Obituary

*God saw the road was getting rough,
The hills were hard to climb,
He gently closed those loving eyes,
And whispered, "Peace Be Thine."*

*The weary hours, the days of pain,
The sleepless nights are passed,
The ever patient, worn out frame
Has found sweet rest at last.*

Grady Bangs was born in Screven County, Georgia on May 1, 1911 to the late William and Ossie Ellison Bangs. He departed this life on Tuesday, December 6, 1994, at his residence, 804 Porter Street, Savannah, Georgia.

As a young man he moved to Bulloch County and joined the Summer Hill Baptist Church, where he sung in the choir and attended church faithfully until his health failed. He moved to Savannah, Georgia three years ago to be cared for by his beloved sister, Beretha Anderson. He was retired from the Bradley Plywood Company.

He was united in holy matrimony to Beulah Mae Brown, who preceded him in death.

He leaves to cherish his memories four sisters, Mrs. Ethel Mae Davis, Mrs. Beretha Anderson, Mrs. Corine B. Hamilton, all of Savannah, Ga. and Mrs. Mary Lee Grant of Statesboro, Ga.; a brother, George Bangs of Sylvania, Ga.; a step-son, William Ed Brown of Irvington, N.J.; two sisters-in-law, Mrs. Rose Ann Bangs of Savannah, Ga. and Mrs. Betty Bangs of Sylvania, Ga.; an aunt, Mrs. Inez Robertson of Savannah, Ga.; a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

There's an open gate at the end of the road.

*Through which each must go alone
And there, in light we cannot see,*

Our Father claims His own.

Beyond the gate your loved one

Finds happiness and rest

And there is comfort in the thought

That a loving Father knows best.
