Homecoming Festivities Begin Tomorrow

Beauty Revue Theme Is "Queen of Hearts"

By VIRGINIA KIRKLAND

Alpha Rho Tau presents "The Queen of Hearts" as the theme for the fourteenth annual Beauty Revue to be held in the McCroan Auditorium tomorrow night. The Revue will begin promptly at 8 p. m. and admission is 75 cents for students and $1.00 for adults.

As the title implies, the theme will center around Valentine's Day. The center of attraction will be a twelve-foot square heart with an opening in the center through which the contestants will appear with their escorts during the first scene. There will be no scenery changes for the second part of the program; however, the escorts will not appear with the contestants after the first scene. In the final scene, Miss GTC, the Queen of Hearts, will be crowned by Sis Heys, who was Miss GTC of 1957, due to the fact that Kerstin Pihl, last year's queen, is in Sweden at the present time. Also during this last scene, the four runner-ups to the queen will be announced.

Participants Named

The contestants, their sponsors and escorts respectively are: Bobbie Butler, FBLA, Billy Mock; Peggy Cowart, Alpha Phi Omega, Harry Cowart; Jo Ann Lewallen, Alpha Rho Tau, Dan Stipe; Glenda Rentz, Eta Phi Epsilon, Martin Gillette; Virginia Kennedy, Pi Beta Lambda, LaVan Kennedy; Sally Beckum, Kappa Phi Kappa, Charles McLendon; Sylvia Phillips, Student NEA, Johnny Hathcock; Amanda Tanner, Home Economics Club, John Smoot; Jo Dasher, French Club, Bobby Teasley.

"The Fortune Teller" Will Be Feb. 11-12

Victor Herbert's "The Fortune Teller" will be the operetta presented by the Philharmonic Choir and the division of music on Tuesday and Wednesday, February 11 and 12. The performance is set at 8:15 p. m. in McCroan Auditorium. The cost of admission will be 50 cents for students and 75 cents for adults.

This year's musical production is under the direction of Dr. Daniel S. Hooley, associate professor of music. Ann Warren is coach of the ballet. Stage manager is Ruth Odom.

Cast Listed

Kitty Kelly will serve as make-up director. Chairmen of the stage crew are Bobby Godwin and Jean Fitzgerald. Mary Ann Harrell is publicity chairman.

Fresno, Ballet Master of the Livonian Grand Opera, will be portrayed by Johnny Hathcock; Count Berezowski, commandant of the Secret Police, David Powers; first agent of the Secret

Story Presented

The action in this operetta takes place on a terrace of Count Berezowski's chateau, in Lavonia, a small European kingdom. It begins when Count Berezowski invites the Grand Opera Ballet to a garden party. He believes that one of the ballet dancers has a lottery ticket which belongs to the King. He must recover the ticket for King Gustaf has won the money in the lottery.

With the help of Fresco, the ballet master, Count Berezowski discovers the ticket in the possession of Irma, of the Grand Opera Ballet. Berezowski promises to marry her if she will give him the ticket. Although she is in love with Capt. Ladislaus, of the Royal Hussars, she accepts his proposal.

Irma thinks she can save her twin brother from imprisonment if she goes through with the marriage to Count Berezowski. Her brother is thought to be a deserter from the Royal Army.

Conclusion Given

Capt. Ladislaus gains possession of the lottery ticket, and buys a Gypsy girl, Musette, to substitute for Irma in the wedding. At this time, Sandor, Musette's boy friend arrives on the scene.

Masquers Are To Present Play

Masquers will produce "The Little Foxes," a drama by Lillian Hellman, as their winter quarter presentation.

The action of the play takes place in the southern home of the prosperous Hubbard family—Ben, possessive and scheming; Oscar, cruel and arrogant; Ben's dupe, Leo, weak and unprincipled; Regina, wickedly clever, each trying to outwit the other. In contrast there is lonely intimidated Birdie, whom Oscar wed for her father's cotton fields; wistful Alexandra, Regina's daughter; and Horace, ailing husband of Regina, between whom a breach has existed for years.

The cast includes: Ben Hubbard, Carlton Hendrix; Oscar Hubbard, Claude Austin; Leo, Oscar's son, Harris West; Regina Giddens, Ann Waters; Birdie, Jane Dotson; Alexandra, Ruth Odom; Addie, Alexandra's old nurse, Jeane Fulford; Cal, the negro man servant, Mike Sweat; William Marshall, financier from Chicago, Jim Fields; and Horace Giddens, John Adams.

Assistant stage manager is Trudi Summerour and the play's director is Mrs. Winfield Lee, assistant professor of speech at GTC.

Prize-winning Play Presented By S'boro High

Statesboro High School presented their play "Soldadero," which won first place in the state play contest in Athens, in McCroan Auditorium, Monday, February 2.

