"When Tomorrow Starts Without Me"

If tomorrow comes without me and I'm not there to see...
If the sun should rise and find your eyes are filled with tears for me;
I wish you so much you wouldn't cry the way you did today.
While thinking of so many things we didn't get to say. I know how much you love me, as much as I love you... Each time you that you think of me I know you'll miss me too. But when tomorrow starts without me please try to understand that an angel came and called my name and took me by the hand. He said my place was ready in the Heaven high above, but he also said I'd have to leave behind all those I dearly loved. Then as I turned to walk away a tear fell from my eye for all my life I always thought I didn't want to die. I had so much to live for and so much left to do. It seemed almost impossible that I was leaving you. I thought of all the yesterday just even for a while I'd say goodbye. And kiss you maybe see you smile, but then I fully realized that this could never be... For emptiness and memories would take the place of me. And when I thought of worldly things I might miss come tomorrow. I thought of you and when I walked through heavens gates I felt so much at home. When God looked down and smiled at me from his great golden throne. He said this is serenity and all I've promised you. Today your life on earth is past but here life starts anew. I promise no tomorrow but today will always last. And since each day's the same way there's no longing for the past. You have been so faithful so trusting and so true. Though there were times you did some things you knew you shouldn't do. So won't you come and take my hand and share my life with me. Don't think we're far apart for every time you think of me I'm right here in your heart!
