Obituary

Geraldine Wilkerson Fuller, daughter of the late David and Lucy Lovett Wilkerson, was born on November 6, 1915 in Bulloch County, Georgia. She passed into eternal rest on June 14, 1991 at the Pecan Manor Nursing Home, Statesboro, Georgia.

Early in life Gerry became a member of First African Baptist Church where she served until she moved away. After returning to Statesboro, she reunited with Historical First African Baptist Church where she was a member of the Senior Choir, Pastor's Aide and Missionary Society. She served faithfully until her health began to fail.

Gerry received her early training at Statesboro High and Industrial School. She was a 1938 graduate of University Hospital and Medical College of Georgia, Augusta, Georgia.

After graduation, Gerry worked as a registered nurse at University Hospital, Augusta, Georgia; Kinston General Hospital, Kinston, North Carolina; Spartanburg General Hospital, Spartanburg, South Carolina; Charity Hospital, Georgia Infirmary, Savannah, Georgia; Bulloch County Hospital and Georgia Grace Nursing Home, Statesboro, Georgia; and Pleasant View Nursing Home, Metter, Georgia.

Gerry was owner and operator of Johnson's Restaurant of West Broad Street, Savannah, Georgia, while married to Ernest Johnson who preceded her in death.

Gerry leaves to cherish sweet memories, a host of cousins, friends and a god-child, Ernest Washington of Savannah, Georgia.

WHEN I MUST LEAVE YOU

When I must leave you

For a little while —

Please do not grieve

And shed wild tears

And hug your sorrow to you

Through the years,

But start out bravely

With a gallant smile;

And for my sake

And in my name

Live on and do

All things the same,

Feed not your loneliness

On empty days,

But fill each waking hour

In useful ways,

Reach out your hand

In comfort and in cheer

And I in turn will comfort you

And hold you near;

And never, never

Be afraid to die,

For I am waiting for you in the sky!
