Obituary

"Death, to a good man, is but passing through a dark entry, out of one little dusky room of His Father's house, into another that is fair and large, lightsome and glorious, and divinely entertaining." —Clark

Mr. John Calvin Brinson affectionately known as "Buddy" by his relatives and friends was called in by his creator on Monday, January 1, 1979, at the Bulloch Memorial Hospital, Statesboro, Georgia.

Buddy was born in Jefferson County, Georgia on October 6, 1911, to the late John Warren and Willie Ford Brinson. He was a life long resident of Emanuel County, residing in Twin City, Georgia, prior to moving to Statesboro, Bulloch County, Georgia, in May 1978.

John Calvin "Buddy" Brinson joined and was baptised in his young life at the Mt. Gilead Baptist Church, Canoochee, Georgia.

As he went about life in his own way, he met Piccola Turner and they were united in holy matrimony. To this union nine children were born.

He leaves to cherish his memory a devoted wife, Mrs. Piccola Turner Brinson of Statesboro, Ga.; four daughters, Mrs. Ruth Payton Alexis of Statesboro, Ga., Mrs. Myrtis Hardy of Bronx, N. Y., Mrs. Beaufort Garland of Riverdale, N. Y., Mrs. Carolyn Walker of Atlanta, Ga.; five sons, J. T. Brinson of West Bury, Long Island, N. Y., Howard Brinson of Yonkers, N. Y., Clarence Brinson of Mt. Vernon, N. Y., J. C. Brinson of Riverdale, N. Y., and Terrance Brinson of Statesboro, Ga.; his father-in-law, Mr. Tom Turner; his step mother-in-law, Mrs. Hattie Turner of Twin City, Ga.; three daughters-in-law, three sons-in-law, 17 grandchildren, several nieces, nephews, and other relatives and many friends.

*Weep no more, he's just asleep
For God has said to him,
Well done thy good and faithful servant,
Thy have been faithful over many things,
I must call you to a just and higher reward.*