The cast includes: Concha, played by Sara Adams; Maria, by Cynthia Johnston; Blondie, by Sue Ellis; Cricket, by Janice Clark; Thomas, by Lynn Collins; Old One, by Linda Cason; and The Rich One, by Wendell McGlammy.

Beauty Revue Leads Events

Alpha Phi Tau's Beauty Revue will be the first major event of the annual Homecoming weekend events to occur at GTC this weekend, February 6-7. Eighteen contestants will vie for the title of "Miss GTC," at 8:15 p. m., Friday night in McCroan Auditorium.

Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock Homecoming will swing back into action after the Beauty Revue Friday night with the annual parade downtown. This year's parade will consist of eleven floats, five cars, and two bands, according to Dr. Burton J. Bogitsh, parade marshal.

Leading the parade will be the band of Statesboro High School, followed by the cars carrying members of the administration and student officers. Next will be Alpha Rho Tau's float, "Queen of Hearts" carrying Miss GTC of 1959. The Kappa Phi Kappa fraternity has joined with its sister sorority, Kappa Delta Epsilon to build their float, "Hall of Knowledge." The FBLA, Student NEA and English Club with "Allegory in Action" will also be competing for the winner's trophy.

Last year's winner, Wesley Foundation, will be trying for the trophy again by carrying out this year's theme "GTC in Action" with their float "Social Action." Also competing will be the Masquers with "Masquers in Action", the Music Club, the BSU, and the Science Club with "Fantasy in Science."

The Georgia Teachers College band will follow the floats to conclude the papade. Starting on time, the parade will move up Savannah Avenue from Zetterower Street and turn onto South Main; then taking another left at Grady Street and back to Zetterower the parade will be completed.

On hand to broadcast the happenings will be the WWNS Mobile Unit. The Mobile Unit will be placed close to the intersection of Savannah Avenue and South Main.

But meanwhile the freshmen, sophomores, juniors, and seniors will have displays up in front of the Administration Building also carrying out the theme. Dormitories will also be decorated, but with "Welcome Alumni" as the theme. The rotating trophy will be awarded to the dormitory with the best door or window decorations.

At 4 p. m. Saturday, the Alumni directors meet; and at 5 p. m. a barbecue is scheduled for alumni, faculty, and friends of the college in the Alumni Building, this is to be followed by the annual Alumni meeting.

The Homecoming basketball game between GTC and Jacksonville University is scheduled to begin at 8 p. m. in the New Gym. A preliminary game pits the GTC Frosh against Southern Tech at 6:15 p. m.

During the halftime ceremonies of the Homecoming game, fifteen former star athletes will be inducted into the newly-formed GTC Athletic Hall of Fame. Presentation of certificates to those honored will be made by President Zach Henderson of GTC and Mrs. C. B. McAllister of Statesboro, chairman of the selection committee.

BSU Banquet To Be February 13

The Baptist Student Union of GTC will present its annual "Sweetheart Banquet," Friday, February 13, in the recreation room of the First Baptist Church, Statesboro.

Bobbie Butler, social chairman for the BSU, announced that the dress for this year's affair will be semi-formal. The banquet is to be in "Dogpatch Style."

The contestants for "Sweetheart" will be selected Sunday morning, February 8, at 10 a. m. at the First Baptist Church.

Tickets for this banquet will go on sale at 6:15 p. m. Monday, February 9, in the Ad. Building. The cost of tickets is 25 cents.

Welcome Alumni

A very important part of our annual homecoming activities here at GTC is the agenda planned for you, the returning alumni.

Not only in the past, but now in the present have you continued to aid Georgia Teachers College. Not just financial aid but through your moral support too. Although we are a state supported school and do not have as many financial difficulties as a non-state supported school, there has been times when we have gratefully received your needed help.

Georgia Teachers College has come a long way since 1908. You, the alumni have helped us progress. Because of your contributions the Alumni building was constructed. We are especially proud of this structure since we work here on the George-Anne and on the Reflector. The Alumni Association is continuing to raise money for a non-denominational chapel to be erected on campus.

Nineteen hundred and sixty will be a great year for GTC. Two buildings, a classroom building and dining hall-student center will expand the teaching facilities of GTC tremendously. Two other edifices will be begun this year, an industrial arts building and a girls' dormitory. These will come as a much welcomed edition to our campus.

We sincerely hope that your short weekend will be enjoyable. Because of you many of us came to this school in the first place. For these and other numerous reasons we say "Welcome Back."

Do You Have It?

It is intangible but the effects of it can be strongly felt by individuals, groups, and masses everywhere—it is School Spirit!

GTC has certainly been exhibiting a great school spirit during the past few ball games. We, of the George-Anne staff, would like to say thanks and keep up the good work.

However, school spirit is needed for other things than basketball. This is the time of year when the GTC students should exhibit their best school spirit.

