Obituary

Mr. William Floyd Bellinger was born to the late Rev. W. M. Bellinger and Eliza Bellinger in Screven County, Rocky Ford, Georgia.

He departed this life April 11, 1972 at 9:50 p.m. at the Bulloch County Hospital.

He was united in marriage to Miss Pearl Cooke.

He served his country, honorably in World War I.

A native of Screven County, but lived in Statesboro most all of his life. He attended the Haven Academy School in Waynesboro, Georgia. In later years he attended Georgia State Trade School and became a licensed tailor. After coming to Bulloch County he connected himself with the Brannen Chapel Methodist Church and served as long as he was able. He served as chairman of the Administrative Board, Steward and Trustee, President of Senior Choir, Treasurer of Methodist Men and Lay Speaker. Other affiliations were, serving as Commander of American Legion, Chairman of the Chamber of Commerce, and a member of the John Wesley Lodge No. 161.

Surviving is his wife, Mrs. Pearl Bellinger, Statesboro, Georgia; two brothers, Rev. W. L. J. Bellinger and Mr. Lindsey Bellinger, both of Detroit, Michigan.

He left us a beautiful memory

And a sorrow to great to be told

To us who loved him and lost him

His memory will never grow old.
