Obituary

Joseph Nathan Brack was born on January 2, 1929 in Register, Georgia to the late Jim Brack and Lula Mae Mincey.

He was a member of the Baptist Faith, a veteran of the U.S. Army and a retired employee of the Grinnell Corporation.

He departed this life on Friday, December 2, 1988 at Bulloch Memorial Hospital. At the time of his death, he was a candidate for the office of City Councilman in Portal, Georgia.

He leaves to mourn his departure, three daughters, Gwendolyn Brooks, Plainfield, N.J., Betty Creeley and Kathey Majid-Smith, both of Detroit, Mich.; two sons, James Brack, Albany, Ga. and Daniel Brack, Long Beach, Calif.; his wife, Wardella Brack, Statesboro, Ga.; his mother, Lula Mae McCullough, Youngstown, Ohio; 10 brothers, Jessie Floyd Brack, M. C. McCullough, Carl McCullough, Myron McCullough, all of Youngstown, Ohio, James McCullough, Cleveland, Ohio, LeWatt Brack, James Brack, Nathaniel Brack, Daniel Brack, all of Statesboro, Ga. and Charles Brack, Newark, N.J.; five sisters, Ellen Jones, Willie Mae Webb, both of Statesboro, Ga., Annie McCullough, Veronica McCullough and Myra McCullough, all of Youngstown, Ohio; 20 grandchildren, one great-grandchild, a devoted friend, Lois Handberry of Millen, Ga.; a multitude of other relatives and friends.

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: He leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul: He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

23rd Psalm
