I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free,
I'm following the path God laid for me.
I took His hand when I heard him call,
I turned my back and left it all.
I could not stay another day,
to laugh, to love, to work or play;
Tasks left undone must stay that way.
If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Ah yes, these things too I will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I've savored much.
Good friends, good times, a loved ones touch.
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your hearts and share with me,
I'm with God now, I've been set free.

Life's Reflections

Mrs. Shirley Mae Alexander was born in Portland, Arkansas, July 19, 1938 She was one of 6 children born to Guy and Mary (Smith) Bass.

Shirley attended Tillis High School in Portland where she loved to play basketball and baseball. After graduating she moved to Chicago, IL where she lived most of her adult life. Shirley worked as a nurse in Chicago for 25 years before retiring to McGhee, Arkansas. Shirley was joined in holy matrimony to Birl Alexander for thirty-six years until his death in 2006.

Shirley relocated to Jacksonville in 2006 following the death of her husband Birl Alexander. She joined Woodlawn Presbyterian Church and was a member of the Seniors and Retirees Organization. She was called home on Sunday, February 28, 2010.

Shirley leaves to cherish her memory her sons: Anthony Hamiter (Natalie), Patrick Conaway, Dartez Conaway (Laurie), and Cornell Alexander (Carol); grandchildren Jacqueline, Anthony Jr, Mical, and Soncerae Hamiter; Summer, Dartez II, and Alexandria Conaway; and Kiara and Candice Alexander; great grand Xavier and Autumn, a brother Guy Bass Jr, sister Rosa Lee Brown, and sister-in-law Jimmie Bass, a number of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.
