"When our steps are heard no more, and we then are laid to rest. May we have within our power lived and done our best. There's a call we all must answer when we reached our journey's end. Let's be ready to meet our Savior when we all go stepping in."

HIS JOURNEY JUST BEGUN

*Don't think of him as gone away-
His journey has just begun
Life holds so many facets-
This earth is only one.
Just think of him as resting
From the sorrow and the tears
In a place of warmth and comfort
Where there are no days and years.
Think how he must be wishing
That we could know toady
How nothing but our sadness
Can really pass away.
And think of him as living
In the hearts of those he touched...
For nothing loved is ever lost-
And he was loved so much.

FAMILY'S GRATITUDE

*When our load seems hard to bear,
We look around and our friends are there
With food, flowers and words spoken
With smiling faces and hearts open.
They comforted us and shared our grief.
May God bless and keep you -
Granting all relief.
Our gratitude can not be adequately expressed,
But they are the best that can offer
During the period of stress.

Psalm 23

*The LORD is my shepherd; I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,
I will fear no evil: for thou art with me;
thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies:
thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over
Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life:
and I will dwell in the house of the LORD forever.*
