Kappa Sigma To Sponsor Charity Dance Dec. 14

A Christmas charity dance featuring Rufus Thomas will be sponsored by Kappa Sigma fraternity, following the GSC-Armstrong State basketball game Saturday, Dec. 14.

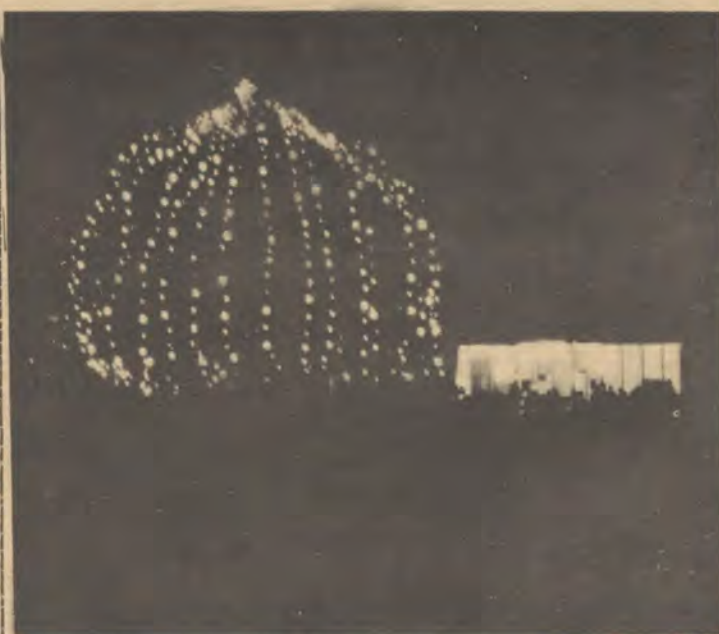

The dance will be held in the Landrum Center from 9 p.m. to 1 a.m. and late permits will be issued.

The charity dance was originally scheduled to feature "Maurice Williams and the Zodiacs" Friday, Dec. 6.

Tickets will go on sale in both student centers on Monday, Dec. 9, and may also be purchased from any brother of Kappa Sigma. Ticket prices will be $2 in advance or $2.50 at the door.

All proceeds will go to buy Christmas presents for the children at the Scottish Rite Children's Hospital in Atlanta.

During Christmas holidays the fraternity will deliver the gifts and spend a day at the hospital with the children.

The annual Christmas tree lighting was held Thursday night in front of the F. I. Williams Center. Tau Kappa Epsilon administered the lighting of the 1500 colored bulbs.

Christmas Symbol Shines on Campus

Tau Kappa Epsilon fraternity sponsored the annual Christmas Tree Lighting in front of the F. I. Williams Center at 8 Thursday evening.

Hal Lankford, TKE president, was master of ceremonies for the program which featured an address by Dr. Pope A. Duncan, vice president. Dr. David Ruffin, professor of English, read the nativity story.

Lankford stated during the program that a plaque would be presented to the sorority contributing the most toys to the Statesboro Jaycee "empty stocking" drive. Jaycees will judge.

The GSC Golden Eagle Band provided a program of Christmas music for the lighting ceremony. Over 1500 lights brightened the GSC symbol of the Christmas spirit.

The Christmas spirit was evident throughout the program stated Pat Bolton, SAGC vice president.

The lighting tradition was begun eight years ago by Student Congress members and the Administration in an effort to initiate a campus-wide Christmas program.

'Who's Who Lists 24 GSC Students

The 1968 edition of "Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges" will carry the names of 24 students from this college, according to Ric Mandes, public relations director.

The students, selected by a campus committee last spring quarter, were approved by campus nominating committees and editors of the annual directory as being among the country's most outstanding campus leaders.

These students were selected on their academic achievement, service to the community, leadership in extracurricular activities, and future potential.

Those students selected are: William L. Brannen of Doraville, Miss Cynthia A. Corr of Macon, Miss Claire Halpern, of Miami, Fla., Miss Beverly Carlson of Dawson, Max E. Buffington of Atlanta, Miss Margie E. Boyles of Waycross, Miss Pattie E. Brooks of Gordon, Miss Ada D. Blount of Waynesboro, Miss Nancy Carter of Alma, John R. Thornton of Reynolds, Thomas A. Kinchen of Thomasville, Miss Sandra E. Thomas of Waycross, Miss Virginia Sutton of Macon, Miss Penny A. Stokham of Port Wentworth, Miss Terry NeSmith of Moultrie, Billy N. Jones of Reidsville, Miss Dorothy Altman of Waycross, Ronald Rabin of Brunswick; and Mrs. Jackie H. Gay, Miss Julie Banks, Mrs. Florence R. Bice, Mrs. Hannah T. Thompson, and Mrs. Celia A. Neville, all of Statesboro.

Housing Forms Are Available For Fall Quarter

Housing applications for fall quarter, 1969, will be accepted beginning Jan. 2, according to Mrs. Louise Screws, coordinator of housing.

All students desiring on-campus housing are urged to apply as soon as possible after that date. It is expected that all college dormitories except freshmen will be reserved to capacity early in January.

Housing applications may be secured from the Housing Office in the Administration Building. Each application must be accompanied by a $25 deposit, check or money order.

Students who plan to attend summer school must make separate applications for summer school and the regular school year.

NOTICE

Only student bank checks will be cashed after Wednesday, Dec. 11, at the Student Bank.

CLES Presents Musical Comedy, 'The Apple Tree' December 9

By BECKY BOBO
Staff Writer

"The Apple Tree," a Broadway musical comedy, will be performed in McCroan Monday, Dec. 9, at 8:15 p.m. All seats are reserved, and tickets are now available at the music department. Student tickets are free with presentation of the student ID card.

The production features the romance of the world's first man and woman. The first of the three segment comedy is a humorous story of "The Dairy of Adam and Eve," based on a story by Mark Twain. Tom Ewell, who plays the part of the snake, finds the diary of Adam. Will Mackenzie portrays Adam, Eve, portrayed by Rosemary Prinz, comes into Eden and changes things altogether. The first portion of the play pictures Adam telling the world's first joke.

The next segment of the comedy is based on "The Lady or the Tiger," by Frank R. Stockton. King Arik, in the part of a slave, and a chorus of men and women join the three principle actors in this part.

The last portion of the play is about a chimney sweep who longs to become an actress. This is taken from Jules Feiffer's "Passionella."

Eve of "The Apple Tree" (Rosemary Prinz) achieved her stardom while playing the role of Penny in the television series "As the Word Turns." The play is produced through the American Theatre Productions where Miss Prinz developed her background in dramatic theatre.

Tom Ewell, star of "The Apple Tree", will entertain students Monday, Dec. 9, as he portrays the snake who finds the diary of Adam.

