HOT DOC: American Factfinder 2

January 5, 2012

American Factfinder, used to access information from the Census Bureau, has exciting improvements! Among the list are an interesting “Stat of the Day”, an economic dashboard, and an in-depth, interactive map down to the county level. If you haven’t looked at the new AFF, take a look! This authentic demographic and business data is great for a wide range of research interests, from local to national.
