Georgia Southern Women look to improve in second year under Anita Howard

After taking over a program that had last seen double-digit wins in 2016, Anita Howard led the Eagle women to this mark in her first season as head coach in Statesboro.

Eagle men and women's basketball week in review

The men kicked off the on-court action on Thursday as they traveled to North Carolina to take on Davidson. Unfortunately, the men would be completely overwhelmed by the Wildcats in a 32-point defeat.

FDA Analysis Of Moderna COVID-19 Vaccine Finds It Effective And Safe (NPR)

The FDA's briefing document along with one from Moderna were posted two days before a group of experts will convene to advise the agency on whether to grant the vaccine emergency authorization for use, or EUA, during the pandemic.

Group protests reported 'monkey' remarks by local DQ shift leader (Statesboro Herald)

As a sign of protest for an alleged racial slur said to a Dairy Queen employee, demonstrators strew the contents of a case of Del Monte bananas along the sidewalk in front of the Statesboro restaurant on Northside Drive at midday Monday.
