Center for Wildlife Education starts back daily programs showing off local wildlife

Visitors to the Georgia Southern Center for Wildlife Education can now watch programs featuring many members of our local wildlife now that its daily programs have been resumed after a hiatus though the pandemic.

In honor of Black History Month, Georgia Southern Faculty Commons members affirm our belief that, being made in the image of God, every person has dignity & value, and that, being precious in the eyes of God, it is our hope & prayer that we would all be precious to one another, living in peace & harmony.

"And above these put on love, which binds everything together in perfect harmony. And let the peace of Christ rule in your hearts . . ." - 1 Cor. 3: 14-15a (ESV)

Faculty Commons is an organization dedicated to encouraging Christian faculty at Georgia Southern to grow in their faith and practice. Faculty Commons is not affiliated with Georgia Southern University. Contact Reed Smith (rsmith@georgiasouthern.edu) or Jamie Cromley (jcromley@georgiasouthern.edu) for more information.

"I refuse to accept the view that mankind is so tragically bound to the starless midnight of racism and war that the bright daybreak of peace and brotherhood can never become a reality . . . I believe that unarmed truth and unconditional love will have the final word."