"No Exit", Christopher Fry's drama, is now being presented at THE EXIT. The play is directed by Charlton Humphrey and the cast is composed of two students and two faculty members.

Dec. 13 Is Date For Last Fall G-A

The last issue of the GEORGE-ANNE for fall quarter will be published Friday, Dec. 13. There will not be another issue until Jan. 10, 1969. Any organization, division or individual desiring news to be published before winter quarter should turn that news in to the GEORGE-ANNE before Tuesday noon, Dec. 10.

The Student art exhibit is now being displayed in the Foy Building. The water colors above are on exhibit on the third floor.

Oils, wood cuts, charcoals, and pen and pencil drawings are all part of the Foy Fine Arts Week which began Nov. 17.

Exciting Travel Plans Are Offered to GEA Members

A 1969 travel program which will make available to all Georgia teachers and college students the lowest possible air fare to Europe has been announced by Mrs. Margaret Kilian, GEA director of Public Relations.

A special DC-8 jet flight will fly from Atlanta to London on July 11. Individuals will have a full month on their own to travel Europe with the return flight departing from Amsterdam on August 11, flying directly back to Atlanta.

For those who want a longer stay in Europe, there will be a flight departing Atlanta on June 30, returning August 22—allowing almost eight weeks of European travel.

"This will be the first such program in the state of Georgia," commented Miss Kilian, "and we anticipate a quick sell-out. The demand for low cost transportation has been tremendous, and this new program is designed to meet this need." With the round trip fare from Atlanta to Europe priced at only $274.00, GEA members will be able to travel at about one-half the regular cost—with a saving on air fare of some

A variety of group tours are available to Great Britain, Scandinavia and the Continent. Among the other opportunities available will be a "plan your own itinerary" program at a cost of only $5.00 or $10.00 per day, depending on the type accommodations chosen. Independent arrangements and trips by automobile can be economically planned for small groups. Low cost Eurailpasses will be available for the more adventurous independent travelers.

With the new 30-day program, teachers will be eligible for full increment credit. The four week program will allow teachers to visit areas at a more leisurely pace with more time to pursue special interests, and at the lowest possible cost.

"We are delighted to bring this exciting new program to the teachers and students of Georgia," commented a GEA official. "For the first time, we will have available a completely flexible program providing for independent or group travel. With this new program, we hope to make it possible for hundreds of Georgia teachers and students to travel abroad."

Applications for space will be accepted on a first come, first served basis. A request for space, together with a deposit check in the amount of $25.00 made out to Osborne Travel Service, should be sent to Miss Margaret Kilian, Georgia Education Association, 197 Central Avenue, S. E., Atlanta, Georgia.

Art Majors Plan Demonstrations

Twenty-two visual arts majors, members of the Arts Methods Education class, plan to take a field trip to the Wheeler County schools Thursday, Dec. 5.

They will participate in art demonstrations in two high schools and present a program in three elementary schools. High school demonstrations will be in the areas of graphics, weaving, batik, creative stitchery, painting, sculpture, and ceramics.

Foreign Students Will Give Views

A series of articles by foreign students giving their impressions of Georgia Southern College will appear in the George-Anne during Winter quarter 1969. The series begins at 9 a.m. Saturday on East Campus. All foreign students are being asked to give their views on the curriculum, student body, administration, physical facilities, freedoms, and restrictions. They have also been asked to compare Statesboro and south Georgia with the economy and geography of their native countries.

The purpose of the articles will be to discuss frankly the positive and negative points of our school and area in relation to foreign countries, according to Dr. Harris Mobley, foreign student advisor.

50 Volumes Are Donated To German Club

Fifty volumes of library material were recently donated to the German Club by the Institute for Foreign (Cultural) Relations in Stuttgart, West Germany, according to Andrew Farkas, president.

The volumes consist of popular illustrations of Germany, classical literature, and literary essays. "These books provide a good increase toward a German graduate library," stated Farkas.

Andrew became familiar with the Institute's program of sending library material to German clubs when he worked at its central library in Germany this summer. He was one of the dozen students invited yearly from all over the world to work in its central library. The students also received a scholarship from the German Academic Exchange Service.

The Institute also arranges exhibitions and lectures, maintains libraries at home as well as abroad, and publishes a periodical.

Boole Names Two Additions To S and M Staff

Dr. John A. Boole, chairman of the Division of Science and Mathematics has announced the names of two new faculty members who will join the staff beginning winter quarter of 1969. They are Dr. Foy Roberts, instructor of microbiology and Dr. Frank French, instructor of parasitology.

Dr. Roberts received his doctorate degree from the University of Maryland and is presently employed by Charles Pfizer Co. in research.

Dr. French received his doctorate degree from Iowa State University and is presently employed at Queens University, Kingston, Ontario, Canada.

German Yule To be Dec. 10

The German Club will have its Christmas Program on Tuesday, Dec. 10, in room 107 of Hollis. The program will consist of films and a description of Christmas in Germany.

Members and their guests are welcome.

At the last club meeting on Nov. 14, Sharon Kenan and Gayle Rogers discussed their trips to Germany and Austria, and the film, "Denn er war unser," was shown.

Dr. W. Powell Receives Grant

Dr. Woodrow W. Powell, professor of English, was the recipient of a fellowship at the Fifth Southeastern Institute of Medieval and Renaissance Studies to be held at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill from July 15 to August 22.

The Institute operates on a Ford Foundation grant and was established "for the advancement of scholarship and improvement of teaching."

The seminar in which Dr. Powell will participate will be one of six that comprise the six-week study. Dr. Powell will be studying "Editorial Problems in Shakespeare." The senior fellow in the seminar will be Professor George Walton Williams of Duke University.

Tax Schools Are Held Here

The seventh in a series of eight "Regional Tax Assessing Schools" began here Tuesday, Dec. 3, and will continue with two other sessions, Monday and Tuesday, Dec. 9 and 10, and Monday and Tuesday, Dec. 16 and 17.

The school provides a convenient opportunity for local government officials who are responsible for property tax assessing in Georgia to increase their knowledge of the principles of sound tax assessment and to improve skills in actual assessment.

Each school consists of 35 hours of instruction. Special training materials adapted to the needs of the Georgia tax officials have been developed and are being used during the sessions.

Dr. Harold Tyer, associate professor of education is the coordinator for the GSC series of tax assessing sessions.

Snail Mail

Without ZIP CODE
the growing U.S. Mail load would move at a snail's pace—
if it moved at all!

Like you, the people at the Post Office have sluggish mail. That's why they created Zip Code. With it, mail is sorted up to 15 times faster—and makes fewer stops along the way to its destination. To get the Zip Codes you need—see the information pages of your phone book for local Zips, and your Post Office's Zip Code directory for all others, or just call the Post Office. Put a rabbit in your mail—use Zip Code and mail early in the day. Then the Post Office can actually guarantee you the fastest possible mail delivery.

