The new convocation center will be named after GS graduates

Georgia's Southern University's planned convocation center in Statesboro will be named in honor of the late Senator Jack Hill and his wife, Ruth Ann Hill.

The Alternative Breaks Program

The Alternative Breaks Program has allowed Georgia Southern students to spend part of their Winter, Summer or Spring breaks giving back to communities around the country and occasionally around the world. It doesn't just serve as a way for students to shake up their break experience with volunteering but also to learn and reflect about what they encounter..
