The Lord is my shepherd:
I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:
He leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul: He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name’s sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me;
thy rod and thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies:
Thou anointest my head with oil, my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy
shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell
in the house of the Lord forever.

Obituary

Mr. Clyde Boles departed this life on July 5, 2007 at the East Georgia Regional Medical Center. He was the son of the late Claude, Sr. and Beulah Mae Boyd Boles. His twin brother, Claude Boles, Jr. preceded him in death.

His memory continues in the hearts of those who loved him; three brothers, Robert, Sr. (Pecola) Boles of Statesboro, Ga.; Mildred (Mary) Boles of Newark, De.; Curtis (Sylvia) Boles of Atlanta, Ga.; and one sister, Annie Pearl (Elzie) Clark of Atlanta, Ga.

He will be fondly remembered by two special cousins; Bloys Boyd and Ruby Bennett both of Statesboro, Ga. And a host of nieces, nephews, relatives and friends.

Acknowledgement

The family of the late Mr. Clyde Boles would like to thank everyone for their cards, flowers, food, and all of the prayers during their loss. May God Bless each of you!

St. John 14: 27-30 LB

"I am leaving you a gift of mind and heart! And the peace I give isn't fragile like the peace the world gives. So don't be troubled or afraid. Remember what I told you — I am going away, but I will come back to you again. If you really love me, you will be very happy for me, for now I can go to the Father, who is greater than I am. I have told you these things before they happen so that when they do, you will believe in me.
