Blood Pledge Could Win a Date With 'Miss GTC'

Win a date with Sibbie Hogan, "Miss GTC of 1959!" As you pledge a pint of blood for the Red Cross Bloodmobile drive on March 3, you will win a chance to date this popular and beautiful young miss for an evening of dining and a movie all expenses paid.

The club that has the most students, percentage-wise, to contribute to the drive will win $5.00.

The day of this year's drive has been slated for Tuesday, March 3, from 9 a. m. to 2 p. m. in the old gym.

Student Council Directs

This year's drive will be under the direction of the Student Council. The Student Council will secure workers—typists, servers of food, etc.; send letters to parents of students under 21, asking the parent's permission for their sons or daughters to give blood; take a poll of each dormitory to find out which students are willing to donate blood.

R. N. in Charge

The registered nurse will be one to take care of extracting the blood.

"We are going to give at least 300 pints of blood to the Red Cross this year," stated Charles McLendon, a senior from Cairo, who has recently been named chairman of the Red Cross Bloodmobile drive on the GTC campus.

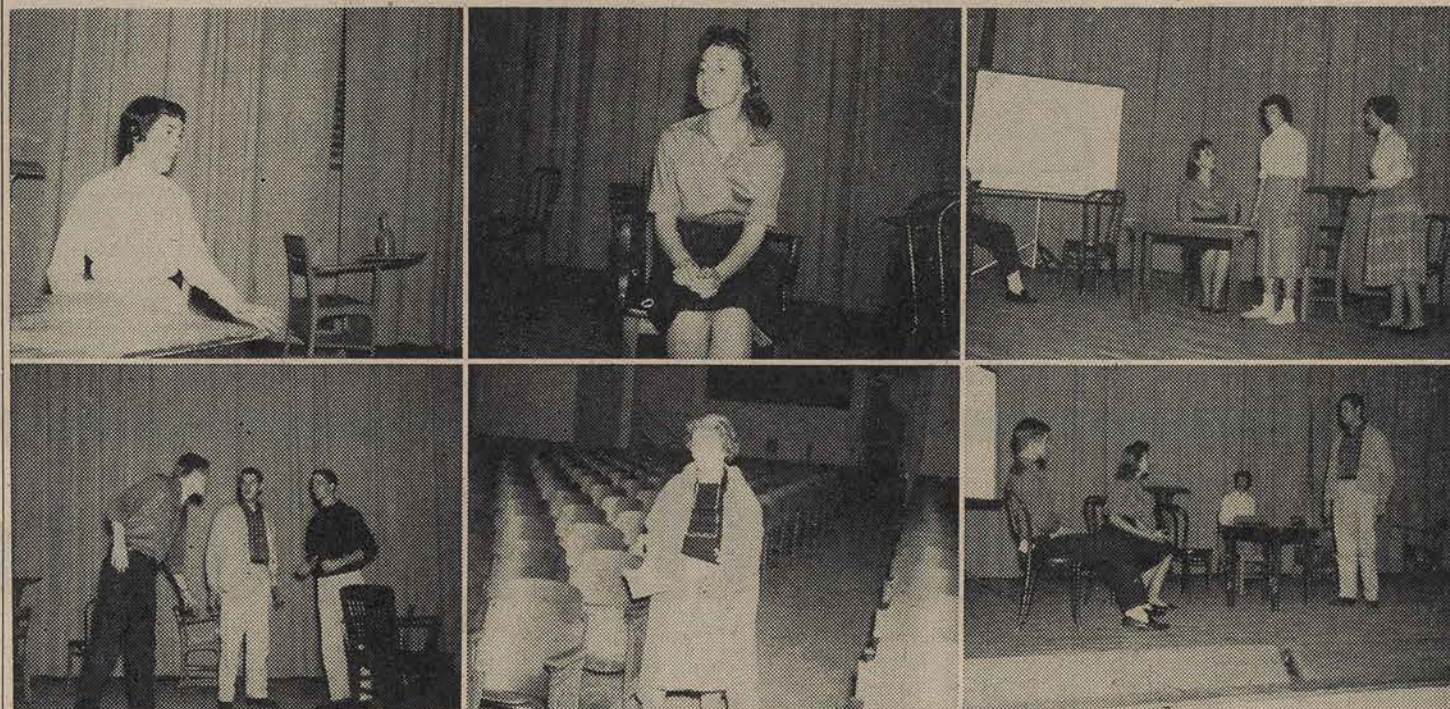

Music Meet To Be On Campus

The First District Music Festival will be held on the GTC campus Friday and Saturday, February 27 and 28.