Students From 148 Ga. Counties Enrolled Here

One hundred and forty-eight of Georgia's 159 counties have residents currently enrolled at this college, according to the Office of the Registrar and Director of Admissions.

Chatham County leads the state with a total of 378 students enrolled, followed closely by Bulloch County with 341. The two metropolitan area counties, Fulton and Dekalb, have a combined total of 477 students registered here this fall.

Georgia is the principal state represented on campus with 4166 students. Florida, with 228, and South Carolina, with 134, rank first and second respectively for out-of-state students enrolled. Twenty-six of the fifty states are represented.

There are eleven students from nine foreign countries registered for classes this fall.

Dr. Neil Attends Music Seminar

Dr. Ronald J. Neil, chairman of the Division of Fine Arts, represented the college at the Forty-Fourth Annual Conference of the National Association of Schools of Music at the Statler-Hilton in Washington, D.C., Nov. 25-27.

Some 350 member schools were represented by the deans of the music departments in most of the nation's universities and colleges and, also, by administrative heads of music conservatories.

Welcoming the conference participants was the Honorable Walter Washington, Mayor of the District of Columbia. Other distinguished speakers included: Dr. Harold Arberg, Music Consultant to the U. S. Office of Education; the Honorable Roger Stevens, National Foundation for the Arts and Humanities; and numerous others nationally renowned in the field of music education.

The National Association of Schools of Music is designated by the National Commission on Accrediting as the responsible agency for the accreditation of all music degree curricula in the fields of applied music, music theory, composition, music therapy, musicology, and music as a major in the liberal arts program.

Georgia Southern has been a member of the NASM since 1967.

WSGA Has New Office

The Women's Student Governing Association has established regular office hours in their new office located at the end of the front veranda of the Williams Center.

College students aid in the excavation of King's Lynn medieval port August 1968.

British Program Allows Students Overseas Work

The Association for Cultural Exchange, a British non-profit organization, is sponsoring an archaeological program which will enable college students to work in Europe during the summer of 1969. Volunteers will attend a three-week seminar for training in British archaeology and excavation techniques at Merton College, Oxford. Smaller groups will then spend three or more weeks on an archaeological site.

The program offers students an exciting opportunity to help in an important work, earn credits, make international friends and receive valuable training in archaeology, according to Professor Ian A. Lowson of the Association.

Further details can be obtained from Professor Lowson, Association for Cultural Exchange, 539 West 112th Street, New York 10025. Closing application date is February 1, 1969.

LOVE LINKS

Patsy Barfield, senior secretarial administration major from Hapeville, is engaged to Wendell Walls of Powder Springs. Walls is presently serving in the Army at Fort Wolters, Texas.

A summer wedding is planned.

Store Managers Select Barrett As Co-chairman

Paul Barrett, manager of the Landrum Center Bookstore, was recently elected co-chairman of the Georgia Institutional Bookstore Managers Association.

Barrett, who is also associate director of the Blanche Landrum Student center campus, served as manager of the textbook department at the University of Miami college bookstore before coming to Statesboro. A native of Texas, Barrett graduated from Creighton University where he earned a B.S. degree in aeronautical engineering.

Ogeechee Club Slates Meeting

The next monthly meeting of the Ogeechee Sports and Touring Car Club will meet at 7 p.m. Monday, Dec. 9, at the Statesboro Recreation Center on Fair Road.

After the meeting will be a general discussion on rallying techniques and future events.

AT LAST

This quarter's biggest gripe has been the lack of entertainment. Now that exams are nearing, students are to be provided with nightly social and cultural entertainment.

With such entertainers as Rufus Thomas, "The U. S. Kids", and the humor of Tom Ewell in THE APPLE TREE, students can no longer complain. THE EXIT, student coffeehouse, will present Christopher Fry's play, "No Exit." The cast of this play is composed of two faculty members and two students. This weekend is filled with social activities aimed to please the student body as a whole. Freshmen may not realize that this is not a new phenomena on our campus.

The annual Starlight Ball will be held Saturday, Dec. 7, in the Landrum Center. This yearly event offers students the opportunity to dress semiformal and to dance to the music of "The U. S. Kids."

Three musicals in one will be presented in THE APPLE TREE, sponsored by the Campus Life Enrichment Series. The Broadway play will be presented Monday, Dec. 9, in McCroan. It stars Tom Ewell and Rosemary Printz.

"No Exit", which has been running since Dec. 3, will be produced tonight and Saturday night. The play, directed by Charlton Humphrey, is not on campus, but every student owes it to himself to see this existentialist drama.

It is hoped that next quarter will get off to a start like this quarter's finish. Homecoming and the basketball season will occupy much time leaving only a few slack weekends for students to do their own thing.

SWEET CHARITY

Social events are becoming more worthwhile since the advent of social fraternities and sororities on campus. These organizations have altogether changed the social life on campus.

One of the rewarding aspects of these organizations are their service projects and charity drives. Kappa Sigma fraternity is making an all-out charity effort for the children at Scottish Rite Hospital in Atlanta. The fraternity is sponsoring a campus dance with the proceeds being donated to buy Christmas gifts for the children.

Kappa Sigma brothers are giving freely and unselfishly of their time to assure children at the Scottish Rite Hospital of having a joyous holiday.

The GEORGE-ANNE wholeheartedly supports this project and encourages other campus organizations to adopt similar charitable welfare projects on an annual basis.

FALL QUARTER IN REVIEW

As the 1968 fall quarter comes to an end, it is remarkable to note the changes that have occurred in campus life during this short period. In the past ten weeks we have seen the women's Honors Dorm become a reality, antiquated dress regulations revised, rulings made that would allow organizations to sponsor entertainment for the entire student body, and enough faculty interest shown to carry out a productive and meaningful survey on cuts. Perhaps never before in the college's history has so much been accomplished in so short a time.

Even though the administration and student government have fallen under editorial attack from the GEORGE-ANNE, we would like to applaud them for their accomplishments. This new breath of liberalism is a refreshing change from the past.

Finally, it has been realized that Georgia Southern is a modern school with urgent problems and "growing pains." Perhaps if this trend continues we will soon join the twentieth century schools.

Certainly the organizations that have worked with the administration in effecting these changes must also be complimented for their work. It is our hope that the leadership of this campus will not be satisfied with the changes that have been made, but will continue to work for an improved campus life.

Absentee Services For Teachers— Must They Pay?

