Collins, Moye, and Whiteside Retire After This Year From GTC Staff

President Zach Henderson disclosed Monday three members of the faculty and administration who are retiring after this year. Those are Miss Queen Elizabeth Collins, secretary to the Director of Placement, Mr. William Burton Moye, associate professor of Mathematics, and Dr. James Hamilton Whiteside, college physician.

Miss Collins graduated from Georgia Teachers College in 1934 with a Bachelor of Science degree in English and history. She had done previous study at Georgia State College for Women, Columbia University and Winthrop College.

Worked at MPS

Since her graduation here Miss Collins has worked in the Marvin Pittman School and as secretary to the Director of Placement.

When asked about her life here at Georgia Teachers College, Miss Collins replied, "These twenty-five years which I have enjoyed here seem like such a short time but I have been here long enough to see the college grow into one of our outstanding colleges in the state."

Miss Collins when asked what she planned to do after retiring replied, "Now I'm going to do some of the things which I've wanted to do since I've been working—that is such things as read, travel and work in my flower yard."

College Doctor Since 1926

Dr. Whiteside although not a full time staff member has been the college physician since 1926 and the only physician ever designated by the college.

He and Miss Collins are retiring because of the mandatory retirement age for college faculty and administration.

Mr. Moye came to Georgia Teachers College in 1937 after having taught eight years at Middle Georgia College.

He has a Bachelor of Arts degree from Piedmont College, a Masters degree from Mercer University and has done additional work at Peabody College, Duke University and the University of Iowa. Mr. Moye has membership in the American Mathematical Society.

Mr. Moye is retiring because of ill health.

Dedication And Dance Preview Given Monday

Ann Manry, editor of the GEORGE-ANNE, presented the dedication of the REFLECTOR during the assembly Monday, May 25. This year's annual was dedicated to Miss Bertha Freeman, associate professor of education. Miss Manry substituted for Pete Hallman, editor of the REFLECTOR, who is teaching at Richmond Hill, Georgia, and was unable to attend.

The remaining portion of the program was a preview of the Modern Dance Concert, which was given Thursday night.

Miss Pat Shely assistant professor of Health and Physical Education, directed and introduced the program. Those who participated in the program and the numbers in which they appeared are as follows: "Technique and Vocabulary" with Juan Anderson, Jane Dotson, Janice King, Phoebe Kelly, Linda Nesmith, and Juanda Newbern; "This I Believe" with Judy Anderson and Phoebe Kelly and read by Jane Dotson; and "Saber Dance" with Janice King and Juanda Newbern.

MISS BERTHA FREEMAN, associate professor of education at GTC, has received the dedication of the 1959 REFLECTOR. Ann Manry, managing editor of the yearbook, made the presentation Monday in assembly in the absence of Pete Hallman, who was unable to attend.

Loan Applications Are Now Being Received

Applications for the National Defense Student Loan Fund may now be received from students at Georgia Teachers College, according to Dr. Ralph K. Tyson, chairman of the loan fund.

A student is eligible for application who is enrolled or has been accepted for enrollment, is in need of the loan, and is capable of maintaining good scholastic standing.

Determination of a loan shall include consideration of the income and resources of the applicant's family, any income and assets of the applicant, and the costs reasonably necessary for the student's attendance at the college.

Special consideration shall be given to students with a superior academic background, indicates a superior capacity or preparation in science, mathematics, engineering, or a modern foreign language.

Applications for loans should be made to: Dean of Students, Georgia Teachers College, Collegeboro, Georgia.

A total of $5,756 dollars is available for loans to summer students and Dean Tyson encourages needy students to come in immediately to make application.

Any potential teacher, regardless of major, is eligible to receive the loan. Anyone teaching five years ANYWHERE need pay back only half the loan.

The Frank I. Williams Center will be open for a "look" by the students and faculty of GTC on Monday afternoon from 4:30 until 6 p.m.

The building is nearing completion, and Contractor Clarence Mobley has graciously given permission for us to take an unofficial look before going home for vacation.

Construction on Georgia Teachers College's new Arts and Industry Building is expected to start within thirty days, according to GTC President Dr. Zach S. Henderson.

Service Society Elects Officers

Gamma Sigma Upsilon, the newly formed service society, met Monday night, May 25, at 6:30 p.m., to adopt a constitution and to elect officers for the coming year. A constitution was duly adopted. Officers elected for the coming year are president, James Chivers; first vice president, Richard Osburn; second vice president, Gail Wright; secretary, Juanda Newbern and treasurer, Bob Corley.