Homecoming is here, and not a single student should go home unless he is physically unable to stay or pressing business matters are calling him home.

Every student should take an active part in the Homecoming events. It is the student's duty and responsibility to help with decorations, floats, publicity, and all of the other events that go into making a Homecoming program possible.

The least a student can do is to stay on campus and show the alumni, friends and visitors who will be here during Homecoming that he is at least interested in the proceedings of the weekend.

School spirit is needed by every student—especially students in a teacher's college. A student can have high intellectual qualifications; but will be unable to use them properly when he becomes a teacher if he has not gone through with the idea of school spirit and its values.

It is your duty and responsibility—SUPPORT GTC DURING HOMECOMING!

Letter to GTC Students

During the past month you have responded to one of the most worthy causes of all—that of the 1959 March of Dimes.

Not only have you given contributions but also hours of valuable time. You have been willing to stand in freezing weather, work at ball games, and various other tasks to collect money to help those who cannot help themselves. Through your help and people like you thousands of children will receive the treatment needed to walk and run again.

Your 1959 March of Dimes contribution will be used for research to bring virus diseases, arthritis, and birth defects under control as the Salk vaccine has polio. It will be used also for equipment and personnel for the treatment of existing cases of polio, arthritis, virus diseases and birth defects.

Yes, you have opened your hearts and pocketbooks to bring new hope for those stricken by the rages of polio and related diseases.

LITTLE MAN ON CAMPUS

"SHE'D MAKE YASWELL BLIND DATE! ASK WORTHAL—I FIXED HIM UP WITH HER EARLIER THIS EVENING."

ray's way...

By RAY WILSON

Have you ever noticed the cover of the pictures in the new textbooks that are being used in our schools today? If so then you have found that in the science books (chemistry, mathematics, etc.) there is usually a picture of the solitary thinker. He is often pictured as a person in deep concentration surrounded by his work.

This brings up the point of why the emphasis upon the thinker? It is evident that our educational system is undergoing changes in methods of teaching. This is especially true in the area of science. One of the newer concepts is that the teacher should teach so as to bring out creative ability and concepts. It is indeed unfortunate that in order to do this one must teach students to think.

Yes, thinking is hard work. We know what to do about most of our problems, but we don't use that knowledge. Sir. Joshua Reynolds once wrote: "There is no expedient to which a man will resort to avoid the real labor of thinking."

This is bound up with what educators describe as an existing situation in American Colleges today. College students are more concerned with the diploma than the education behind the diploma and more concerned with starting salary than with thinking of the facts behind the salary.

In order to think one must be able to live in solitude as well as with people. How many persons can sit in a room or take a walk by themselves? Not very many could do this. Why does this exist? Because we are never alone in today's world. Most never get the chance to do for themselves without help.

Would that we had the foresight and ability to "live" each day as though it were the last, realizing that each minute, each hour lost, is neglected opportunity never obtainable again. Then we would realize that he who is always "killing time" is in reality killing his own chances in life. That the man destined to succeed is the man who makes time live by thinking and making it useful.

In order to have creative people we must have the "thinker." This is why philosophy is going back into the science and the why of the thinking man emphasis.

STAY IN COLLEGE

February 2 dawned as a great day for Georgia Teachers College. The U. S. Department of Health Education and Welfare had announced that the student loan feature of the National Defense Education Act of 1958 is now in operation in Georgia and elsewhere.

All boiled down this simply states that students who need money to return to college spring quarter now may be able to do so. A committee at GTC will be set up in the near future to judge applicants.

A student may borrow as much as $1,000 in a single year but the average amount is expected to be around $600.

Each loan is payable with 3 per cent interest, with the interest beginning a year after the student's graduation from college. Ten years are given to repay the loan.

GTC received $1,185 from the Federal Government. This money is on a matching basis. For every dollar GTC could give the government gave nine.

When Congress first began toying with this idea the plan was just to give the money to students. Later they changed their minds and decided that lending might be the better way.

To many deserving students this will mean another quarter in school without having to drop out a quarter and work, then return sometime in the future. We're sincerely proud that we are one of the colleges to be included in this loan fund. Students let's take advantage of this opportunity.

Dear Editor:

Coming up Friday, February 6, will be one of GTC's biggest events—Homecoming. Every student should try to stay on campus this weekend for the festivities and excitement which will be taking place.

A lot of hard work has gone into the preparation of this gala event. This year's homecoming parade has the potential of being the biggest and best in the 51-year history of Georgia Teachers College. Displays on the campus, dormitory decorations, the beauty revue, and of course the Homecoming basketball game Saturday night all add up to a weekend packed full of things to do and to enjoy.

Saturday night at halftime of the game with the Dolphins from Jacksonville University, fifteen former GTC basketball players will be installed in the "GTC Hall of Fame." Be sure to stay for Homecoming events.