By SANDRA DYCHES
Editor

Another classic example of squeezing blood from a turnip took place on this campus Wednesday, Dec. 4. Education majors who are to student teach winter quarter were allowed to register and pay fees in advance so that they would not have to make a special trip for this purpose in Jan.

Students performed the usual rites connected with registration. They filled out the forms and made checks payable to Georgia Southern College as always. But—here's the old squeeze—the tuition payment of $101 included an unnecessary cost. Broken into its component parts, the tuition figure represents $85 for matriculation, $12 for student activity fee and $4 for health service fee. Why should students not living near this campus be expected to pay for the upkeep of the health cottage or for newspapers that they won't receive or for dances that they won't attend? True, a large sum of money is not involved, but it may well be money that students need.

An education professor was questioned about this cost by his class. The professor stated that some students do return to campus when they are ill to receive treatment from the health cottage and even more return for dances and concerts. The majority of the class felt that this statement would be untrue in their cases. Surely students practice teaching in Waycross, Brunswick or Savannah would not drive the miles involved for health treatments that they will not walk across the street for this quarter. Less than 12 students will be practice teaching in Bulloch County. Even these students are dissatisfied with being charged for health services.

Student teachers do not receive copies of the GEORGE-ANNE while away from campus. Many students have no line of communication to inform them of dances or concerts. Therefore, they miss these social activities for which they have paid an activity fee.

It seems that it would be fairer to all involved if this extra $16 were omitted from student teachers' tuition. If these student teachers wished health cottage services, to receive GEORGE-ANNES, or to attend dances and concerts then they could pay the necessary charges at the time they require services or attend functions.

This matter should be investigated by the Student Association of Governing Councils, Women's Student Government, Men's Governing Council and the Administration as a legitimate student complaint.

Deck the Halls With Lots of Thankfulness

By LINDA LANE
Feature Editor

The Christmas tree lights will be shining brightly by Thursday night. As the jovial season is upon us, we will sing carols, buy presents, smile, laugh. Finals will soon be over; we'll all go home—home for Christmas, Christmas with our families. Snug in our little houses we'll talk a lot about Santa, a little about Jesus, and maybe even mention "those poor boys in Viet Nam."

Perhaps during this holiday season we should take time to consider those "poor boys in Viet Nam"—silently, thankfully consider them. They will spend Christmas in the hot, wet jungles of a foreign country, fighting a conflict to protect our snug little homes from Communist aggression. We should realize that if the communist are successful in Viet Nam, their doctrines could very possibly reach in and destroy our neat little worlds.

Bombing will halt on Christmas Day. Perhaps the men on the front lines will be sent C-rations of turkey and dressing. Perhaps they'll decorate a tree with stars and angels. Maybe they'll attend special religious ceremonies.

Hopefully during the Christmas season every citizen in this country will express his appreciation and indebtedness to "our" boys in Viet Nam.

Each one of us most probably knows someone who has served in Viet Nam: some have come home for Christmas, some will remain to fight, and some will remain forever. Let them know that all students in America aren't opposed to the Viet Nam conflict; many of us are behind them all the way.

Letters to the Editor

Dear Editor,

Would you please state the GEORGE-ANNE'S policy dealing with the selection of Southern Belles?

Sincerely,
Murphy Sconyers

Dear Mr. Sconyers,

Southern Belles are chosen by the six editorial board members and the photographer at the weekly staff meeting. An editor suggests the name of a woman he or she feels would be especially photogenic. The other editors usually see a photo of the woman or try to catch an unguarded glimpse of her before a commitment is made. Names suggested to this office are considered, but since every individual's idea of beauty differs, it would be impossible to select Southern Belles from all names submitted. If we have four of the seven editors agree on a name, it is considered a majority selection.

Southern Belles are not necessarily raving beauties, but examples of a special type of youthful good looks combined with a certain personality sparkle.

Dear Editor,

The Georgia Southern Placement Office offers many opportunities to students. Among these services are counseling about job opportunities, making of resume, and interview techniques as well as scheduling interviews. During the 1967-68 recruiting season, 150 business, industrial, educational, and governmental agencies interviewed Georgia Southern seniors.

By registering with the placement office students receive a master list of companies recruiting on-campus.

This list and other information from the placement office will be sent to Landrum Center mail boxes. Students should check mail boxes daily for notices, revisions, surveys, job offers, etc.

Sign-up schedules for individual student interviews are available two weeks in advance of the actual company recruiting date.

We in the placement office are proud of the personal association which exists between our office and students. Our hope is that we can expand our work so that Georgia Southern graduates are in key positions of responsibility throughout American business, industry, education and government.

Ben G. Waller
Director of Student Aid and Placement.

Dear Editor,

The Student Governing Association is having a substantial number of inquiries regarding good acts to buy for campus entertainment. We have also been receiving correspondence from member schools of the Southern Universities Student Governing Association desiring good acts. This may be a good opportunity for entertainment groups on the campus to become recognized in our state as well as in other states in the Southeast.

Your Student Governing Association would like to be of assistance in coordination information concerning entertainment talent on this campus. We would like to encourage any interested groups to file a data sheet in the Student Government Office. Information such as the size and breakdown of the group, the type of act, price of act, length of act, and availability of the group are needed.

Please submit data forms to Steve Joiner, G.S.C. US Coordinator in the Student Governing Office at your earliest convenience.

Sincerely,
Steve Joiner
SUSGA Coordinator

Dear Editor:

I would like to thank all the students that participated in the fall quarter Blood Mobile Drive. We had an extremely good turnout with 185 people signing up to donate blood. Also, I would like to thank the members of Sigma Nu fraternity for setting up the equipment for the Blood Mobile, and the members of Alpha Delta Pi sorority for serving in the Canteen.

The organization donating the most blood was Phi Mr sorority; secondly, Sigma Phi Epsilon; third, Tau Epsilon Phi; and fourth, Alpha Tau Omega. A big congratulations to all the students that participated in this very worthwhile cause.

In behalf of the Woman's Student Government Association, a very big Thank You to all the organizations and individual students who supported this project. This was the second time the W.S.G.A. has sponsored this project and again the students on this campus supported the drive.

Sandy Richardson
Chairman of the Blood Mobile project

Viet Bombing Halt

A majority of the nation's college newspaper editors favor stopping all bombing in Vietnam in order to further peace negotiations.

The poll was conducted by Associated Collegiate Press during the second week of October before rumors became persistent that the United States had made such a proposal and was based on a computerized sample and a mail ballot to 10 percent of all college editors.

Editors were asked: Regarding the conflict in Vietnam and peace negotiations, I favor— (a) stopping all bombing, (b) increased military effort to deal from strength and (c) a middle course of military action.

Results indicated 52 percent favored stopping all bombing, 24 percent increased military action, 22 percent a middle course and 2 percent called for stopping all bombing and immediate withdrawal.

