WHAT HEAD COACH SANDER KONING SAID

"Overall I believe that we got what we initially wanted out of this tournament. Obviously you want to have the guys go through the next part of the tournament, but we played some good schools and were able to keep a good level of play throughout the tournament. Diego played composed against Louisiana and was able to capitalize on some breaks. In the second match he looked a little sluggish. His opponent took advantage of it early on and Diego wasn't able to recover. Antonio had to get going in the first match, but after the first set he was playing well. His second match he faced a tough opponent, who played really well when he needed to. His experience was the deciding factor."