--- Moore Or Less

By WILLIS MOORE

The other day we heard a student say, "everything you tell Willis Moore goes in one ear and comes out in the George-Anne."

There's a legend of a blacksmith that "was" here at GTC when it was an A & M school. He had a student worker helping him one day when he was foraging some horseshoes. "When I put the horseshoe onto the anvil," he told the student, "I will nod my head and you are to hit it with the hammer." He did and now he is the school blacksmith.

Time brings about many changes; it adds and takes away.

This weekend we are glad for at least one good thing; the reunion of old friendships here at Homecoming. Of course we are sad at the empty places in our circle of friends, but we must look on the bright side.

First of all we want to extend a great big welcome to all old students and alumni. We really hope you will enjoy every single event of homecoming. Try to take in as much as you can, because each different incident has been planned to make this homecoming more enjoyable for you.

All the new students will want to be present at the whole program because this is your first homecoming at GTC. Many of the alumni you will not know, however, that does not mean that you will not enjoy the festivities, you will!

As Homecoming draws near each year, we sometimes begin reminiscing over the past years. As we do so, we see many changes and improvements. Let us, for a few moments, recall from the past a few memories that we cherish.

Remember When:
The "Sweetheart Circle" was a narrow one-way drive?

There was sand and no curbing behind the boys' dormitories and people were always getting stuck? (in dry weather).

The "Bootlegger's exit" was in Sanford Hall? (Things haven't really changed much.)

Dean Helen Duncan carried a bullwhip around campus? (Really she never did; we just added this for kicks.)

We did not have a lake behind the old Gym?

The seniors had to go to assembly?

The only way a person could tell that this was a college was by the 18" x 18" sign that never stood up; at the front gate? (Thanks for the new signs (2).)

There was a "cattle gate" at the entrance to the campus?

The Health Cottage was near the back door of the dining hall? (wonder if there was any significance to that?)

We had numbers to get into the dining hall?

Mr. Moye was a professor here, and always had a few moments to spend speaking to students—(and knew your name, and hometown's location.)

Each faculty member or department had had a "name?" We'll name a few: "X-9", Mrs. Franklin, "Daddy Jack," Dr. Averitt, "The Great White Father," Mr. Hanner, "Sugar Booger," Miss Perry, "Smiling Jack," Dean Carroll, "Cash," McDougald, (not here anymore), "Father Scarece," the Coach, "The Good Dr.," head of each department.

Now for a few aims for the future: Friday night, a beautiful girl for Miss GTC; Saturday night, a win over Jacksonville.

The Young Harris campus newspaper recently carried this part of a letter of a student from his mother: "...and son please don't be shooting any more of those little craps, they liek to live as well as you."

Our Word for the Weak: The man who claims he understands women is either a psychiatrist or in need of one."

$500 Prize For Best Essay

Professor George Williams of the Rice Institute, Texas, has written a critical commentary on higher education in America; "Some of My Best Friends are Professors," published October 24th.

In this book Dr. Williams makes a penetrating appraisal of our institutions of higher learning...and teaching, and has coordinated his own provocative findings with other collegiate studies resulting in some highly provocative judgments.

Contest Details: There will be a prize of $500 given for the best essay; all manuscripts to be no fewer than 3,000 words and no more than 10,000 words; manuscripts are to be received in the publisher's office by February 1, 1959; the prize-winner will be announced on March 15, 1959.

I would like to explain to the readers that the following question was asked to people selected at random over the campus. The questions were answered immediately without any explanation of the meaning of the word osculate.

Question asked to the girls: "What Would You Do if a Fellow Tried to Osculate You?"

Janice Lindsey—I'd look the word up in the dictionary, and then decide.

Sarah Groover—I guess I would go ahead and let him providing it was my fiancée.

An Gowen—It depends on who it was.

Gwen Curry—I'd probably put up a fight.

Virginia Kirkland—I'd grab him.

Sylvia Arlington—I'd turn and run.

Jeanne Walsh—It's according to who it is.

Ned Thurman—I'd cry!

Mary Riverbark—I'd scream.

Question asked to the boys: "What Would You Do if a Beautiful Blonde Said She Wanted to Osculate You?"

Charles McLendon—I'd ask her to tell me what osculate meant.

Tony Adams—I'd tell her, "If you won't tell my fiancée, begin the beguine."

Harry Clark—I'd tell her definitely NOT!

Tommy Hall—I'd say baby, I'm pucker up.

Chuck McDonald—Go ahead, I'm all for something new.

Sidney Brown—I'd osculate her back.

Jimmy Oates—I'd run from her.

According to Mr. Webster, osculate means "to kiss."