Breakdown of the respondents by sex showed 35 percent were women and 65 percent men.

Randy Harber

"May I have your attention please????? The dance scheduled to be held tonight has been cancelled because the band which was to perform did not show up." This is fast becoming more a rule than an exception on this campus. It would seem that entertainers do not consider this school worthy of their time, but this is certainly not the case. However, can we place any blame on these entertainers when they are not bound by a strong contract.

The necessity for reconsideration of booking policies and agencies is very apparent. The students of this college have been disappointed too often to appreciate the humor of band cancellations.

Sometimes band cancellations are unavoidable, but usually a cancellation results only from a misunderstanding. Certainly cancellations could be reduced in number if the terms of the agreements were clearly stated in writing and not verbally. Word of mouth is too risky to be trusted by either party. A contract would not only protect the organization sponsoring an event but would also provide protection for the entertainer as well.

Contrary to the opinions carried by a majority of people, a binding contract does not require lawyers or long legal processes. A formal legal and binding contract may be obtained if the document is witnessed and notarized. Even an informal contract required by the sponsoring agency would demonstrate to the entertainer the importance placed on the event.

The value of the time spent in drawing up a contract greatly exceeds the expense of informing a crowd of disappointed students that no entertainment will appear.

POP's To Attend Convention

Five members of Delta Iota Chapter of Phi Omega Pi will attend the twenty-first Biennial Delegate Convention which meets Dec. 26-68 at the Palmer House in Chicago.

Students who plan to attend this convention are Gail Brazell, Valda Roberts, Janice Hudson, and Janice Peed. They will be accompanied by their sponsor, Miss Jane F. White, assistant professor of business and communications.

Exhibits of the 1967 and 1968 top ten chapter award materials will be on display Thursday, Dec. 26. Delta Iota will share honors for both years with some 20 chapters who were designated during this time as outstanding.

Lynne Morrison, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Linton Morrison of Atlanta, was recently named Sweetheart of Alpha Tau Omega fraternity. Lynne, an English major, is a member of the ADPi sorority and her hobbies are swimming, fishing and tennis.

Stipe Will Visit DTD Colony

Carl E. Stipe, southeastern vice-president of Delta Tau Delta fraternity, and a team led by Bill Lee and Bill Decker of the Georgia Beta Delta chapter will visit the Crescent Colony of Delta Tau Delta this weekend to officially pledge all colony brothers.

The ceremony is scheduled for Saturday, Dec. 7, at the Holiday Inn.

The Crescent Colony was formerly Delta Tau, local social fraternity.

Miss Gail Hall, sweetheart of Sigma Nu, is a freshman and not a sophomore as was stated in the Nov. 22 G-A.

Phi Mu Sorority Goes 'A Go Go' For Soldiers at Fort Stewart

Phi Mu sorority will entertain approximately 400 soldiers at Fort Stewart, in Hinesville, on Sunday, Dec. 8. The women will present a show entitled "Phi Mu A Go Go" which will include imitations of such groups as "The Tams," "The Temptations," "The Four Tops," "The Supremes," Little Anthony and "The Imperials," Sam and Dave, and Marvin Gaye and Tami Terrell.

Costumes for the groups, were made by the sisters.

Following the show, the sisters will serve as hostesses at an NCO dance in the Recreational Hall at Fort Stewart.

As another project, the sisters are giving a Christmas party for approximately 30 underprivileged children on Saturday, Dec. 14, at the Statesboro Recreation Center. A Santa Claus will attend and present the children with gifts donated by Statesboro merchants.

Fatigue Fighters Flounder Forward

New York (NAPS)—New ways to solve an old problem, fatigue, keep coming to the fore.

Foods that fill you up, but don't nourish you properly, are one cause of many people feeling tired. But from breakfast foods to treats as a bedtime snack, a variety of new foods—if you look for them—can help you avoid nutritionally caused fatigue.

Vacations that knock you out more than they relax you are another common cause of fatigue. Yet a new tour offered by an English airline flies people to London and back, almost assures them of getting plenty of relaxation, yet costs only $300 including hotels.

It's even less costly, and surprisingly effective, to follow a strange-sounding piece of advice offered by authorities: breathe enough! Oddly, many people don't. They slouch, crowding the lungs, they fail to get enough oxygen, then they wonder why they are so tired!

Controlling your weight, sleep habits and even your room color may be effective fatigue fighters.

The importance of foods in avoiding fatigue were illustrated by Dr. I. M. Rabinowitch of Montreal General Hospital. He found that sugars appear in the blood stream in as little as two minutes after they are eaten. Because a rise in the blood sugar level is a condition widely associated with freedom from fatigue, a mid-afternoon sweet is for many people a good idea.

So are vitamin loaded cereals, many of which are at least as tasty as other kinds. Some kinds of spaghetti and macaroni have extra protein, yet cost nothing extra. Want to lose calories without losing most of the nutrients in milk? Try skim milk or powdered milk. The key word, in proper nutrition, is "try".

Vacations. You can enjoy a relaxing and interesting one anywhere in the world—or right near home—and the English show tour is a good example. In addition to air fare, plus 13 nights in a hotel, plus a full breakfast every morning, plus the free use of a car for three days and a camera for two weeks (the latter encouraging you to relax and take some pictures) the tour encourages activities which while thoroughly enjoyable are also thoroughly restful: theatre-going, gambling, watching, and easy shopping.

The exemplary tour provides tickets to eight different London plays or musicals. Can anyone go to a theater and not relax?

Automatically, people on the BOAC tour get a two-week guest membership to London's newest casino. (It's much more restful—and probably more economical—to watch others do the gambling.)

A 10% BOAC shopping discount is given to passengers in London (an activity more relaxing for women than for men).

The very nature of the city, and there are other, equally easy-on-the-ears-sights, if you look for them, is restful. At the London Tower are the famed crown jewels. A tourist boat leisurely sails up and down the Thames. The thing to do in Piccadilly Circus (a main square in London): stand on the island in the middle of the Circus, do absolutely nothing, and see the many types of Englishmen who pass right by.

The important thing to remember is that not only in England, but anywhere if you plan things right, vacations can be as restful as they are zestful.

Right at home, right now, you can resolve to take these additional fatigue-fighting measures:

Buy a bottle of vitamins—any "name" brand is good—and take one every day.

Take off at least half the weight you know you should. The more you weigh, the more energy you use just to move around.