Bids were opened at the college on Tuesday of this week, and low bidder was the Bryan Construction Company of St. Simons. Cost of the building will be $390,925.

The contractor will have 360 days in which to complete the building. Architects on the new structure are Logan and Williams of Atlanta.

The building will house the Industrial Arts and Fine Arts divisions, and will replace a temporary wooden structure constructed in 1948. Chairman of the division of arts is Dr. Donald F. Hackett.

Officiating at the bid-opening was Mr. Hubert Dewberry, the Board of Regents' director of Plant and Business Operations.

This will be the third building now under construction at the Statesboro college. Others are the Frank I. Williams Center and a classroom building. A girl's dormitory is planned to be started by early fall.

The split-level type building will consist of a power mechanics lab with equipment for automobile maintenance; a metals lab with equipment for welding, metal and sheet metal work; a woodworking lab with new equipment for teaching beginning and advanced woodworking classes, and a finishing room; a combination electronics lab and electricity lab for working with electricity, radio and television, and a general shop for work with metals, plastics, and metals. Classrooms, a supply room and a ceramic lab are included in the general shop.

A graphic arts lab will have facilities for platen press printing, offset printing, silk screening, and etching. Two photographic labs and portrait room

PICTURED ABOVE are Jeane Fulford, Twin City, and Emory Giles, Sandersville, in a scene from "A Phoenix Too Frequent," a play which was recently presented in McCroan Auditorium. This scene is in a tomb located in ancient Rome. Dynamene falls in love with Tegeus, a soldier who is guarding six dead bodies which are hanging outside of the tomb. The above is a love scene between the two. The director of the play was Mr. Dorothy F. Lee, assistant professor of speech at GTC.

By WILLIS MOORE

Recently in the "Paragon" Jimmy Kenny, was heard making this order. "...I want a cup of coffee... without onions.

Some students have reported that a good way to get rid of the ants that eat food in the dormitories, is to float (cookies for example) in a pail of water. One student tried this, but when he came in one day he found ants all over his cookies. He said that they were climbing the wall, crossing the ceiling and leaping onto the cookies.

At present much is being said about another year being completed, and plans for summer work. This is very timely because from all indications we are finishing another academic year at GTC.

Many people have the desire to be pioneers in one field or another. Since summer is so close, you can make many plans for an occupation. For those of you who have a yearning for change, we suggest that you consider a very popular subject, sleep—not a practice; a study of sleep.

The hardest task for a person to accomplish is to venture forth, in the morning putting the feet on a cold floor. One factor contributing to the difficulty, is the late hours kept. This getting up has been a practice for years and years. It all started when a very unpopular man began getting up before others; he became jealous of the somnolent ones, so he started all this early rising.

You have the problem now, so why not set out this summer to remedy it. Who knows, we may have a complete change of pattern—now our proposition: The difficulty in getting up can be treated in this fashion. Instead of getting started in the regular routine, rise earlier and go on a picnic. Maybe you would like to have the friends over for a party—a record party is an excellent idea. Instead of conventional breakfast, why not have your favorite dinner, or get the gang to have a broiled hamburger reast.

Richard Kerr, columnist, and newspaper reporter, suggested, recently that someone try inverting their day's activities. We would not agree completely, but a change may benice to try. Of course, in our present society it would be foolish to advocate such a change permanently. But it might be a neat trick for a week or so?

Dr. Rogers receiver the following answer on a quiz, the question: "What was the position of women in these Cultures: German—Late medieval." (Answer) "By this time, the women had gained more respect from the men, and were looked upon as sort of a necessity."

Cribbs and Cleland To Receive Scholarships

Two annual H. Minkovitz and Sons Department Store scholarships have been awarded for 1959-60 in Bulloch and Screven counties to Miss Jeanette Cribbs of Stilton and Miss Kate Cleland of Sylvania.

Announcement was made this week by Dean Paul F. Carroll of Georgia Teachers College and chairman of the president's committee on scholarships.

The scholarship pays for an entire year's tuition ($171) at Georgia Teachers College and is awarded annually to a graduating high school senior.

Miss Cribbs, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harmon Cribbs, is a recent graduate of Southeast Bulloch High School, Brooklet. Miss Cleland, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David H. Cleland, is a recent graduate of Screven County High School.

The Frank I. Williams Building will be open to tour by students Monday from 4:30 to 6:00 p.m.

are also part of the graphic arts lab.

