Faculty Grievance Committee (FGC) Policies and Procedures -- Ad Hoc Committee Review and Discussion

Submitted by Bob Fernekes

4/4/2013

Discussion:

The purpose of this discussion item is to report out to the Senate on revisions the ad hoc committee recommends, and obtain Senate feedback. A revised draft of the Faculty Grievance Procedures (Section 220) is attached. Left border indicates where changes were made. Members serving on the ad hoc committee are Michael Moore, Marc Cyr, Clara Krug, Jill Lockwood, Jennie Dilworth, Renee Hotchkiss, Wen-Ran Zhang, and Bob Fernekes.

Rationale:

Based on the Moore Letter attached and nominations by the Faculty Senate Executive Committee, President Keel formed an ad hoc committee to review Faculty Grievance Committee (FGC) Policies and Procedures. The committee's charge was to review the Faculty Grievance Procedures (Section 220, Georgia Southern University Faculty Handbook 2012-2013) in light of Michael's concerns and issues to see what changes were needed. The last substantive review of the FGC policies and procedures was in 2004.

Response:

The discussion item " Faculty Grievance Committee (FGC) Policies and Procedures -- Ad Hoc Committee Review and Discussion" was withdrawn for this meeting by the ad-hoc committee and may be refiled at a later time.
