Hazelhurst; and Mary Ann Kemp, Sylvania.

Production Date for Student-Directed Plays

Two dramatic one-act plays have been chosen by members of the play directing class for production April 10, to an invited audience.

The plays are "Cloey," a folk play of North Carolina directed by Shirley Rountree and "Talk to Me Like Rain," a drama by Tennessee Williams, directed by Carlton Humphrey.

Casts for the plays have been chosen by the student directors who have complete charge of the full production, and rehearsals are already underway. In the cast of "Cloey" are Nancy Stubbs, Alyce McCord, Sara Frances Driggers, and Bob Allen.

In the cast of "Talk to Me Like the Rain" are Phil Norton and Jane Seabolt.

The plays will be presented in the Masquers rehearsal room backstage in McCroan Auditorium, and will be presented to an invited audience due to limited seating space and the dramatic nature of the two plays.

Students wishing to attend the performances are requested to contact one of the student directors for reserved seats. This will be necessary for all students wishing to see the plays. No admission price will be charged.

The direction of a one-act play is a laboratory course for the play directing class, an advanced speech subject. In this laboratory, students choose a play they want to produce after weighing the types of dramas and reading several plays of each type. They then try out skills of acting techniques, directing and rehearsal procedures, lighting and sound effects that have been learned in earlier speech courses. As such, the direction of a play is required of students taking the course.

Language Days Are Observed

On Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday of the past week "foreign language days" were held on the GTC campus. These days were under the direction of Dr. Zolton J. Farkas, head of the department of foreign languages.

The beginning German class presented a special program at assembly Monday. The program showing a typical class in session was presented along with songs by both the German and French classes.

A special display showing books, magazines, pictures, and records of foreign countries was set up in the mail hall of the administration building for three days. Movies on Austria, Germany, Switzerland, and France were shown each afternoon at 3:30 for the college students and also a special showing was held on Tuesday afternoon for the visiting high school students who were on campus that day.

Spring Quarter Enrollment Falls

Georgia Teachers College enrollment of 583 precedes by 15 the enrollment figure of 598 for the winter quarter. The enrollment for the spring quarter is the same as the fall quarter of this year.

Forty-two new students entering this quarter still wasn't enough to bring the quarter's enrollment past the previous quarter. A total of 57 students were lost from the winter quarter either by graduation or various other reasons.

A breakdown of the new students show that 18 freshmen, five women and 13 men; six sophomores, three men and three women; seven juniors, two men and five women; and 11 seniors, five men and six women.

A breakdown by classes show that the women outnumbered the men on campus by a very small percentage. Of the 190 freshmen, 99 are women and 91 men; 130 sophomores, 69 women, 61 men; 138 juniors, 72 women, 66 men; and 125 seniors, 64 women and 61 men.

Three out-of-state students entered school this quarter. The states represented this quarter are South Carolina, Florida, and Kentucky. The enrollment also includes two foreign students, one from Germany and one from Cuba.

Masquers Name Play for Quarter

The Masquers have announced that their major production for the spring quarter will be "Dear Brutus" by J. M. Barrie which will be presented on the night of May 15.

Preliminary tryouts for this production will be held in the rehearsal room back of the stage on Monday, April 3, at 6 o'clock p. m. and on Tuesday, April 4, at 4 o'clock p. m. Anyone who cannot attend at this time may try out at 10 o'clock on Tuesday, April 4.

GTC Students Play for Meet

Sara Cunnard, sophomore, Conyers, and Sara Frances Driggers, sophomore, Stilson, both majors in the GTC music division served as part of a demonstration group in college piano for the piano division of the Georgia Music Educators Association Convention in Atlanta on March 17-18. Dr. Robert Lee Pace of Columbia University was the guest clinician for this event. He has conducted three clinics for piano teachers on the campus of Georgia Teachers College.

A Fresh Start

By GENE MEADOWS

Changing the words of a song title used by the Men of Song in their concert last quarter, we may say, "Spring is Bursting Out All Over." Could this be applied to our life here at GTC this spring? Spring is said to be a rejuvenation; a coming back to life. It seems to me that this may well be used on our campus.

On Tuesday, March 22, another quarter of collegiate activity got underway at GTC. As usual, at the beginning of a new quarter, practically every student is taking a look into the past, as well as one into the future.

Too many, as they look back over the winter quarter or even the last two quarters, it will not be such a pleasant sight to their eyes. Only then do some remember the many times they "goofed off" instead of attending that class, helping their club with its float, studying for the test, and many other matters which seemed trivial at the time. Then they find at the end, when all these "trivial" things are counted up, they have missed out on something. They are suddenly aware that their quarter of work wasn't as successful as it might have been.

