Three Pirates Named To 2011 Preseason All-PBC Team

Posted: Jan 25, 2011

SAVANNAH, Ga. - Three members of the Armstrong Atlantic State University men's tennis team have been named to the 2011 Preseason All-Peach Belt Conference team, released on Tuesday by league officials.

The Pirates represent half of the six-player squad, voted on by league coaches. Armstrong seniors Rafael Array and Mikk Irdoja are joined on the team by junior Eudaldo Bonet.

Array and Irdoja teamed to capture the ITA "Super Bowl" doubles title this fall, and the duo will enter the 2011 spring season as the top-ranked doubles team in NCAA Division II. In addition, Irdoja is ranked No. 4 in singles beginning this spring after finishing his sophomore season as the top-ranked singles player in Division II, as well as earning Peach Belt Conference Player of the Year honors. Array, meanwhile, will begin the 2011 season ranked No. 13 in singles.

Bonet is the highest-ranked player in the Peach Belt in singles going into the spring season, coming in at No. 2 in the fall ITA Division II rankings. A former No. 1-ranked singles player, Bonet earned All-Conference and All-America honors as a freshman and sophomore for the Pirates.

The trio are joined on the team by Flagler's David Cotrone, Lander's Paul-Henri Arrigoni and Francis Marion's Oshada Wijemanne.