The Art Department will occupy one wing of the building. It will contain an art studio, a design studio, a drawing and painting studio, a conference library, and a patio for outside drawing.

Air conditioning will be installed only in the main offices when the building is first completed and a complete air conditioning system will be installed at a later date.

The outside front of the building will contain aluminum colored paneling similar to that on the Frank I. Williams Center.

The Arts and Industry Building will be located between the warehouse and the water tower. In the main lobby of the building the main offices will face a hall lined with plants.

At the completion of the building, Georgia Teachers College will be the only school in the Southeastern states with such art and industrial arts facilities.

Around With Brown

By ED BROWN

The two greatest things that confront us today are the possibility of war and human disease. To meet with one or the other we need to be physically fit. We have to be healthy people if we expect to survive one. To be ready we must build up our resistance, as well as our leadership.

We are known for our healthy people, but medicine alone will not be enough to keep us that way; we must use some of the gifts of God that we have. There is such a thing as natural resistance and immunity which we, as American people, seem to be losing.

The world health council defines health as, a state of complete physical, mental, and social well being, not merely the absence of disease. We are a sick people! Let's face it, we can't be geniuses or have the emotional stability of Job, but through what physical ability, plus what mental matter we might process, we can cultivate and increase what we do have.

We are a soft people; and we are becoming more so everyday. We are a great lover of the automobile, and in our modern day society they are a necessity. This doesn't take away the possibility of walking altogether.

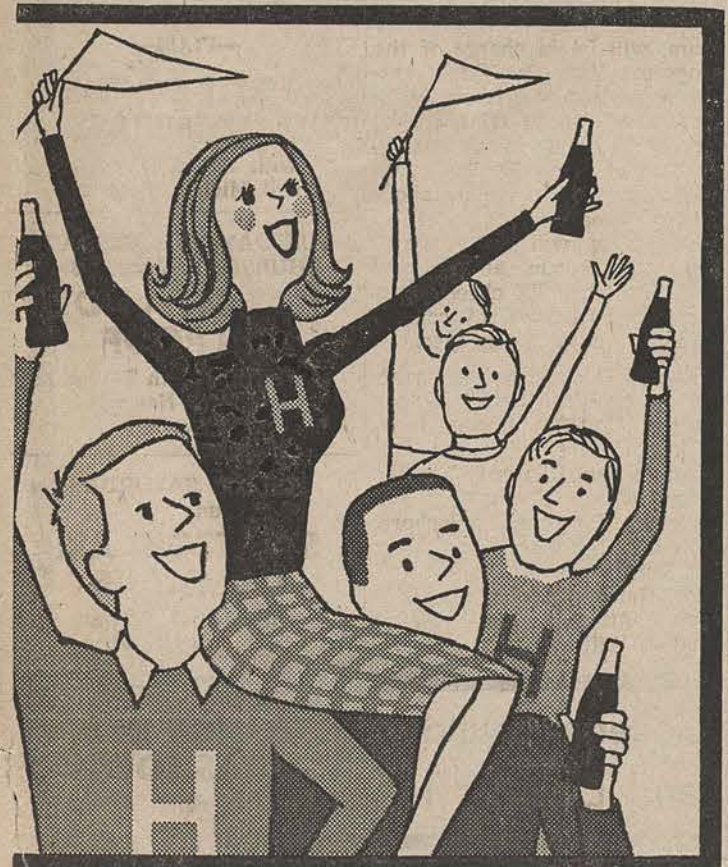

All we need now is some invention that would take us up the stairs and steps that we might encounter and the use of the legs would be lost.

Some authorities say that we get enough exercise in our daily routine to supply our basic needs, but did they take into consideration these people who ride everywhere they go? Are they fortunate or are they lazy? Never the less, this push-button, high-living era is leaving its mark on the American people.

Try a little exercise, it is good for you. Your intramural program offers a great opportunity for you to get a little exercise plus a lots of fun. They will continue through the summer. Why not take advantage of them?

Because this is the last edition of the paper this year, I would like to take this opportunity to thank everyone who has helped to make my stay at GTC a great one. To the faculty: I am sorry I didn't learn all that you wanted me to. My undergraduate record shows your dissatisfaction in me.

To the student body: Parting is such sweet sorrow. To fellow grads, I congratulate you; the ones who remain, good luck.

