Georgia Southern University to Host Open House

NOVEMBER 11, 2009

Georgia Southern University will host an open house for prospective students Saturday, Nov. 21, 2009 beginning at 8 a.m. at Hanner Fieldhouse.

Open House is an opportunity for high school students and their parents to experience Georgia Southern University first-hand. Not only do they see the campus, but they also meet and speak with current students, faculty and staff. Parents and students find out for themselves why Georgia Southern has earned the reputation of a large-scale, small-feel research university.

During the Open House, campus tours will be offered that include visits to a residence hall and several academic buildings. Information about admissions requirements, academic offerings and student life will be available. Prospective students and parents can also choose from a series of information sessions to attend.

Georgia Southern University has more than 19,000 students enrolled and continues to receive national recognition. The University has been featured in U.S. News & World Report America's Best Colleges and Universities and was recently recognized as one of the Top 100 Best Values among Public Colleges and Universities by Kiplinger's Personal Finance. This fall, the University's College of Business Administration was named one of the Best 301 Business Schools in the country by Princeton Review.

Reservations are required to attend the Open House and space is limited. Reservations can be made by visiting Georgia Southern University's website at www.georgiasouthern.edu.
