Obituary

"ANGEL OF DEATH"

As she came riding last "night" she made her stand as she took to heaven a long awaited man.

She was dressed in white as she floated through the "night", as she came to carry this to his final height.

She relieved him of all his heartache and pain, for he suffered so much, but not in "vain", for he has his peace and rest, because God knew it was for the best.

Now that he's resting "fine", God will surely let him have peace of mind throughout the ages and all the "time", as he roam through the endless "time".

But as the "angel" of "death" took this "man", she put him in a sweet and wonderful land, he left as he came by himself.....

Mr. Clifford Bacon, Jr., was born to the parents of Clifford Bacon, Sr. and Thelma Corbert Bacon, on December 2, 1934, in Bullock County, Georgia.

He attended the only school in Bullock County, Georgia, and later moved to West Palm Beach, Florida, where he lived for twelve years.

He leaves to mourn six sisters, Mrs. Lillie M. Boatwright, Ellabell, Ga., Mrs. Flossie J. DeLoach, West Palm Beach, Fla., Mrs. Etta M. Hall, Brooklet, Ga., Mrs. Shirley Mutcherson, Savannah, Ga., Mrs. Henrietta B. Smith, West Palm Beach, Fla., and Mrs. Mattie S. Hill, Ellabell, Ga., two brothers, Mr. Hayward Bacon, West Palm Beach, Fla., and Mr. Richard L. Shellman, Ellabell, Ga., three brothers-in-law, one sister-in-law, a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.
