Obituary

"I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith: Henceforth, there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, shall give me at that day." II Timothy 4:7-8

Sister Maggie Jones Redwine Bell, daughter of the late Mitchell and Mary Lee Jones, was born on May 16, 1912 in Bulloch County, Georgia. She spent her formative years in Bulloch County. She departed this life on Monday, August 28, 1989 at the Bulloch Memorial Hospital, Statesboro, Georgia.

Having been borned and reared in a Christian home, she accepted Christ as her personal savior at an early age. She became a member of the Elm Street Church of God where she remained a faithful and dedicated member until her death. She loved God and people and she served them both well. She served in many positions in the church such as President of the Choir, Church Treasurer and Sunday School Teacher.

Her educational training was obtained in the elementary and secondary schools of Bulloch County. She received a B.S. degree from Savannah State College in Savannah, Georgia.

Sister Bell was an educator and served in the Bulloch County School System as an instructor for over 35 years. Her life as an educator touched and inspired many young minds and hearts.

She also participated in many social functions. She was a member of the Royal Savings Club, the Bulloch County Negro Business and Professional Women's Club, the Poinsetta Garden Club, and the Bulloch County Retired Teachers Association.

She was united in holy matrimony to John D. Redwine who preceded her in death. She was later married to William S. Bell, who also preceded her in death.

She leaves to cherish her loving memory, a sister, Mrs. Daisy Jones Johnson of Statesboro, Ga.; a brother, Willie C. Jones of Sylvania, Ga.; three stepdaughters, Ms. Sherilyn Bell, Ms. Wendy Bell and Ms. Marcella Bell, all of Philadelphia, Pa.; two stepsons, Bruce Bell of New York City, N.Y. and Walter Bell of California; four nieces, Mrs. Norena Pierce of Sylvania, Ga., Mrs. Juanita Soloman of Savannah, Ga., Mrs. Bernestine Brooks of Boston, Mass. and Mrs. Maggie L. Willis of Jackson, Miss.; two nephews, Willie J. Jones and Johnny H. Jones, both of Sylvania, Ga.; her mother-in-law, Mrs. Gertrude Lewis of Savannah, Ga.; several other relatives and friends.

We wish to thank all of you for your kindness shown to us during our sorrow.