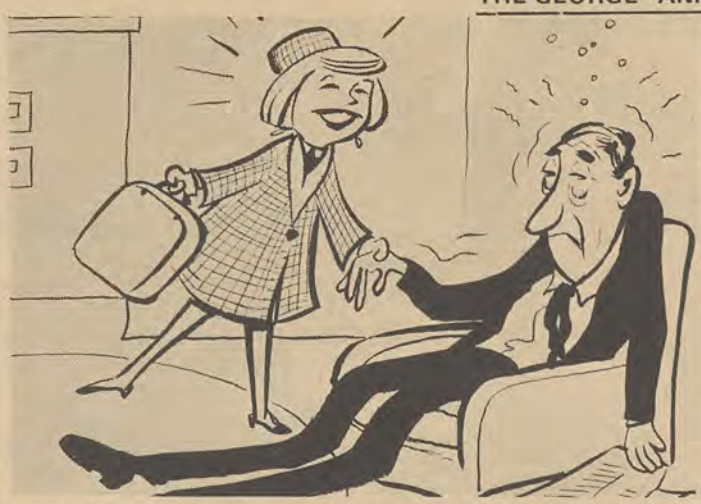

If you find it hard to get to sleep, consider heavier cotton sheets (they don't get warm and humid so quickly) and perhaps a new mattress.

If you can't sleep, remember that relaxing completely with your eyes closed is said to provide about 80% as much rest as you'd get if you were actually sleeping.

At Johns Hopkins University, experiments indicate that rooms painted blue and green tend to relax the mind and reduce muscular tension. Yellow, orange and red, on the other hand, tend to stimulate.

Remember that not only coffee and (to a lesser extent) tea contain caffeine, but also cola drinks—not the best choice for bedtime.

If you must get rid of fatigue in a hurry, one of the quickest and surest ways is easy: take a cold shower. If you have more time, go to London. Either way, go to your doctor at least once a year; not only may he spot a problem causing fatigue, but he may alternatively tell you you're fine. This will help you relax.

1969 Maid of Cotton Pageant Is Jan. 3

A cross-country tour with visits to 28 cities is on the agenda for the 1969 Maid of Cotton who will be chosen here January 3. Her itinerary also calls for appearances in Canada and overseas.

In preparation for her travels as the American cotton industry's fashion and good will ambassador, the Maid will spend three weeks in New York City. Activities there will include press conferences, fashion photography, and fittings for her all-cotton wardrobe selected from leading design houses.

Her official tour begins January 29 in Canada, where she will visit five cities. She returns to the States in mid-February for a whirlwind trip through Florida. Cities on her itinerary include Jacksonville, Clearwater, Gainesville, St. Petersburg, Tampa, Miami, Fort Lauderdale, and Orlando.

During the first week in May, the Maid will return to Memphis to take part in the annual Cotton Carnival celebration. She concludes her domestic tour with appearances in Nashville, Omaha, and Toledo before leaving for overseas.

Upon completion of her international travels, the Maid will be presented with a 1969

Ford by dealers of the Memphis District.

Meanwhile, applications for the 1969 Maid of Cotton selection are being accepted by the National Cotton Council. Unmarried girls between 19 and 23 who were born in a cotton-producing state and are at least five feet five inches tall are eligible to enter.

Georgia Companies Give Senior Planning

Seniors and graduate students planning their futures in the South will have an opportunity during the Christmas Holidays for career interviews with representatives from nearly 100 companies operating in Georgia.

Sponsored by the Georgia Chamber of Commerce, "Careers in Georgia Placement Program" will be held in the Exhibit Hall of the Marriott Motor Hotel in Atlanta on Friday, Dec. 27. Personnel executives conducting the interviews will represent both business corporations and governmental agencies of national and local scope seeking to fill more than 25 different types of job classifications.

Harold Clotfelter, State Chamber President, emphasized that the program is for the convenience of students and employers, adding that the Chamber's interest lies in retention of this area of well-qualified young people who might otherwise seek employment in other regions. "We need to keep more of our college-trained youth at home by acquainting them with the many outstanding career opportunities now awaiting them here," he said.

Students interested in the interview program should write "Careers in Georgia Placement Committee", Georgia Chamber of Commerce, 1200 Commerce Building, Atlanta, Georgia 30303. They will be promptly forwarded a kit containing full information on participating companies, qualifications desired and procedures to be followed in scheduling interviews.

Booklets List

Summer Jobs

In response to requests from college students throughout the country, the American Association of College Students has prepared three booklets listing organizations interested in hiring college students for summer employment.

One booklet lists jobs available in recreation and resort areas. It includes over 450 dude ranches, restaurants, hotels, camps and national parks.

The second booklet deals with jobs in business and industry. The third booklet has information on more than 25,000 federal government jobs.

The booklets may be obtained by writing: Summer Jobs, American Association of College Students, 30 N. La Salle Street, Chicago, Illinois, 60602.

There is a $2 service charge to cover the cost of printing and handling for each booklet. Requests should specify which catalog is desired: recreation, business or government.

Magazine Holds Story Contest

ATLANTA MAGAZINE is sponsoring a $1,250 short story contest with prizes of $750, $300 and $200.

Manuscripts must be previously unpublished works of short fiction, neatly typed, double-spaced, and not more than 25 pages long. They must be submitted by March 1, 1969, to ATLANTA, 1104 Commerce Building, Atlanta, Ga. 30303. Entries should include a postage-paid, self-addressed return envelope.

Miss GSC
There will be a mandatory meeting for Miss GSC contestants Monday, Dec. 9, at 7 p.m. in Hollis 119.

Debate Clinic

Set for Dec. 6

A debate-drama clinic, sponsored by the GSC debate club, will be held Friday, Dec. 6, according to Dr. Clarence W. McCord, assistant professor of speech.

A total of 181 high school debate and drama students from 16 area high schools will attend the day-long program. A general meeting for the group begins at 10 a.m. and is followed by workshops for debate and one-act plays at 10:15 a.m.

That afternoon, the program continues with a debate and one-act play clinic from 1:30 p.m. until 3 p.m. High School debate and drama coaches will meet for a discussion period during that time.

Lafayette College Revises Student Freedom Policy

Easton, Pa.-(I.P.)—A "Statement on the Rights and Responsibilities of Students," which includes revised procedures to guarantee due process in disciplinary matters, has been adopted at Lafayette College, effective with the current academic year.

The statement reaffirms certain established policies on this campus, such as the freedom of access to education, freedom of discussion in the classroom, and freedom of association, inquiry and expression in extra-curricular activities. It also creates a committee with specific responsibility for student discipline and outlines hearing procedures.

"Lafayette students traditionally have enjoyed many rights and freedoms. However, we believe it is desirable for the College to carefully delineate the rights as well as the responsibilities of its students," according to Dr. Charles C. Cole, Jr., provost and dean at the college.

A document entitled "Rights and Freedoms of Students" written by representatives of the American Association of University Professors, the National Student Association, and American Association of Colleges, provided the framework for Lafayette's statement.

