Only God Knows Why

God saw you were getting weary

So he did what he thought best,

He came and stood beside you

And whispered, "Come and rest,"

You wished no one a last farewell

Not even a good-bye

You were gone before we knew it,

And only God knows why.

When God called you to come and rest

You did not go alone

For part of us went with you

The day God called you home.

Reflections

The Lord is my light and my salvation, whom shall I fear?
The Lord is the strength of my life, of whom shall I be afraid.
Psalms 27:1

Sister Jessie Wright Adams was born October 29, 1945 to the late Douglas and Lottie Wright. She was a native of Screven County. She joined Simmons Branch Baptist Church at an early age. She was a graduate of Central High School Class of 1964.

On February 6, 1980 she was joined in Holy Matrimony to the late Jessie Adams.

She leaves to cherish her memories, her sister, Barbara (Clifford) Taylor, of Statesboro; a god-daughter, Amy Robinson, of Augusta; one uncle, Eugene Natson, of Statesboro; two aunts, Emma Florence, of Statesboro, and Minnie Darisaw, of Louisville, Georgia; five nieces, Shirley (James) Solomon, of Augusta, Cathy (Anthony) Jenkins, Tracey (Eurique) Denson, Diane (Eric) Johnson, and Reatha Lester, all of Statesboro; four nephews, Jerry (Catheryn) Wright, of North Augusta, Ray Edwards and Larry (Lisa) Edwards, both of Atlanta, GA, and Lamar (Lisa) Edwards, of Statesboro, a very special loving and devoted niece and nephew, Valarie (Elder) Winston-Crump; one brother-in-law, Walter (Mable) Adams, one sister-in-law, Annie Wright; and a host of other relatives and friends.
