The Obituary

Willie B. Bryant, 86, formerly of Pendleton Street, Cortland, passed away while surrounded by family on June 3, 2008, at the Cortland Regional Medical Center, after a long illness. Mrs. Bryant, the daughter of the late Jesse Reynolds and Sarah Lee Reynolds, was born in Savannah, Georgia on September 17, 1921. She was predeceased by John Bryant, her husband of 59 years, her son, John M. Bryant, Jr., brothers Frederick Reynolds, Steven Reynolds, and her sister Marie Williams.

Mrs. Bryant had been a resident of Cortland since 1959. She and her husband raised eight children and two grandchildren, Gwendolyn Bryant and William M. Bryant, Jr. Mrs. Bryant was an avid volunteer who served as PTA president for many years in Ft. Pierce, Florida. She also served on the Older Americans Act Advisory Board; she was a long-time member of the American Red Cross, advocate for sick and shut-ins throughout Cortland, and a member of the CAPCO board. She worked for many years as manager and accountant for her husband's asphalt business. Mrs. Bryant, a Christian of strong faith, was well known for her tenacity in guiding the Lee Family Reunion through its growth to over 350 annual participants. She will always be known as a very loving and caring mother and grandmother, and will be sadly missed. She was also famous for her delicious homemade apple and sweet potato pies, and antique collecting.

Mrs. Bryant is survived by her sons, William of Dryden, Edward of Gainesville, Fl., and Leon of Cortland; four daughters, Norma Callender of San Jose, CA, Patricia Bryant of Cortland, Phillis Farley of Schenectady, and Gloria Simonson of Cortland; one surviving brother, Leonard C. (LC) Reynolds of Marietta, Georgia, and a host of grandchildren, great grandchildren, great-great grandchildren, nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

A precious one from us has gone, A voice we loved is stilled, A place is vacant in our home, which can never be filled.