"While we agreed in principle with the national statement, it tended to be impersonal. We felt we should prepare one to meet the unique traditions and concerns for personal growth at Lafayette," Dr. Cole said.

A faculty committee headed by Dr. Jacob E. Cooke, John Henry MacCracken Professor of History, drafted a statement after considering the viewpoints of representatives of the student body and faculty. The statement was reviewed and accepted by Student Council, the Faculty, and the Board.

"This statement makes explicit certain student rights, such as due process in disciplinary proceedings, as well as certain responsibilities, such as respect for the rights of other students to pursue their educational goals," Dr. Cooke said.

An important aspect of the statement is the section dealing with disciplinary procedures. A seven-man Committee on Student Conduct will be made up of three students, three faculty members, and the Dean of Students. The committee will review and recommend policies and procedures regarding student conduct here and will hear cases of violations by students of college regulations.

The statement guarantees students liable to serious disciplinary action the right to a hearing, the right to counsel, the right to call and question witnesses, and the right to appeal.

"Although due process has existed at Lafayette, we feel that more specific individual and institutional safeguards are necessary," according to Dean of Students Herman C. Kissiah.

The procedure outlined in this statement goes beyond the recent court decisions requiring due process. It is an attempt to insure fairness in disciplinary actions and to preserve the educational functions of the disciplinary process," he said.

Among the other rights and freedoms detailed in the statement are:

Freedom in Student Affairs. Students may organize and join associations to promote their common interests; they may support causes by orderly means, including peaceful assembly and advocacy; they may invite speakers of their own choosing in order "to allow consideration of a range of opinion in a forum of free inquiry."

It is stated that these activities must not interfere with the objectives and activities of the college, and that the appearance of a speaker does not indicate agreement with his views or endorsement of his position.

Freedom of Publication. The student press is free of censorship and editors and managers are protected from arbitrary suspension and removal.

Responsibility for Expression of Opinion. Many opportunities for expression of student opinion on college policy are permitted and sought through such media as Student Council, the student newspaper, and the Interfraternity Council. Other avenues for expression and communication may be developed as the need arises.

EAGLES WIN OPENER

By MIKE CLARK
Sports Editor

The Eagles opened their 1968-69 cage season with a convincing 105-88 victory over Virginia Commonwealth on Saturday, November 30th. With 15:00 showing on the clock, in the first half, Phil Sisk cashed in on a three point play that put Coach Frank Radovich's quintet 8-7. The Eagles were never behind again as they rolled to their initial win.

Obviously fired-up, for the season's opener, Georgia Southern beat the Rams in every aspect of the game. Also, a "glue-tight" Eagle defense forced the Virginia team into numerous floor mistakes.

Southern hit 51 per cent of its shots from the floor as the Eagles had six men to score in double figures. Leading the scoring parade was senior guard Dave Westerfield, with 23 points. Westerfield canned seven shots from the floor (mostly on long jumpers) and hit nine of 10 free throws. Sophomore Steve Buckler was next in the scoring column with 22 points.

John Norman added 15, before fouling out of the game, while Sisk (in his first varsity contest), chipped in with 14. Roger Moore and Gene Brown were the others in double digits with 12 and 10 respectively. Moore sat out the first half as he picked up his third foul with 11 minutes to go.

Southern outscored Virginia Commonwealth from the gratis line as well. The Eagles hit 27 free throws compared to 20 by the Rams.

Pacing the Ram attack was Jasper Rice with 23 points. He was followed by John Lynch with 17, Charles Wilkins with 15, Len Creech with 12 and Barry Suddath with 10.

Southern's fine defensive play allowed Virginia Commonwealth to hit only 38 per cent of its shots from the floor.

On the boards GSC picked off 49 stray shots while the Virginia cagers pulled down 38.

Norman was high, for the Eagles, with 10 rebounds. Moore hauled down nine caroms and Buckler swipped another eight. Wilkins, of Commonwealth, was high for the game with 12 as teammate Rice had 11.

Southern's offense worked almost to perfection as time and time again an Eagle player worked his way to the open for a clear shot.

GSC (105)- Westerfield 23, Buckler 22, Norman 15, Sisk 14,

Moore 12, Brown 10, Miller 7, Waters 2, Bohman.

VCU (88)- Rice 23, Lynch 17, Wilkins 15, Creech 12, Suddath 10, Fling 9, Isaac 2, Lawson 2.

Eagles Prevail 93-78

By MIKE CLARK
Sports Editor

The Eagles made it two wins in a row on Monday, Dec. 2, as they defeated Wilmington College 93-78. The Eagles will travel to Valdosta next Monday, Dec. 9, to take on the always tough Valdosta College quintet.

In Monday night's encounter, the Seahawks jumped out in front quickly. This was due mainly to some fine inside shooting plus a full court press which had the Eagles baffled. With 15:00 showing on the clock, Southern was down 6-11, but not for long. Gene Brown and John Helms were inserted into the line-up and the Eagles began to click. Helms hit for two quick buckets while Brown's ball handling (bringing the ball up court) was just the "Shot-in-the-arm" that Southern needed.

Brown sank two charity shots that tied the game at 19-all with 10:22 left in the first half. Then John Norman scored on a three point play and Southern was on its way to victory number two. Incidentally, Southern has gone out in front to stay in the first two games on three point plays.

At the half, Southern was ahead 48-39. Norman had 13 points while Roger Moore and Helms had nine and eight points respectively.

Southern continued to increase its lead in the second half. With 10:28 left in the game, the Eagles led by 25 points and many of the fans began to file toward the exits. At this point Wilmington made a brief comeback that saw the Seahawks cut the margin to 13 points with 6:22 left. Back into the line-up came Moore, Norman and Phil "The Hawk" Sisk, and with their presences went any hopes of a Wilmington win.

Norman took scoring honors for GSC as he connected on 12 field goals and two out of six from the foul line for a total of 26 points. Following Norman in the scoring column was Moore with 18, Sisk with 13 and Brown with 10.

Wilmington's Jim McQuay tied Norman for game scoring honors with 26 points, while picking-off 10 rebounds. Wayne Johnson was the only other Seahawk in double figures as he scored 17 points.

Moore, who blocked a half a dozen shots, led all rebounders as he pulled down 17. Norman was next with 12. For the second straight time the Eagles dominated the boards, as they won in the rebounding department 44-26.

Two noticeable aspects toward the North Carolina squad may have made the difference in the game a little more respectable. One was their guards only took three outside shots, and second, McQuay, their fine center, did not make a shot the rest of the game after he put on a pair of glasses, due to the loss of a contact mid-way of the last half. But that is the way the ball bounces.