GTC's Radio Club Presents P'gram

The Radio Club of Georgia Teachers College will continue to present "On Campus," a program about the ideas and activities of GTC students or visiting celebrities this quarter. Since the founding of the club last fall quarter under the sponsorship of Mr. Clyde Faries and leadership of Charles McLendon, it has presented more than forty programs.

If you are wondering what is being done on the Georgia Teachers College campus, read the George-Anne and listen to "On Campus" each Sunday over WWNS at 1:30.

THE ATTRACTIVE YOUNG LADY pictured above is Edwina Paul, GTC's co-ed of the week. She is the daughter of Mrs. Thelma J. Paul, Statesboro, Georgia. This freshman's hobbies are swimming, water skiing, and dancing. She plans to do secretarial work after graduating from college. While at Statesboro High School, she was named "Miss Memorial Park of 1956."

Adam and Evesdropping

After she leaves the White House and should she so desire, Mamie Eisenhower can have her choice of several fabulous network offers to do a weekly news commentary program...Too many current pop songs have name brands included in their lyrics, and one wonders which came first, the product or the tune? Radio and TV top brass are up in arms over this cute gimmick to get free advertising.

If her fans have their way, Steverino, the Greyhound on the Steve Allen Show, may well be proud of the fact she will be the figurative rallying flag symbol for 18 turnpikes in this country literally going to the dogs. Seems the Ohio turnpike commission has set up dog exercise areas at each of its 16 plazas, only toll road authority in the United States providing them.

HAVE YOU NOTICED?

The many students roaming through the library with long white sheets of paper in their hands looking for pencil sharpeners? This must either be an amateur detective's club at work or this must be a new fad!

How many students like to join the rush at the little store between 10 and 10:30 every morning? It's a wonder that the death rate is so low! Cause of death we would be asked—trampled by fellow students.

The new white sports coats of the physical education majors? Soon to be added are the insignias of that department. Makes you want to be one of them, doesn't it?

How many of our faculty and student members are ill at home or in the hospital?

How many more people seem to be taking their studies more seriously since the Christmas holidays and discussions with their parents?

How many students don't read the George-Anne? It contains all news pertaining to our school: events to be interesting features, and past events. You'd better begin following the news every week cause your name may be mentioned one of these weeks.

Steverino's vast army of enthusiastic fans all over the land see no reason why the other 18 turnpikes in Colorado, Connecticut, Florida, Illinois, Indiana, Kansas, Kentucky, Maine, Massachusetts, New Hampshire, New Jersey, New York, Oklahoma, Pennsylvania, Texas and West Virginia can't have dog exercise areas similar to the ones installed by the Ohio Turnpike Commission. Accordingly, they have sent petitions in Steverino's name to the aforementioned 18 turnpike commissions asking for the installation of canine exercise areas for the ever-growing number of car-traveling dogs of America!

Dinah Shore's BIG secret: she's writing a musical, more for her own amusement and George's than for any other reason. But friends who have heard some of the music are encouraging her... The television-radio division of Westinghouse has scored a bulls-eye with its Benny Goodman album, "Benny Goodman Plays World Favorites In High Fidelity," recorded by BG in Brussels for the division. Six of Shirley Temple's most memorable films are in the Shirley Temple Film Festival, which will make television even more delightful.

Educational Tours Organized

An educational tour of Russia, Poland and Scandinavia is now being organized by Educational Travel, Inc. of the United States National Student Association.

The 76-day program visits Germany, Denmark, Norway, Sweden, Finland, Russia, Poland, Austria, and Switzerland and is limited to 25 students. The tour is now half-filled. The all-inclusive price of the tour covers transportation, three meals daily, all sightseeing, guides, clean and comfortable lodging, ballet tickets, opera tickets, etc., is $1,100.

In Russia the tour will visit Leningrad, Moscow, Smolensk, and Minsk. In Poland the group will visit Warsaw, Krakow, Zakopane, and Katowice. In Norway the tour will have an opportunity to take a fjord cruise for five days.

God's Message

By FRANKLIN PIERCE

"PREPARE TO MEET THY GOD"

It seems that here on this campus there is a spirit, but what kind it is I have not been able to figure out as yet. Is it a school spirit, Christian spirit or the kind that has been dominant so far—the SPIRIT found in the bottle. ROMANS 12:1—"I beseech you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, that ye present your bodies a living sacrifice." Mr. Friend, the disciples of Jesus applied this to their lives, but there were no DRUNK disciples doing the precious work of the Lord.

We are supposed to be preparing ourselves for success in business, social, or just life in general. But are we preparing to meet the Giver of Life, Jesus Christ. We better be thinking think about polka, ballgames, and dances. We had better stop criticizing those who are trying to present the gospel through their sermons or through their lives. You have heard the old adage, "The life you live is a sermon." Well if your life is a sermon how many souls have you inspired or helped save. We might just even stop and ask ourselves where do I get a text for my life. My friends we all hate to think of sin and hell, but it plays a vital part in my life and in yours. We had better think of both more often and then we might know what to expect at judgment. Thank God, about judgment as much as we that we can have a second chance, so I say to you as the scripture says, "repent for the kingdom of God is at hand."

