Carr played his final 13 holes 3-under with birdies on 8, 9 and 17, and Price shot 36 on each side with two birdies and two bogeys on the day. Andress played the back nine even and shot 1-under on his final five holes.

Quotable from Coach Carter Collins
“Today was a grind. Shoal Creek is a tough test without the wind, but today, we had swirling and increasing wind throughout the day that made it may increasingly difficult. Our team handled it well and showed a lot of grit. We are in position to do our job tomorrow and climb the board and we are looking forward to the challenge!”