Then, too, there have been those who have had more than their share of frustrations that inevitably come with each quarter. Virus, flu, and illness were three words that were not uncommon on campus during the past quarter. Certainly, they took their toll along with the things already mentioned in putting a dent in the aspirations and hopes of those unlucky individuals whom they hit.

Now with that quarter in the past, and a new one at its beginning, they will be taking a look into the future. As always, at the beginning of the quarter, these looks are filled with the same hopes and aspirations as they began the preceding quarters with.

As spring brings to nature a rebirth, so should it bring students back alive and in high spirits. Of course, there'll be that initial seige of "spring fever" and also a certain little "bug" has been known to get around more in spring than in other seasons. But we can start the spring just as God starts it; with an eagerness, a freshness, and a desire to get things done.

The quarter has a start on us, but there's still time to make this one the best yet.

Let's do it!

The Good Side

By CAROLYN PIERCE

While in the general assembly of visiting students on High School Day, our student council president, Phil Norton, talked to the assembly for a few minutes. One of his remarks was, "We think our college has so many good things that it's hard to pick a few to tell you about." Sounds quite strange, doesn't it? We're so used to complaining and harping on the bad things that we never have time to even think about the good things, much less talk about them.

Our school is well known as the "friendly campus." Have you noticed? Although we would have to really go some to know every person's name on campus, a visitor could hardly tell that we didn't. The friendly "Hi's" that pass between students may seem like an everyday sort of thing, but it means more than just that. They give the whole campus a friendly atmosphere that's hard to beat.

Of course everyone complains about the food, but just go to a few other colleges, and then come back. You'll certainly appreciate it more. After all, it is a little harder to cook for 600 than it is for five or six. Agree?

What about a vote of thanks to the Community Concert Series for providing us with some of the best entertainment to be found. The programs they sponsored were enjoyed by a number of GTC students.

The extra-curricular activities on campus are active enough and numerous enough to supply plenty of activity for all the students who say, "There's nothing to do around here." If you haven't attended any of the clubs of interest to you, why not try it? More than likely, you'll go back again.

The baseball team certainly roused school spirit not otherwise shown, although the baseball team isn't being quite so successful in that line. The boys on the team work long and hard for GTC, so why don't we give them a little backing? If you don't go because you just don't understand the game, which I seriously doubt, it certainly doesn't take long to catch on, and the team will appreciate your presence. From the sports page, you can gather that they've had a successful season so far, so let's give them the support they well deserve.

Then there's the campus itself. Its beauty stands out in the minds of those who take the time to look at it. I think, perhaps, it is commented on by visitors as much, and probably more than anything else.

All in all, GTC is a pretty nice place at which to live, work, and play.

Think it over, and I'm sure you'll agree.

Believe ...

That every individual regardless of race, religion, creed, or color has the same privileges according to the teachings of Jesus. Jesus turned away no one for any of the petty reasons which we hold against people today.

When we have our petty grievances, it would be well if we would go back to the greatest teacher the world has ever known for a little learning.

The Music Box

By HARRIET WOODARD

While the band was on tour in North Georgia some of the members heard a song called "Unchained Melody" and just fell in love with it. It's really a fine song and I think Al Hibbler is the fellow who croons it for Decca.

The DeCastro Sisters have turned out another hit and it's taking off just like "Teach Me Tonight" 'did a little while ago, so you'd better get it quick. It's "Boom, Boom Boomerang" 'and on the other side of the platter is "Let Your Love Walk In." 'Course these gals aren't quite as popular as the McGuire gals, but they deserve a big hand. Just give them a little time and they'll make the top.

To all the brown-eyed lassies on campus we dedicate The Ames Brothers new smash follow-up to "Naughty Lady." It's called "Sweet Brown-Eyed Baby," and on the flip side is a similar ditty called "Sympathetic Eyes."

In the way of program or movie music, here's a great one to listen to. Remember the movie "Lost Weekend" that won several awards a few years ago? Well, the French music-maker, Henri Rene', and his fine orchestra made a fine record for RCA Victor called "Theme From Lost Weekend." Pretty good listening.

To all the music majors who've been neglecting their piano practice lately, here's one that really hits a low blow. It's called "Dust Off that Old Pianna." by a character called Poppa John Gordy.

To Star we dedicate a real crazy thing called "I Pulled a Boo Boo" by Jimmy Martin. No hard feelings, cuz.

