The Obituary

God is our refuge and strength, a very present help in trouble.

On Friday, September 25, 1992, the Angel of Mercy came down and took the soul of COLUMBUS BRANNEN. He was born March 3, 1923 in Metter, Georgia, to the late Mr. and Mrs. Tom and Mollie Young Brannen.

At the age of fourteen he moved to Florida where he attended school.

He was the owner of Brannen Electric and Brannen Investments for many years in Detroit, MI.

Surviving are his wife, Annie Brannen of Detroit; one son, David E. Evans of Ridgeville, S.C.; one brother, Joseph S. Brannen of Corona, New York; one daughter-in-law, Louise Evans of Ridgeville, S.C.; two grandchildren, Dacia C. Evans and David M. Evans, both of Ridgville, S.C.; a devoted niece, Tracey Jordan of Detroit; one mother-in-law, Maybelle Dean of Gary, Indiana; two sisters-in-law, Margeret Brannen of Corona, New York and Herelie Burford of Gary, Indiana; one uncle, Eddie B. Dean of Memphis, Tennessee; two aunts, Essie and Morean, both of Mississippi; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives and friends.

ORGAN POSTLUDE

Columbus Brannen, my Father God saw with his all seeing eyes, so loving, compassionate great with care he knew with his heart so kind so dear, your suffering, your misery, your grief and great despair, that you could not your anguish continue to bear.

*So as always with His infinite wisdom so bright,
God Himself came down as the pilot of your most joyous flight bore you away on the wings of his great glory and might.*

I'll always love you.

Your son, DAVID