High school bands, choruses, small instrumental and vocal ensembles, instrumental and vocal solos, elementary school choruses, and elementary school piano solos will be presented.

The bands will be in McCroan Auditorium; choruses, Marvin Pittman School Auditorium; brass solos, ensembles, and piano solos in the music building; woodwinds in Cone Hall

Masquers Present 'The Little Foxes'

Waters, Adams Head Cast In Upcoming Play

"The Little Foxes" will be the winter quarter presentation of the Masquers, GTC's dramatic organization, according to Mrs. Winfield Lee, assistant professor of speech at GTC and director of the play.

The play, famous in both Hollywood and on Broadway, will be staged in McCroan Auditorium on February 25-26. Admission is $1.00 for adults and 50 cents for students.

The action of the play takes place in the Southern home of the prosperous Hubbard family—Ben, possessive and scheming; Oscar, cruel and arrogant; Ben's dupe, Leo—weak and unprincipled; Regina, wickedly clever, each trying to outwit the other. In contrast there is lonely, intimidated Birdie, whom Oscar wed for her father's cotton fields; wistful Alexandra, Regina's daughter; and Horace, ailing husband of Regina, between whom a breach has existed for years.

The cast of the play includes: Carlton Hendrix, Claxton, as Ben Hubbard; Claude Astin of Palmetto as Oscar Hubbard; Harris West, Sylvester, as Leo; Ann Waters, Sylvania, as Regina Giddens; Jane Dotson of Brunswick as Birdie; and Ruth Odom, Girard, as Alexandra.

Others in the cast are Jeane Fulford of Twin City as Addie, Alexandra's old nurse; Mike Sweat, Soperton, as Cal, the man servant; Jim Fields of Claxton as William Marshall, the big-city financier; and John Adams, Statesboro, as Horace Giddens.

Mrs. Lee rates "The Little Foxes" by Lillian Hellman perfect fare for theatregoers of this area, and a large audience is expected.

By RAY WILSON

During the time spent in college one of the most influential factors upon the student is that of emotions. The fact that many students study and work very hard does not mean that satisfactory accomplishment will result. Of course a lot of other factors, like all-over intelligence, enter into the picture. But, despite these emotions, outlook and stability play most important parts.

Can a person do satisfactory work and reasoning under emotional strain? Of course not. Suppose a student, after a very complex and conflicting day, sits down to read an assignment. It is important that all senses be directed toward the task if any learning is to be accomplished. But does this happen? No, it does not. For in most instances, the mind does not stay with the printed material and soon the lesson is forgotten as the source of the conflict gets a mental review. On some occasions this helps, but on others, the situation only seems to become more complex. Even the teacher-student situation is emotional. Here is the instructor explaining, as best he can, the subject material. The student says to himself, "I don't understand what you're doing and do not see any reason for this in the first place." Or the student says "I have this course and it is just a waste of valuable time." If this emotional attitude persists, then soon the things only thought of before become a reality.

Most college students say that their worrying about conflicts usually comes in the evening during the study period and lasts about two hours. One can readily see then how detrimental this is to conducive study.

How does one overcome this? Unfortunately there is no precise answer. Some take a walk, go to a movie, or engage in a relaxing exercise.

Despite the fact a student may have the ability for college, satisfactory accomplishment may

As a result, if the conflict is not overcome soon, the person's grades began to drop, and for some, the never-ending cycle begins that ends with academic failure and dismissal.

Civil Service Deadline Set

The deadline for filing application cards for the Federal Service Entrance Examination to be given on March 14, is February 26, 1959.