"Clickin'" Cameras Urged By Reflector

The 1959 REFLECTOR is well underway to being the best year-book ever published at GTC. That is, if the students of GTC will show a little cooperation. There is a desperate need for snapshots. In last week's George-Anne, there was an editorial urging students to participate in the snapshot contest, but not even one picture has been in since that time.

Ron Binns, the representative from the Taylor Publishing Company, states that "An annual without snapshots is not an annual."

Is this going to be an annual, or just a picture book? It's up to you the students of GTC. Enter the snapshot contest—a prize for $5.00 is offered to the person who enters the best photo.

The rules for the contest are very simple, as recorded below:

1. The decision of the judges will be final.
2. All entries become the property of the REFLECTOR and may or may not be used in the 1959 edition.
3. Contestants may submit as many entries as they desire.
4. Any sort of size of picture will be accepted provided it is within the bounds of good taste.
5. Entries will be judged on the basis of: subject, composition, reproduce-ability, quality, originality, and interest.
6. All entries are to be turned in to Pete Hallman or Tom Brophy.
7. All shots should be in black and white, as it is not possible to reproduce color shots.

Vet's Corner

By JIM WALDEN

"Hi youall!"

Well, five down and six to go. Sure wish this quarter was over. I could breathe again. Oh well, if wishes were horses, students would want Cadillacs.

By George! It's that time again. Homecoming! Pretty girls running around. Handsome fellows chasing 'em. A new "Miss GTC." A good old "Bar-B-Q. A "Big Parade." Then too, we've got a "Ball Game." As if that wasn't enough, we've got a "Dance" too. Great day in the morning, what more could you ask for?

Then there's all of the old grads, back to tell us how cruel this old world can be, and to try to regain those bygone joys of their college days. Have you ever wondered how it will feel when you come back to GTC for Homecoming? Perhaps you'll see old friends, and talk of old times. You'll remember things you did and wonder at your youth, and perhaps, wish that you could do them over again. You'll look at the improvements, and remember the inadequacies when you were an undergraduate. You'll marvel at the way this younger generation takes those things for granted. And yet, you'll be proud that your school, and it is your school, has made so much progress. Won't it be wonderful?

FOR YOUR ENTERTAINMENT

Friday, Alpha Rho Tau's annual Beauty Revue will be presented in McCroan Auditorium at 8:15 p. m.

Saturday, the parade of floats at 2:30 p. m.; preliminary basketball game at 6:30 p. m., GTC Frosh vs. Southern Tech; Homecoming basketball game, GTC vs. Jacksonville University, at 8:00 p. m.; and after the ball game, the Student Council sponsors the dance.

Tuesday and Wednesday, the Philharmonic Choir will present a light opera at 8:15 p. m. in McCroan Auditorium.

Secrets of the Number 1001 Are Now Shown

It's easy for you to be a magician when you know secrets. In collecting a grab bag of number tricks, Interchemical Corporation's scientists point out two secrets about the number 1001... secrets that are basic to an astounding trick with numbers.

Did you know that, when you multiply any three-digit number by 1001, the answer will always be those same three digits repeated twice.

Did you know that  $7 \times 11 \times 13$  is 1001? Why is this a "secret"? Well, if 1001 is divisible by 7, 11, 13, any three-digit number written twice will also be divisible by 7, 11, 13! And once we know this, we can mount the stage for our trick!

A) Ask someone in your audience to write down on a scrap of paper any three-digit number, and repeat it to get a six-digit number. (Let's say he chooses 439 and repeats it to get 439,439.)

B) Ask him to pass the scrap of paper to a second person.

C) Ask the second person to divide the six-digit number by 7 (he will get 62,777).

Ask him to write his result on a scrap of paper and give it to a third person.

D) Now ask the third person to divide the number he gets by 11, and pass his result (62,777 by 11 is 5757) to a fourth person, on another scrap of paper.

E) Ask the fourth person to take the number he gets and divide it by 13. Then, he must write his answer on another slip of paper and give it to you, (5757 by 13 is 439!).

F) When you open the slip of paper from the fourth person, you see the number 439. You immediately know that this was the number originally chosen. You write it on a slip of paper and give it to its originator!

No matter what three-digit number is chosen, you can always discover it by repeating the digits and dividing by 7, 11, and 13!

GTC's Radio Club Is Directed By Faries

The Radio Club of GTC is a relatively new organization, having just begun last year under the direction of Mr. Clyde Faries, assistant professor of speech at GTC.

