Evaluating Teaching as a First Step to SoTL

Presenters: Margy MacMillan, Karen Manarin & Maureen Mitchell
Mount Royal University, Calgary Canada

The foundation for the presentation came from our work with the TARGET (The Advisory Resource Group on Evaluating Teaching) initiative at Mount Royal University.

Mount Royal University has extensive faculty evaluation and feedback mechanisms in place and the presenters suggest that information from the following could be the basis to inform Scholarship of Teaching and Learning activities:

- Student Evaluation of Instruction (SEI)
- Internal and External Peer Observation of Teaching
- Chair Evaluation
- Annual Report with Reflection
- Department Evaluation
- Triad program can inform evaluation of instruction

The model created to capture/illustrate our thinking about linking evaluation and SoTL.