The Federal Service Entrance Examination is designed as an avenue through which young people with promise, who desire a career, not a job, may enter the Federal Service. Through it students may be considered for trainee positions at the entrance level in more than 60 career fields. Through this one examination students, in effect, make application to a great number of Federal employers at one time. On a nation-wide basis approximately 5,000 appointments are made through this one examination each year.

For further information students should inquire about the Federal Service Entrance Examination at the College Placement Office, their local post office, or they may write to the director, Fifth U. S. Civil Service Region, 275 Peachtree Street, Atlanta, Georgia.

Vet's Corner

By JIM WALDEN

"Hi, youall!"

Judging from the weather we had Monday and Tuesday, a fellow might get the idea that spring has sprung. Also, did you notice all the couples walking along hand in hand? Then too, the campus grass is turning green again and flowers are starting to bloom. The baseball team is working out, and a feeling of good cheer is in the air. It's the time of the year for a young man's fancy and old man's dreams. But wait! Isn't that a cloud coming up? Yep, that deadline for term papers and outside reading isn't far off. And then, there's those darn final exams. Oh well, it was a nice thought while it lasted.

Oh, yes. Have you considered entering the Vet's Club Talent Contest? There is the small matter of three big prizes, if that should interest you. If so, see Mike Sweat, Jim Fields, or Al bert Burke about entering. The show is scheduled for March the fifth and, as far as we're concerned, the more, the merrier.

By the way, I received a letter from the honorable Doctor Clark S. Knowlton the other day. He sent his regards to all his former students, both friends and enemies. If you'd like to write him, his address is Box 19, New Mexico Highlands University, Las Vegas, New Mexico. That's all, youall!

The fact-finding youngster faced his mother one day, asking.

"Didn't you tell me the stork brought me?"

"Why, yes, dear."

"And I weighed eight pounds?"

"Yes."

"Well, for your information," said the boy, "the stork hasn't the wingspread to carry an eight-pound load!"

'Should Have Stood in Bed' Is Trip Story

The Georgia Teachers College Professors made their last road trip of the regular season on Monday and Tuesday of this week, and the boys are lucky they made it back alive.

The Newberry Indians, 75-63 victims earlier in the year at GTC, scalped the locals thoroughly 92 to 77.

As is generally the case on trips into South Carolina, GTC made two more field goals than the hosts, and were outshot from the gift line by 19. GTC never went on the bonus.

Whitey Verstraete scored 20 and Chester Curry added 16 to lead GTC in scoring. Carl Short scored 29 for Newberry, and Mickey Gallagher added 28 for the winners. With 12 minutes remaining, the score was tied 61-61, but Newberry outscored the Profs 31 to 16 the rest of the way. GTC led at the half, 43 to 42.

On Tuesday night, GTC found Belmont Abbey undefeated, and left them the same way 90 minutes later, 73 to 57.

The Crusaders threw up a tight zone defense in their bowling-alley shaped court, and the Profs shot 28 per cent for the night over the zone. Belmont Abbey, who recently accepted a bid to the NCAA college division tournament, was never behind in the game.

Personal fouls in the first half were distributed 13-5. Puzzle question: Who made the 13?

Verstraete and Curry hit for 16 and 15. Danny (Tatus) Dovie dunked one before the game with an umbrella in his left hand, and dunked 18 points during the game unrestricted by anything.

Profs Oppose Host Mercer U. In NAIA Play

Georgia Teachers College has been selected as one of the four teams to play in the District 25 (Georgia-Florida) NAIA playoff on February 27-28 at Mercer University.

The Profs are defending champions but the Dunkel system didn't do the locals any favor the way the pairings turned out.

Stetson was seeded No. 1, GTC No. 2, Rollins College No. 3, and host Mercer No. 4. But Rollins declined the invitation, and the University of Tampa accepted.

Stetson will play Tampa at 7:30 p. m. on Friday, followed by GTC-Mercer at 9 p. m. The winners meet on Saturday night for the right to go to Kansas City on March 9-16 for the national tournament.