Seems like Homer and Jethro are determined to make hash of every song we like. Besides the one I mentioned above, there's another nutty thing they dubbed "The Nutty Lady of Shady Lane." What will they do next, pray tell.

It's been quite a while since we had a good look at the Music Box, so let's take a peek. Last quarter right during the time we were all cramming for finals, several folks made requests for songs, but your lazy music reported didn't quite get around to making them. Please 'scuse me, I'm kinda slow.

First, I had a request for a record to Lyn. He likes "Blue Mirage" by Guy Lombardo and his Royal Canadians. 'Course, it's beginning to lose its popularity now after a few weeks, but it was pretty while it lasted.

Crazy Otto records are really sweeping the country lately. Nearly every music lover, young or old, seems to like his care-free, happy style. Reminds me of the old bar room type of music that was popular back in goodness knows when. Besides his much heard "Smiles," "Glad Rag Doll," and "Crazy Otto Medley No. 3," he really lives it up with his version of "In the Mood" and "Melancholy Baby." Watch this guy—he's going places.

Here's one for Vondall. It's one by our friend, Johnny "Cry Boy" Ray and it's called "Flip, Flop, and Fly." Real cute.

Eddie Arnold, "The Tennessee Plowboy," celebrates his tenth anniversary with RCA Victor with an album of the songs that made him popular. This album includes "Tennessee Waltz," "Cold, Cold Heart" and "Shame on You." For a hilarious time, listen to Homer and Jethro's latest called "Let Me Go, Blubber." It's the craziest thing yet and you're bound to roll in the floor when you hear it.

Here's two ditties by the Fisher lad that are right appropriate these days with so many June weddings not so far away. They're "Wedding Bells" and "A Man Chases a Girl Until She Catches Him."

Till next week when we see what kind of music the Easter Bunny has in mind for us, keep your fingers crossed that it warms up and that by the time the next GEORGE-ANNE comes out we'll all be singing "Spring is Here to Stay."

Baseball is usually called the "American Game," but a perfunctory glance at the crowd (three or more is a crowd) in attendance at Tuesday's double-headed with Newberry would seem to disprove this.

Intramural Play Will be Softball

Plans are being completed for the beginning games of the mens' intramural softball season to start next week.

A new system of teams is being worked out this season and so far the system is working smoothly as far as plans are concerned. The final test will be actual play.

Six teams will compete in the league this year as compared with only four teams last year. Sanford Hall will provide a freshman team and a sophomore team. Three other teams will come from Cone Hall. The freshmen and sophomores of Cone will combine to form one squad and the juniors and seniors will field another two teams. The sixth team will be made up of the married men of Anderson Hall.

Last year's playoffs were won by the freshmen who now comprise this year's favored sophomore nine.

The twinbill was unusually well-played, the first game taking only 1:29 and the second 1:55. The price was certainly right—free to students. The weather at 2 p. m. was 68 degrees and sunny.

In the fourth inning of the first game, third baseman Kelly Powell made a backhanded stab over the bag of a sure double. The crowd didn't say a thing.

One of the players, a new student on the campus, summed it up pretty well when he said, "Do those people up there think that's a routine play?" They must have—I've heard major league fans cheer an infielder to the dugout for less. A lot less.

Well, did you notice the new college basketball rule changes? As is their wont every year about this time, The National Committee on Confusing the Basketball Fan enacted a new free throw rule, and an attempt to neutralize the "goon," (no offense, Chester).

The "bonus" rule will apply for the entire game next year, not just the first 37 minutes. This, and a new provision which calls for a jump ball if the ball handler (even if he's dribbling) is closely-guarded, will give the trailing team a chance to catch up.

The free throw lane is to be 12 feet wide, instead of six as it has been for 10, these many years.

This will make a big difference to an offensive player trying to get position for a rebound. There really isn't anyway possible for a man to get position when he starts out six feet away from the basket and the defensive man is almost right under it.

The extra three feet on each side of the present lane will probably show most in the foul

Successful Season Is Started by Professors

GTC SPLITS WITH AMHERST COLLEGE

The Georgia Teachers College baseball team opened the season by splitting a two game series with Amherst College, from Mass. The "Profs" won the opener, 14 to 9, and lost the second game by a score of 7 to 6.

In the first game, Ace Little started on the mound and was relieved by Roy Alewine in the first inning.

Kelly Powell hit a home run and a double to drive across four runs; Jimmy Ford hit a pair of doubles and drove in three runs.