Frosh Captures Batting Title For The 1959 Season

Well, baseball season is over, the final averages are in and there was a surprise in the batting race. John Malcolm McMillan, "Buzzy," hit a hot streak on the last road trip and wound up with a .302 batting average. This was good enough to win the batting title for the '59 season.

"Buzzy" was born in Washington D.C. on March 27, 1939, but is considered a native of Augusta, Georgia. While in Augusta, he played his high school ball at Richmond Academy. In his senior year, "Buzzy" led Richmond's stickmen with a sensational .410 batting average.

Buzzy, who stands five feet 10 inches tall and weighs 165 pounds, is a switch hitter and according to coach J. I. Clements "has developed into a fairly good hit and run man." Coach Clements also says that the right handed throwing McMillan "has improved a great deal from the start of the season to the finish."

In all, I believe that we can look forward to more and greater things from this fine freshman.

17 to Receive Baseball Letters

Georgia Teachers College baseball coach J. I. Clements Jr. has announced that 17 members of the baseball team would receive a letterman award. Of these receiving the award 13 of them were first year lettermen.

Those lettering included only three seniors who are graduating, Ralph Berryhill, the captain and catcher for the Profs will receive his fourth letter along with manager Bobby Teasley and centerfielder Ben Benton, who is to receive his first letter. The only other senior shortstop Donald Lord who will receive his first letter will be back next year to hold down his position.

Lefty Ray Mims and Bill Mallard will receive their third letter. Mims set a new college record by whiffing 18 of the Davidson batters in his best performance of the year. Bill Mallard, a junior from Sardis, hit only .204 but helped the Profs on the hot corner on several occasions.

First year lettermen include pitchers Lewis "Bo" Altman (4-0), who had an earned run average of 3.35; Clyde Miller (3-3), who compiled a 1.95 ERA; and Larry Moore (1-2), who finished the season with a 4.32 ERA.

Other first year lettermen include "Red" Robinson, Tom Moody, Buzzy McMillan, Wayne Smith, Bill Criscillis, Miller Finley, Dan Stipe, and assistant manager Dan Williams.

By receiving a letter all 17 are automatically eligible for membership in the GTC "T" Club.

BULLETIN

Dr. David Ward, 1958-59 faculty handicap golf champion, today vigorously denied that he had been offered a berth in the field for the U.S. Open.

JOHN McMILLAN, freshman second baseman from Augusta, led the Georgia Teachers College batters this season with a .302 mark. McMillan had 19 hits in 63 times at bat in 20 games. He handled 38 consecutive chances perfectly at second base over a seven game stretch. Another Augustan, freshman outfielder Miller Finley, was next with a .298 average.

Three Potential Profs Are Signed By Coach Searce

Coach J. B. Searce gave the 1959-60 basketball schedule and announced that he had signed three boys on scholarships.

The boys are Ronnie Patton, 6-3 forward who attended high school at Smith High in Atlanta, Georgia; Dale Barker 6-1 guard from Olivehill, Kentucky and Budge Hahn, 6-1 guard from Eaton, Indiana.

The 1959-60 basketball schedule opens December 2 with the University of Georgia in Statesboro. The other games are as follows:

Dec. 7, Erskine, home; Dec. 14, Kentucky Wesleyan, there; Dec. 16, Ball State, there; Dec. 18, Wabash, there; January 7, Georgia, there; January 9, Stetson, home; Jan. 11, Spring Hill, there; Jan. 16, Belmont Abbey, home; Jan. 18, Rollins, there; Jan. 19, Tampa, there; Jan. 21, Jacksonville University, home; Jan. 23, Mercer, home; Jan. 29, Newberry, home; Feb. 2, Mercer, there; Feb. 6, Rollins, home.

Feb. 11, Newberry, home; Feb. 13, Ga. Tech, there; Feb. 15, Stetson, there; Feb. 16, Jacksonville University, there; Feb. 20, Kentucky Wesleyan, home; and Feb. 22, Erskine, there.

Intramural Roundup

By MARILYN LANCASTER and LANI SCHEWE

Team	Wins	Losses
Cardinals	6	1	The Cardinals captured the
Falcons	4	3	Women's Intramural Champion-
Yellow Jackets	4	4	ship by winning six of their
Hawks	3	3	seven games during regular sea-
Forfietters	3	2	son play.
Rebels	0	1	Members of the All Stars were
Blue Birds	0	1	selected by the managers of the
Toppers	0	5	various women's softball teams.