INTRAMURAL ROUNDUP

GIRLS

By MARILYN LANCASTER

Jane Strickland, member of the Toppers, put on a dazzling show Monday night, February 16, 1959, by stripping the net while ringing 82 out of a 100 free throws in the Free Throw Shooting Tournament. Close behind her was Lane Hartley, a member of the Falcons, hitting an amazing 80 out of 100. Wyline Findley, a member of the Yellow Jackets, took third place, by dropping in 76 out of 100. We are proud to say that this tournament was a big success with quite a few girls participating in it.

The Co-recreational Shuffleboard Tournament got underway last Thursday night with 42 couples entering the tournament. They have progressed to the second round of play.

Ann Clements and Marion Shivers are strong contenders for the championship, having already advanced to the quarter finals. Last year Lane Hartley and Benny Potts won the co-recreational Shuffleboard Tournament.

In the Women's Intramural Basketball Tournament the Yellow Jackets defeated the Toppers 35 to 17. Glenda Rentz was high scorer for the Yellow Jackets with 20 points and Sally Ann Akins added 10 points. For the Toppers, Jane Strickland scored six points and Ann Clements bagged four.

The Hawks defeated the Rebels 19 to 12. Faye Hodges was top scorer for the Hawks with 10 points and Delores Moore rung six points. Joyce Perkins was high point man for the Rebels with seven points and Joy Rahn with three points. The Cardinals lost to the Falcons by forfeit.

Monday night, February 23, 1959, the Women's Badminton Tournament will begin at 6:30 in the new gym.

Thursday night, February 26, 1959, the Women's Table Tennis will start at 6:30 in the new gym. You must be present to enter both of these activities.

The Basketball schedule for next week shows all the games will be played in the old gym at 3:30 on these days.

Lions vs. Cougars

A last quarter spurt by the Cougars gave them a 77-60 victory over the Lions. At the end of three quarters, the Lions were in the lead 56-50, but were unable to stop the Cougar offensive machine. This and the fact that their offense just fell down altogether kept the Cougars undefeated. Cougar leaders were Carl Peaster with 28 points and Tom Moody with 16 points. High for the Lions was Jimmy Oates with 23 points. Score by quarters:

Cougars	11	32	50	77
Lions	16	38	56	60

Bobcats vs. Panthers

The Panthers took a very close victory over the Bobcats by the score of 54-52. The Panthers had to fight off a last quarter rally by the Bobcats in order to win. The Panthers' leading scorers were Don Lord with 16 points and Charles Hutchinson with 15 points. The Bobcats were led by Phil Clark with 16 points. The Bobcats were led by Phil Clark with 16 points, Tom Mathison with 14 points, and Bill Criscillis with 13 points.

Score by quarters:
Bobcats 11 18 32 52
Panthers 8 25 38 54

Wildcats vs. Tigers

After a very fine first half by both teams, the Tigers started burning up the net to gain a 74-53 victory over the Wildcats. Leading the shooting exhibition for the Tigers were Ty Adams with 18 points and Luther Wheelus with 17 points. Wildcat leaders were Sonny Godfrey with 18 points and George McLeod with 16 points.

Score by quarters:
Tigers 15 31 49 74

Bears vs. Cougars

When two undefeated teams meet, something's got to give and that is just what happened when the Bears and Cougars met on February 16. The Bears topped the Cougars by the score of 67-57. Leading the victors was Marion Shivers with 32 points. Leading the "until then" undefeated Cougars were Carl Peaster and Ralph Berryhill with 18 points each.

Score by quarters:
Bears 20 34 53 67
Cougars 11 23 35 57

Campus Capers

By MARY ANN HARRELL

After two weeks of no gossip I have come prepared to tell all I know.

Next Monday evening after the Richard Cass Piano Concert the West Hall House Council and Social Committee will sponsor a reception in West Hall. Everyone is invited to attend. I do hope that all of you plan to attend the concert and the reception afterward. They both should be very enjoyable.

Those of you who missed the operetta "The Fortune Teller," missed an evening of laughs. Even those on stage laughed all the way through it.