The second game started off with Amherst scoring three runs in the top of the first. GTC came right back in the bottom of the first and scored six runs. At this point, a big lefthander started pitching for Amherst and held the "Profs" scoreless for the rest of the game. Vondall Hall went the distance for GTC, allowing thirteen hits, while striking out three and walking three.

LINE SCORE: (First game)

GTC TAKES TWO FROM ERSKINE COLLEGE

GTC won two baseball games from Erskine College on March 25 and 26, by a score of 24 to 4 in the first game, and 31 to 5 in the second.

In the two game series, GTC scored fifty-five runs on forty four hits, including six home column of offensive rebounders. With this disadvantage a lot of fouls are going to be blown when players try to go over another's back to get a rebound.

Band Members Complete Tour

BY CATHY HOLT

The show is over, and we are glad to be back at dear old TC. So goes the remarks of those who went on tour with the concert band last week.

The band traveled 1,000 miles, (oh! those seats in the "Blue Goose.") and played six concerts, including ones at Sardis, Sandersville, Commerce, Griffin, Jonesboro and Decatur. The band also appeared on TV in Atlanta on "the Suprise Party." A ball was had by all.

The best way to begin another series of "your column" is to say welcome back. It's good to see so many familiar and new faces this quarter.

While buzzing around the campus during the first week dither, your campus column kid made quite a number of discoveries.

Diane Wright and Sue Buchan toured the FSU campus during the holidays. They were the guests of Diane's brother.

Charles Berger, Cliff Johnson, and Kenneth Naves journeyed to Tallahassee, Fla., to "Gander" at the cock fights.

Jackie Mikell and Mary Henderson visited Jackie's sister and brother-in-law in Orlando during the holidays.

People have often commented about those crazy-mixed-up kids, but how about this crazy-mixed-up weather! I'm anxious to see what the doctor of the "clothesline" is going to recommend for it.

Remember the statistics we quoted you on East Hall. I thought they were doing OK until I took a look over Lewis way. Out of the 69 girls in that dorm, 36 of these are spoken for. Four of these are married, 12 are engaged, and 20 are going steady. Wonder what will happen when spring really gets here?

Lately, the tennis courts have become a very popular place on campus for the members of the stronger sex. Just a hint, boys. When we said that in the springtime the men's fancies turned to what girls had been dreaming of all winter, we don't much believe they've been thinking of tennis!!

Since a certain someone tried so hard to get his name in the column all last quarter, and since he was unsuccessful, and since he has been promoted to editor this quarter, I might as well oblige the fella! Congratulations, Gene Meadows.

Mary Alice Jones was guest of honor at a surprise birthday party Thursday night.

Dr. Georgia B. Watson, director of guidance, and Miss Helen Duncan, dean of women, are in Chicago attending several conventions. They left March 30 and will return the latter part of next week. Dr. Watson and Miss Duncan are both attending the American Personnel and Guidance Association convention. Miss Duncan will also attend the National Association of Deans of Women meeting and the Southern College Personnel convention.

Mr. Stephen B. Homick and Mrs. Iona Wells of the business education division are in Carrollton where they are accompanying several GTC students at the FBLA convention.

Dr. Ronald J. Neil, chairman of the division of music, and Jack W. Broucek, associate professor of music, will be in Douglas April 8 to serve as judges for the piano and vocal numbers in the 8th District Literary Meet.

Miss Roxie Remley and Miss Frieda Gernant, associate professors of art, are in Athens attending the twelfth annual Student Art Exhibit and Conference. The conference has as its theme "Your Child's Art and His Community," and will have as one of its outstanding speakers Miss Edith Mitchell, director of art education, the state of Delaware. Miss Gernant will preside for a discussion tour of exhibits.

Clark S. Knowlton, assistant professor of social sciences, is in Nashville, Tennessee, attending the Southern Sociological Association convention.

Dean Paul F. Carroll was in Thomasville March 24-26 where he was a speaker and consultant at the curriculum conference held for the faculty of junior and senior high schools of Thomasville. While there, he spoke to the Thomasville High School student body.

Dr. James D. Park, chairman of the division of education, is attending a meeting of the committee of in-service education. The committee is made up of representatives of universities and colleges in Georgia and currently is working on a program to expand of-campus services to county school systems.

Fred T. Lenfesty, associate professor of education, will be in Brooklet April 5, to speak on curriculum framework.

Dr. Marshall Hamilton, associate professor of education, will be in Atlanta April 7, for a meeting of the Committee of Approval of College Programs. Also, he will serve as moderator for a panel discussion on "Home work" at the Mattie Lively Elementary School on April 10.
