Georgia Southern caps the regular season at the Gary Hoch Invitational Monday and Tuesday. It's the final tune-up before the Sun Belt Championship April 22-24 at the Raven Golf Club in Sandestin, Florida.

The Eagles will battle 12 other teams, including three ranked in the top 50 of GolfStat's latest team rankings as they try to make a move for postseason positioning. This event will be played in Gastonia, North Carolina, at the Gaston Country Club. The course is the home course of Archer and Avery Price, who both hail from Gastonia and attended Gaston Day High. It will be the first time the brothers will play in a tournament together.

After taking second at the Cleveland Heights Palmetto Invitational and the Schenkel Invitational, GS struggled to a 14th-place finish at the Hootie at the Bull Bays.

Storey and Archer Price have played in all nine tournaments this season. Fisk and Brett Barron will be making their eighth starts of the year, and Avery Price will play in his fourth tournament.