Congratulations are in order. I send them out to Mary Reese and Ed Abercrombie who are engaged. They plan their wedding sometime this summer. Also, congratulations to John Carroll who was married this past week. I don't know his wife's name, but I'll have this information for you next week.

We have certainly seen some thrilling basketball games lately, haven't we? I know that everyone feels the same way that I do about the team, but I'm going to say it anyway. Each young man who plays on the team is a credit to the team and to the college. We congratulate the Professors, Coach Scarce, and Coach Clements for the wonderful job they have done this year. I would also like to add a word here about the cheerleaders. Those eight students have done wonders for the school spirit at each of the games. Why don't you tell them how much you appreciate their efforts the next time you see one of them on campus?

Here's one of the funniest stories I have heard lately. Last week Gwen Jones got out of her car and started walking toward the dormitory. She was doing just fine until suddenly—she could not go any farther! She looked back and discovered that she was literally "hooked." A heavy duty fishing line had become tangled in her raincoat. She started back to the car and got even more tangled. I know she certainly appreciates the young couple who finally passed by and "got her off the hook."

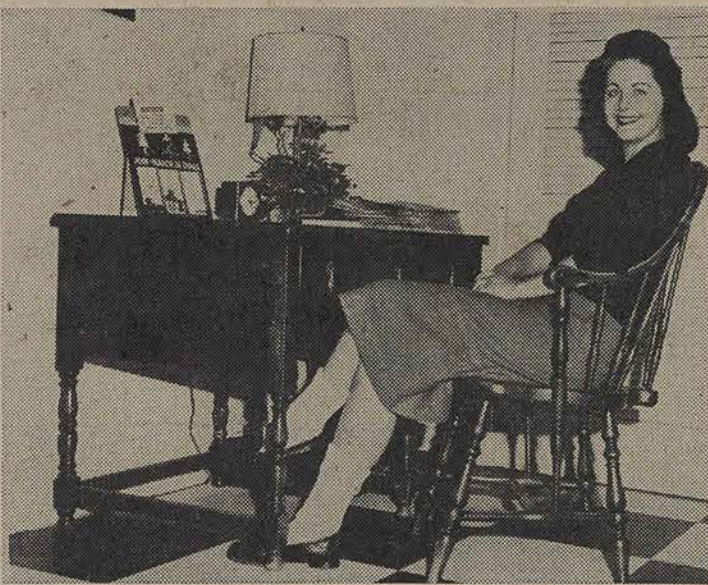

Did you hear about the girls in Lewis Hall who gave a birthday party last week? The party was given for Abraham Lincoln. The decorations were in keeping with the occasion and Confederate music was played during the hour. After refreshments were served, appropriate songs, such as "Dixie," were sung by the group.

Hope you have a nice weekend, but please be careful on the highways.

Two first graders were standing outside school one morning. "Do you think," asked one, "that thermonuclear projectiles will pierce the heat barrier?"

"No," said the 2nd. "Once a force enters the substratosphere—"

Then the bell rang. Said the 1st: "There goes the bell. Darn it, now we gotta go in and string beads."

WHILE BUSY ON DESK DUTY in East Hall, Rene Carole Batchelor, freshman business major, takes time out to become GTC's co-ed of the week. Rena is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. D. Batchelor, Warner Robins. Swimming, dancing, and water skiing rate high on her list of hobbies. Her ambition is to become an airline stewardess upon graduation.

--- Moore Or Less

By WILLIS MOORE

Did you hear the announcement made in the dining hall last Friday? It said, "There will be a movie shown on campus tonight. You must be present to see it."

There is a preacher on campus that has a pin-up of Bridgett Bardot in his dormitory room. She does not have any clothes on—well, neither is there any flesh on her bones.

Accasionally it does us good to stop a few moments and take a look at things that are happening around campus. Those of you who saw "My Three Angels" presented by Masquers last quarter do not have to be invited to the winter production. You are sold on the ability of the campus theatre group. However, those of you that missed the play should make a special effort to see "The Little Foxes." It will not be a disappointment.

