*The clock of life is wound but once
And no man has the power,
To tell just where the hands will stop,
At the late or early hour.
To lose one's wealth is sad indeed,
To lose one's health is more,
To lose one's soul is such a loss,
As no man can restore.
The present only is our own,
Live, love, toil with a will,
Place no faith in "Tomorrow" -
For the clock may then be still.*

Humbly Submitted,
The Family
