I Needed the Quiet

*I needed the quiet so He drew me aside.
Into the shadows where we could confide.
Away from the bustle where all the day long
I hurried and worried when active and strong.*

*I needed the quiet tho at first I rebelled
But gently, so gently, my cross He upheld
And whispered so sweetly of spiritual things
Tho weakened in body, my spirit took wings
To heights never dreamed of when active and gay.
He loved me so greatly He drew me away.*

*I needed the quiet. No prison my bed,
But a beautiful valley of blessings instead --
A place to grow richer in Jesus to hide.
I needed the quiet so He drew me aside.*

Acknowledgments

Perhaps you sent food or a flower or sat quietly in a chair. Perhaps you sent a card or telegram, if so, it is here. Perhaps you spoke the kindest words, as any friend could say. Perhaps you were not there at all, just thought of us today. Whatever you did to console our hearts, we thank you so much whatever your part.

The Obituary

Larry Brown, Sr. was born January 19, 1955 in Statesboro, Georgia to Clarence and Ethel White Brown. He graduated from Statesboro High School. He joined Piney Grove Missionary Baptist Church at an early age where he worked as an usher until he left for the military. He served in the United States Air Force until he was released as a disabled veteran. He departed this life November 22, 2001.

He leaves to cherish his memory: son, Larry Brown, Jr.; paternal great-grandmother, Roxie Blackmon; parents, Clarence and Ethel White Brown; two brothers, Carlos (Pearl) Brown and Willie (Dorothy) Brown; two sisters, Betty Givens and Linda (John) Henderson; three grandchildren; aunts; uncles; nieces; nephews; and a host of relatives and friends.

A sister, Clohtile Moore preceded him in death.