Of course the play might not be as real to you as one was to Jean Holmes. She leaped onto the stage during "Tea House of the August Moon," and tried to whip a Japanese wrestler. (Really she didn't, but it did sound good.) In all seriousness, make a special effort to see this play.

Then turning our attention a little more into the future; the GTC band will be going into strategic points in the state on a three-day concert tour. From the comments that we pick around campus, and articles like the letter in the last issue of the George-Anne, we get the idea that the band is really showing improvement.

Under the direction of Mr. Fred Grumley, the band will play concerts and assemble programs for many high schools during the tour. We of the band do appreciate the support given us at the basketball games and also each compliment sent our direction.

Then almost immediately following the band tour the Vet's Club will be holding their annual talent revue. If you sing, play an instrument, or entertain in any way, brush up a bit and put your name in. Those of us that are less talented will be there to support you.

Even with the work that we must do we find time to add to the "life" of the campus. We could not begin to point out each activity but we thought we would mention at least a few annual events coming up on the agenda.

We knew that there were fishermen on campus and we knew that girls fish also; but did you see the senior girl trying to fish?... in front of Lewis Hall? To top it all off, she even tangled the line and unwound the reel.

Our Word for the Week: Army Regulation WM-233—"If it moves salute it; if it doesn't pick it up; if you can't pick it up... paint it."

JoAnn Lewallen Is Representative

JoAnn Lewallen is the student representative who is conducting the "Silver Opinion Competition" for Reed and Barton at GTC.

Reed and Barton are conducting a "Silver Opinion Competition" in which scholarships totaling $1,050 are being offered to women students at a few colleges. GTC has been selected to enter this competition in which the first grand award is a $500 cash scholarship; second grand award is a $250 scholarship, and third, fourth and fifth awards are $100 scholarships. There will be 100 other awards with winners having the option of receiving a $25 Savings Bond or a "starter set" of sterling silver, fine china and crystal with a retail value of approximately $45.

In the "Silver Opinion Competition" an entrant is asked to name her favorite china, crystal, and sterling silver. Then she must tell why she has chosen the three particular designs. She can use as few or as many words as she likes. Entries will be judged on the basis of interesting opinions rather than on literary techniques. Closing date is midnight, March 31.

All girls interested in entering the competition contact JoAnn Lewallen in Lewis Hall.

Parker Is Tagged As A Likeable Professor

By VIRGINIA KIRKLAND

The newest addition to the Art Department has been tagged as one of the friendliest, most likeable young men on campus. His name is Mr. William E. Parker, who, with his lovely wife and eighteen-month-old daughter, now resides in Statesboro, Georgia.

Mr. Parker is especially well known around campus for his artistic ability, which was shown during the fall quarter when he exhibited his paintings.

Being associated with the art department automatically makes Mr. Parker a sponsor of Alpha Rho Tau (the Art Club) along with Miss Roxie Remley. He is a most energetic person, and he is always willing to take time from his busy schedule to lend his assistance where it is needed.

Mr. Parker's main interest is, of course, painting and the study of American painters. However, he likes to read during his leisure hours. He says his favorite reading material is contemporary poetry.

Those who are acquainted with him have often heard him ask, "Get the point?" which seems to be his favorite expression. His pet peeve is indifference.

Mr. Parker was graduated from the University of Florida with high honors, and he taught there for one year before he went into service for Uncle Sam.

When asked for comments in general about GTC, Mr. Parker replied that since he has been teaching here, he has noticed that great strides have been made toward enlarging the campus as well as the curriculum. He is impressed also by the enthusiasm shown by the student body in wanting to get things done.

On February 24 he will speak to the members of the Westminster Fellowship on the subject of "Art in Religion." This group meets each Tuesday night at the home of Miss Pat Shely.

A man of well-rounded ability and a bubbling personality, Mr. Parker has filled the position of not only an art teacher and a painter, but also as a friend to students.

If you haven't had the pleasure of chatting with Mr. Parker, you can almost always find him in the art department. Go by and say hello; you'll be glad you did! His students look forward to his daily classes, because they are never sure of what he will have in store for them. It is really an experience to witness his teaching techniques.