GSC (93)- Norman 26, Moore 18, Sisk 13, Brown 10, Helms 8, Westerfield 7, Buckler 5, Miller 2, Bond 2, Waters 2, Bohman.

Wilmington (78)- McQuay 26, Johnson 17, Hall 8, Martin 7, R. Johnson 7, DeLutis 6, Vance 2, Sahrinsky, Walters 5.

GYM SHORTS

By Hutch Dvorak
Assistant Gymnastics Coach

All men who wish to go out for track team this spring contact Coach Oertley in Hanner Gym during the winter quarter.

A contingent of four Eagle gymnasts traveled to Chicago, Illinois, last weekend, for the annual Midwest Open. The meet was a one-day affair with preliminaries in a morning session and the finals at night.

Gymnasts from as far away as California, Massachusetts and Minnesota were there with GSC being the Southernmost school attending.

Dan Warbuton, Tony Blasko, Bill Godwin, and Terry Nelson made up the squad that competed against gymnasts representing all the nationally ranked universities. Among those attending were: Michigan, Michigan State, Illinois, Southern Illinois, Indiana State, Iowa, Iowa State and other representatives from the Big Ten, Big Eight and W.A.C. Conferences.

GSC did well against this tough competition and the coaching staff was very encouraged by the individual performances.

Dan Warbuton made it to the finals on Saturday night (the top six qualifiers on each event were selected.) Out of 75 entries on the long horse vault, Dan was in first place, going into the finals, with a 9.55 score. An unfortunate slip dropped him to 4th place in the finals, but this is quite an accomplishment for Georgia Southern to have a gymnast finish so high in this meet; probably the second best collegiate meet in the nation.

Bill Godwin also did an outstanding job, scoring an 8.7 in free exercise. Perhaps a bit underscored, Bill is on his way toward establishing himself as a nationally ranked free exercise man with his 18th place finish out of 91 entries.

On the side horse Terry Nelson finished 12th out of 111 entries. In the longest and toughest event of the competition, Terry's routine scored an 8.8; an excellent performance considering he was the last man up in the event, and was under extreme pressure.

In the all-around, Warbuton finished 15th out of 37 competitors and Blasko did a good job in free exercise, side horse and vaulting.

One interesting aspect was that Coach Mayer finished sixth in free exercise and second in parallel bars; quite an accomplishment considering the time he has spent actually working out.

Overall, Coach Oertley was proud of the young Eagle gymnasts who have proved they are a team to be reckoned with, and a potential power in gymnastics. "The trip to Chicago was very worthwhile, and was an excellent beginning to what we know will be our finest season," said Oertley.

Kappa Alpha Wins Title

Intramural football this past week saw Kappa Alpha winning the Fraternity League championship by defeating Phi Delta Theta 25-6. KA is undefeated in league play but was twice tied—once by TEP and once by Kappa Sigma. TEP needs only to defeat Delta Tau Delta in its final game to clinch second place. TEP, at this time, has an 8-1-1 record while Pi Kappa Phi by virtue of a 13-0 win over Sigma Nu supports an 10-2 record and holds down third place. ATO is next with a 9-2 record.

Other league action saw Sigma Pi win their first game of the year by defeating Chi Sigma 12-0, and Sig Ep forfeiting to ATO. Outcomes of the other games were not available.

Only one game was turned in concerning the Independent League. In this encounter the Unknowns blanked Cone Hall 19-0. The race for the championship is still up for grabs with the Falcons, KOG and the Unknowns battling it out for the title. The outcome of the race will not be known until all games have been completed.

Road-Runners Defeat Emory

The Georgia Southern cross-country team could hardly have wound up their first competitive season in a more impressive style than the way in which they beat the tough Emory University team on Saturday, November 23. The "road-runners" defeated Emory 23-32 to give them their third win in their three dual meets of the season.

Hugh de Lacy took over the lead from Emory's Perkins 400 yards after the start and was never headed again. He finished 30 seconds ahead of the Emory runners who finished second and third respectively, while running the course in 20:01.

The big upset within the Georgia Southern ranks came when Bob Philips, who was previously number two on the team, was still not in sight when Glenn "Bunny" Jones turned into the final straight and galloped in for fourth place. Jones usually finishes fourth on the team.

Then number five man Joe Williams appeared, running like a hare, with Philips right on his heels. Philips turned on a final burst of speed but could not get past Williams and the two actually tied for fifth place, but the officials put them as finishing fifth and sixth.

Finally Byron Pearce, the usual number three man, came in to take seventh place. Pearce was still recovering from recent bad illness and was not in his best form but still turned in a fine effort.

This was the last scheduled meet for the cross-country team but Coach Oertley is trying to arrange a demonstration race here, with either Georgia or Georgia Tech next quarter.

JV's Elect Co-Captains

Charles Gibbons and Danny Gordon were recently elected co-captains of the 1968-69 Baby Eagle basketball team.

"Very good selections," commented Coach Johnson. "Both young men are well liked and respected by the other members of the team. I expect a good job of leadership from these two," he added.

Gordon is a non-scholarship sophomore who played on last year's freshman team as a starting forward. He decided not to play basketball this year but changed his mind about a week before try-outs. According to his coach, he is a good shooter, adequate ballhandler and gives 100 percent at all times. Danny is a good shooter, adequate ballhandler and gives 100 percent at all times.

Gibbons was sought after by several schools in the North and South, but chose Georgia Southern because of it being close to his home and, also, he does not like cold weather. Charlie is not the tallest member of his family. His older brother, Abe, is 6'8" and attends a junior college in Minnesota, while his younger brother, LeRoy, is only 6'5" (but still growing), and is a junior at Josey High School in Augusta. Charlie is majoring in history and hopes to coach after graduation.

BABY EAGLES WIN 89-75

Georgia Southern's JV basketball team opened their 1968-69 cage season on a winning note as they defeated scrappy Norman College 89-75 last Saturday night. The Baby Eagles led at halftime by the narrow margin of 44-41. The JV's balanced scoring attack was led by Charles Gibbons with 21 points, Danny Gordon with 19, Steve Melton with 18, Mike Ujlaki with 11 and Rob Bergbom with 10. The Norman Bears were led in scoring by Steve Major with 18 points and Jim Marshall with 17.

Gibbons and Melton also led in rebounding, each picking off 14 missed shots.

Although happy that the junior varsity won, Coach Johnson was not pleased with the over-all performance of the team. "Defensively we are still weak and the ball-handling was sloppy at times. We play the Citadel Frosh December 7th, and it will take a much improved performance to win that one."

Johnson also commented, "Bergbom came off the bench and gave the offense a lift (he scored 10 quick points on the second half). Melton is improving daily." Coach Johnson went on to say, "Other members of the team are showing improvement as they gain experience playing against college players."