Congratulations Cardinals! The Cardinals won the Women's Softball Tournament with six wins and one loss. Their only defeat was to the Falcons in a 10 to four loss. They should be commended on their fine playing and sportsmanship. The Falcons came in second and the Yellow Jackets were third. The Forfietters are a combined team, made up of the Rebels, Hawks, Toppers, and Blue Birds. They were combined in the middle of the quarter because of the lack of players to complete a team by themselves. They did very well for the short time they played together.

Wednesday afternoon, May 27 the Cardinals' women's intramural champions, trounced the Women's All Stars 10-4. Barbara Barton took the winning pitching honors while Lane Hartley was charged with the loss.

SOFTBALL

The standing in the Men's IM softball is as follows:

Team	Won	Lost	Tie
Tigers	8	1
Lions	6	2	1
Leopards	7	5
Bears	6	5
Bobcats	5	4
Wildcats	3	7	1
Panthers	2	7
Cougars	1	7

GOLF

The Men's Golf Tournament has been completed and the following is a list of the six top golfers and their 36-hole score:

Joe Edwards, 188; Marion Shivers, 192; Tommy Mathison, 226; Roy Collier, 242; Dahl MacDermitt, 252; and Jerry Warenn, 287.

HANDBALL

The semi-finals and finals of the men's IM handball tournament were played last Wednesday night. The George-Anne had to go to press before these results were completed.

HORSESHOES

The horseshoe tournament is still in progress and should be completed sometime this week. Mr. White urges all those still in the tournament to get your games played and into the IM office as soon as possible.

Campus Capers

By MARY ANN HARRELL

Looks like this is the last time I'll be chatting with you in this column until next year. I have enjoyed it this year and hope that I have kept you well-informed on all the news on campus. We have had a good year and still have next year to look forward to. Of course we will miss all of our seniors, but after all they will be back for Homecoming. I wish them all the best of everything this old world has to offer.

Last night the Modern Dance Club presented a unique performance in McCroan Auditorium. The dances were excellent. The club and their sponsor are certainly to be congratulated for such a wonderful performance. We hope there will be many more of them.

If you noticed some strange looking creatures roaming around campus Wednesday, don't be alarmed... it wasn't rat day, and we didn't have an invasion from Mars. It was the T-club initiation. I didn't hear it, but I heard that Connie Lewis was "tough" singing like Louie Armstrong.

Last week after the George-Anne came out, Ted Tucker asked me just why I didn't tell everyone that it is he and Bo Snell that are going to Yellowstone National Park this summer. Now are you satisfied, Ted?

I have some vital statistics here. They are about my roommate, and believe me they are true because I actually counted. Now I have absolutely nothing against "The Battle of New Orleans" but really — when one plays it 247 times a day it gets right distracting. Like I say—it's a fine tune, but if anyone has another record would you please send it to 205 of Lewis Hall? I'm going nuts.

I hope all of you have a grand summer. Be good and we'll see you next year.

KDE and KDK Meet to Discuss Plans for Frosh Orientation Week

Members of Kappa Delta Epsilon and Kappa Phi Kappa, their advisors, and the Dean of Students met last week for a general discussion of Freshman Orientation Week. Discussion centered around the involvement of fraternity and sorority membership in the actual mechanics of the orientation classes and the improvement of the actual content of these classes.

Later during the week another committee met with Dr. Tyson to consider suggestions and to draft preliminary proposals for these orientation classes.

As an outgrowth of these two planning sessions, specific suggestions were recorded and these suggestions were organized into tentative schedule of activities representing freshman orientation classes for the fall of 1959.

The schedule is as follows: Sept. 29—All groups meet separately at 3:30 p.m. for a brief acquaintance.

Sept. 30—10:00 a.m. "History of the College" and presentation and explanation of T-Book." 3:30 p.m., groups one and two tour library.

Oct. 1—10:00 a.m. "How to Study." 3:30 p.m., Groups three and four tour library.

Oct. 6—10:00 a.m. "Academic Regulations." 3:30 p.m., groups five and six tour library.

Oct. 7—10:00 a.m. "Services of the College." 3:30 p.m., groups seven and eight tour library.

Jean Dickerson Wins Awards In Contest

Moore to Head Radio Club For Year 1959-1960

The Radio Club had their quarterly meeting on Tuesday, May 26, for the purpose of electing officers for next year and presenting awards for outstanding work in the organization. The main speaker of the evening was Eliot Harvard, a transfer from Young Harris Junior College. He gave a speech of inspiration to the club.