Since its organization, the Radio Club has presented a program every Sunday during the school year.

The programs are designed to be entertaining to the students and persons living within the reach of Radio Station WWNS, Statesboro. Included in these presentations, have been concerts by the music department, speeches of visiting dignitaries, entertainment groups, and dramas. During the coming year, more emphasis is to be placed upon dramatic presentations.

A talent show was sponsored during one of the Monday assembly programs—the student reception to this program was so gratifying, that the Radio Club plans to produce more chapel programs.

These radio programs are broadcast each Sunday afternoon at 2:30 p. m. over radio station WWNS. The students of GTC and general listening public are invited to listen each week. Their fellow students are the stars of these programs.

All interested students are invited to attend the Radio Club meetings.

ENGLISH CLUB

"Problems of Today's High School English Teachers" is the topic to be discussed at the monthly meeting of the English Club to be held tonight, 7 o'clock, in Room 34 of the Administration Building.

Verstraete Scores 25 As Profs Down Hatters

Four straight baskets with seven minutes left in the ball game staked the Profs to a seven point lead as they went on to defeat Stetson University of Deland, Fla., 78-72.

Whitey Verstraete hit two jump shots and Connie Lewis followed with two more to wipe out a one point Stetson lead 63-62 and sent the Profs into a comfortable 70-63 lead.

Verstraete led the Profs in scoring with 25 points and was followed by Chester Curry with 20 points and Connie Lewis with 21. Gene Wells of Ludowici, Ga. led the Stetson attack with 29 points.

The Profs hit 31 per cent of their field goal stries while Stetson hit 48 per cent of their's,

Professors Lose To Ky. Wesleyan Panthers

The Kentucky Wesleyan Panthers, led by Kelly Coleman, defeated the Profs 84-81. Coleman, the nation's number four scorer among small colleges, scored 23 points. This was four points under his game average.

Whitey Verstraete was the high scorer for the night with a total of 30 points. Whitey was followed in the scoring repartment by Connie Lewis with 24 points. Chester Curry had 19 points before fouling out with about 13 minutes left in the game.

Both teams hit for 39 per cent of their shots from the floor. The Profs hit three more free throws than the Panthers for a total of 21. The taller Panthers won the fight for the domination of the backboards by out-rebounding the Profs 69-41.

The lead changed hands six times and was tied on many occassions. GTC's last lead was 79-78 with a little more than a minute and a half left.

The Professors' hopes of getting to Kansas City this year for the NAIA National Tournament on March 9-16 will take an upward turn on Saturday night, when 6-5 Eddie Owens and 6-4 Denny Burau become eligible. Both boys have had to sit out the 18 weeks in residence rule required by the NAIA, and it is a coincidence that the date will be February 7, the night of the big Homecoming game against Jacksonville University.

Owens played eight games in December before it was discovered that he would have to layout. Burau, from Moline, is a transfer from Arizona State at Temple, where he was a member of the Border Conference champions last year. Burau is the third member of the Professors from Moline.

Profs Out To Avenge Loss

The Profs will be out Saturday night at the Homecoming game to avenge two previous loses to the Dolphins of Jacksonville University. On the Professors home court last year they suffered a 76-70 defeat at the hand of the Dolphins. This year the Profs again lost to the tune of 65-60. This tall team has an average height of 6-4 and their leading scorer is a 6-7 sophomore center, Jim Kirkland.

Campus Capers

By MARY ANN HARRELL

The following article has been taken from Salem College Catalog.

"Between the gawkiness of adolescence and the dignity of womanhood, we find the delightful creature called the College Girl. She comes in assorted sizes, weights, and ages, but all seem to have the same creed: to enjoy and profit from every second of every minute of every hour of every day; to delay doing classroom assignments and term papers; to anticipate mail and forthcoming weekends; to engage in bull sessions; and when the last minute of any day arrives to surrendered reluctantly as House Presidents and Student Government regulations pack them off to bed.

College girls are found everywhere around campus and sometimes off-on tables, under tables, up and down the steps, throwing candy wrappers on the sidewalk, piling books here and there, dropping Coke bottles in the line of traffic, walking on the grass and discarding cigarette ashes on the carpet.

Mothers love them, younger brothers tolerate them; other girls envy them; college boys glorify them. Heaven protects them; and the faculty is divided on the matter.

A college girl is truth with polish on its fingernails; beauty adulterated only by blue-jeans, wisdom with a scarf around its head and hope for the future once a fraternity pin appears.

A college girl is a composite—she has the energy of a pocket-sized atomic bomb, the irresponsibility of an overnight guest, the curiosity of a cat, the lungs of a dictator, the imagination of Paul Bunyan, the gullibility of a yokel, the poise of an actress, the enthusiasm of an evangelist, the faultfinding ability of a taxpayer, the friendliness of a salesman, and the ingenuity of an inventor.

