New online reference sources

February 7, 2011

We’re pleased to announce that we now have access to the online Oxford Dictionary of National Biography. This database, the British counterpart to the American National Biography, is funded by the Student Technology Fee at the request of the Department of History.

Henderson Library has also purchased 76 electronic reference books via Credo Reference. The full-text books included in this database are primarily focused on sociology, research methods, management, health, history, and psychology. You can search all of our Credo Reference books at once, at http://www.galileo.usg.edu/express?link=creo-gso1 or choose from the list of individual books at http://www.credoreference.com/shelf.do

We’d love to know what you think of these new databases!
