Eastern Stars Helpful Hand Chapter 210

— ACKNOWLEDGEMENT —

*Perhaps you sent a telegram,
Or mailed a lovely card;
Perhaps you called to let us know
That we were in your heart.
Perhaps you made a point
To stop and say a prayer,
Perhaps you sent beautiful flowers,
If so, we saw them there.
Perhaps you spoke the kindest words
As any friend could say;
Perhaps you were not there at all —
But thought of us that day.
Perhaps you prepared some tasty food,
Or maybe furnished a car;
Perhaps you rendered a service unseen,
Near at hand or from afar,
Whatever you did to console the heart,
By word or deed or touch;
Whatever was the kindly part,
We THANK YOU, oh so much!*

IF

Rudyard Kipling

If you can keep your head when all about you
Are losing theirs and blaming it on you;
If you can trust yourself when all men doubt you,
But make allowance for their doubting too;
If you can wait and not be tired by waiting,
Or, being lied about, don't deal in lies,
Or being hated don't give way to hating,
And yet don't look too good, nor talk too wise;
If you can dream—and not make dreams your master;
If you can think and not make thoughts your aim,
If you can meet with Triumph and Disaster
And treat those two impostors just the same;
If you can bear to hear the truth you've spoken
Twisted by knaves to make a trap for fools,
Or watch the things you gave your life to, broken,
And stoop and build 'em up with worn-out tools,

If you can make one heap of all your winnings
And risk it on one turn of pitch-and-toss,
And lose, and start again at your beginnings,
And never breathe a word about your loss;
If you can force your heart and nerve and sinew
To serve your turn long after they are gone,
And so hold on when there is nothing in you
Except the Will which says to them: "Hold on!"
If you can talk with crowds and keep your virtue,
Or walk with Kings—nor lose the common touch,
If neither foes nor loving friends can hurt you,
If all men count with you, but none too much;
If you can fill the unforgiving minute
With sixty seconds' worth of distance run,
Yours is the Earth and everything that's in it,
And—which's more—you'll be a Man, my son!
