Obituary

Pearl Cook Bellinger was born in Screven County, Georgia to Major and Edith Gamble Cook February 1, 1897. She departed this life November 4, 1985 at Bulloch Memorial Hospital.

Pearl was united in holy matrimony to William Floyd Bellinger, who preceded her in death.

A Screven County native, but had lived in Statesboro most of her life. Pearl received her early education in Screven County. Later she attended Savannah State College, where she received a B.S. degree in Elementary Education. She taught in the public schools of Bulloch County for more than 40 years.

After moving to Bulloch County, she joined the Brannen Chapel United Methodist Church where she served as organist for more than 50 years. She also served as President of the United Methodist Women for a number of years and as Sunday School Superintendent. Pearl had a number of music students over the years.

She was a member of the American Legion Auxiliary, Post 528, Past Matron of Cape Jessamine Chapter No. 86, Order of the Eastern Star, and a member of the Royal Savings Club.

She is survived by a niece, Mrs. Mae Ella Hagins of Tampa, Fla.; a nephew, Jessie Waters of Sylvania, Ga.; three cousins, Mrs. Flonnie Lanier, Mrs. Laurie Thomas, and Mrs. Rose Marie Smith all of Savannah, Ga.; a brother-in-law, Lindsay Bellinger of Detroit, Mich.; and other relatives.

A TRIBUTE TO MRS. BELLINGER FROM THE SENIOR CHOIR

*My dear Mrs. Bellinger;
Dear sister and friend;
You were so faithful, even now and then;
Oh how we will miss you;
Dear sister and friend.
There were times you scolded us;
But, we loved you still
You only wanted excellence from each one instilled
So we'll keep on striving for perfection till the end;
Yes, we know it will please you;
Dear sister and friend.*
