YOUR LATEST NEWS FROM THE GEORGE-ANNE

COVID-19 has affected our print schedule. Regardless, we're still working.

The way we learn has changed, the way we interact with others has changed, the way we live our lives has changed. It's difficult to remember our pre-COVID society.

The PAC is back

Though some facilities on campus remain inactive or are trying to rekindle activity, the Performing Arts Center continues to host events and shows—if under some limitations.

Students on stocks

We wanted to hear what our campus thought of the stock situation that's happening now so we asked around.

THE GEORGE-ANNE REFLECTOR

My Experience With Small Group Training at the RAC

As the Fall 2020 semester started, there were a lot of adjustments to be made in light of the pandemic, and a lot of students found themselves with new daily routines. Finding a time or space to work out may have been hard for some, especially if online classes were piling up and you wanted to stay away from large groups of people.