She likes snacks, movies, trips to town, easy assignments, men professors, take-offs on campus characters. Christmas, stuffed animals, the latest fads, informal bull sessions, bridge and canasta, unlimited cuts, and entertainment in chapel. She is not much for classes, quiet in the dorms, mending a tear, lights out, the dentist, term papers, rainy weather, discomfort of any sort.

Nobody else is so attractive or so late for meals. Nobody else gets so much fun out of mail or gossip. Nobody else can cram into one handbag a supply of tissues, a wad of lecture notes, a lipstick, a comb, a boy friend's picture, three letters, a wallet, a church bulletin, a nail file, glasses, a shopping list, assorted sales slips, keps, bobby pins, and $1.67.

The college girl is a magical creature. She can lock you out of the dormitory, but cannot lock herself out of your heart. Might as well give up—she is your captor, your jailor, and your master—a bright-faced, graceful, friendly, attractive bundle of emotion and good sense. When you pass her on the campus or meet in class, although you may be weighted down by the shattered pieces of your hopes and dreams, she can mend them with a smile and a friendly 'hello'."

300 Is Slated As Bloodmobile's Goal

"We are going to give at least 300 pints of blood to the Red Cross this year," stated Charles McLendon, a senior history major from Cairo, who has recently been named chairman of the Red Cross Bloodmobile drive on the GTC campus.

This year's blood drive will be under the direction of the Student Council. The Student Council will secure workers—typists, servers of food, etc; send letters to the parents of students under 21, asking the parent's permission for their sons or daughters to give blood; take a poll of each dormitory to find out which students are willing to donate blood.

Pledge cards from the Statesboro chapter of the National Red Cross will be issued to those students who desire to donate their blood. These cards will serve as a reminder of the student's promise, and will designate the time as to when it would be convenient for the student to contribute blood.

A registered nurse will be the one to take care of extracting the blood.

GTC's goal for this drive is to have 400 out of the 1,000 students here to sign pledge cards. It is expected that at least 300 pints of blood will be obtained during this drive.

The dormitory that has the most students, percentage wise, to contribute to the drive will win $5.00.

The day of the drive has been slated for Tuesday, March 3, from 9 a. m. to 2 p. m. in the old gym.

Habel Expounds to Westminster Fellowship on 'Twelve Apostles'

Dr. Samuel T. Habel, associate professor of social science at GTC, began a three-week series of talks on the Twelve Apostles at the January 27 Westminster Fellowship meeting.

As a result of a series of previous lectures and extensive research, Dr. Habel has written a book entitled "The Twelve Apostles."

Dr. Habel, in his talk, related the following accounts concerning his subject: the Twelve Apostles were extraordinary men who were commissioned by Christ to spread Christianity. There are now 700-800 million Christians in the world.

These twelve men set out with no backing of authority or wealth, but with only belief, faith, and the Gospel story of Christ.

It is known that these twelve men met in Jerusalem and in drawing, drew lots for the direction they were to travel.

Disciples are believers in Christ in which all the Christians over the world could be classes. "Disciples are learners."

Apostles are chosen from among the disciples to be sent out on a mission with a responsibility to represent someone else.

Why were there twelve apostles. Jesus believed that like

Music Potpourri

by KITTY KELLY

Hi you people!

It's gonna be short this week—so read on.

First off—may I urge you to treat yourself to an evening of masquerade, mixed identity and sheer slapstick corn? See one of the two performers of "The Fortune Teller," Victor Herbert's delightful operetta, on Wednesday or Thursday evening, February 11-12. Admission is only 50 cents for students, 75 cents for adults. See you there, huh? (And for an ideal of the plot, casting, etc.—see the big story elsewhere in this issue.)

Well, the invasion is approaching—Yes, Music Festival time is drawing nigh! The First District Music Festival is slated for February 27 and 28. So beware the little people. Say, you might enjoy some of the performers—bands will meet in McCroan Auditorium, choruses in this subject is invited to attend. MPS Auditorium, and vocal solos and ensembles in Room 8, I believe. Drop in between classes.

February 23, Monday evening, is the date of the second of the Statesboro Community Concert Series. Featured will be Richard Cass, promising young pianist. Curtain time is 8:15. These concerts are a fine thing. If you've not been to the various concerts given thus far this year, make an effort to attend some of them. You'll be glad you did.

It's about time for another Student Recital—don't you agree? The next one is scheduled for Wednesday evening, February 18. Just beat a path back of East Hall and the library, ascend the center stairs of the Music Building and turn left at the top of the stairs. You can't miss it, because by then, someone will have seized you by the arm and drug you in. But sit still, you'll enjoy it. Just think, when they become famous, you can say "knew them when!"

I've padded this about as far as possible—guess I'll give up to say "Bye for this week."