The newly elected officers are as follows: Willis Moore, Sandersville, president; Carlton Hendrix, Claxton, first vice president; Jim Fields, Claxton, second vice president; and Eliot Harvard, secretary-historian.

The awards for outstanding work in the club were presented to Mercer McMillian, Cochran; Jim Fields, and Willis Moore. Mr. Clyde J. Faries, sponsor of the organization acknowledged Lois Everett of Social Circle, Georgia, an outgoing vice president, for her outstanding contributions to the club.

This was the last meeting of the school year for the Radio Club.

Reed and Barton Silversmiths have announced that Jean Dickerson, Sylvania, has won a "starter set" of Reed and Barton's Rose Cascade sterling, Flintridge china and Cambridge chystal for her entry in Reed and Barton's "Scholarship Competition" held on campus this spring.

For her excellent essay selected as the best essay for this school by Reed and Barton's Scholarship Advisory Board, composed of the deans of 16 leading universities and colleges, she will receive approximately $50.00 in sterling silver, fine china and crystal. She was one of 105 essay writers out of over 9,300 entries from all over the United States to be selected for this award.

Jo Ann Lewallen, Toccoa, was the student representative for Reed and Barton on this campus. For her services in conducting the contest on campus, she received a place setting in her silver.

For Your Entertainment

This week's movie will be "A Hat Full of Rain" starring Ben Gazara, and Eve Marie Saint. The movie is an adaptation of the stage hit of the same name. The plot concerns a dope addict's attempts to overcome his weakness and his wife's attempts to help him.

The movie will be shown promptly at 7:30 p.m. in McCroan Auditorium.

Cheerleaders To Hold Clinic Sat.

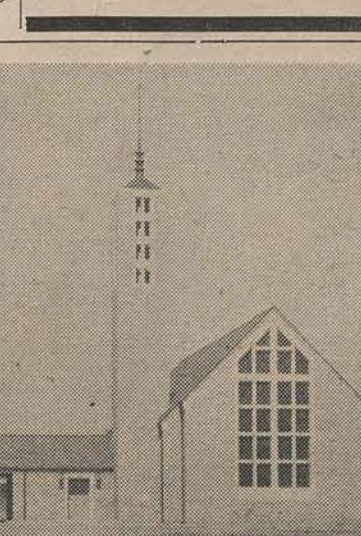

A special one-day school for cheerleaders will be conducted on the Georgia Teachers College campus on Saturday of this week.

Dexter Hughes, a senior from Tifton and captain of the GTC cheerleading squad the past two years, will be in charge of the program. Miss Pat Shely, assistant professor health and physical education at GTC, is the faculty member in charge of the special class. She will conduct a special session for sponsors of cheerleading teams.

The class will last from 9 a.m. until 5 p.m. at the new gym. A total of 150 cheerleaders and sponsors from 13 schools plan to be in attendance.

The GTC cheerleaders assisting in the instruction include Martha Brantley Bacon, Pembroke; Charlotte Owens, Marietta; Vivian Blizzard, Tennile; Mary Moore, Thomaston; Pat Anderson Ragsdale, Swainsboro; Marianne DeLoach, Statesboro; Pat Sapp, Waynesboro; Sue Tolbert, Gainsville; Johnny Hathcock, Atlanta; and Dexter Hughes, Tifton.

This Bit

By JIM BRANDON

With the closing of this quarter, so ends the four year term-inus for a lot of very nice people, to the seniors who have been out in the field student teaching—"Welcome Back!" To all graduating seniors we extend our heartiest congratulations and wishes for good luck. May teacher's salaries be raised fifty per cent next year.

It has been really a good year for GTC's Zeta Omicron chapter of Phi Mu Alpha. Although it is known as a professional music fraternity, its members represent nearly every corner of the campus. Its function is to further the cause of music in America, and to encourage loyalty to the Alma Mater. Phi Mu Alpha sponsors recitals and musicales by members and outside artists as well. They encourage attendance to student and faculty recitals and often usher at these affairs.

At a recent meeting of the fraternity, a new slate of officers was elected to head up Zeta Omicron Chapter for next year. New officers are: president, David Powers; vice president, John Barker; secretary, Charlie Griffin; treasurer, Johnny Hathcock; warden, Doug Everett; and historian, Tommy Bowen.

Music Educators Club has elected officers for the coming year. They are: president, Jim Brandon; first vice president, Tommy Bowen; second vice president, Beth Rigdon; secretary, Mary Francis Monroe; and treasurer, Nancy Ellis.
