Access Tools & Online Catalogs

Quiz

Name___________________            Date____________

1. Explain in your own words what Boolean Operators are and why you should use them when conducting research online. Be sure to list the Boolean Operators:

2. Name 3 access tools and in your OWN words, describe how they function to provide access to information resources:

3. What descriptive information does a citation for a book provide?

4. What descriptive information does a citation for an article provide?

5. Conduct the following search in the GIL online catalog:
Quick Search  =  “interpersonal communication”
  •  How many case studies on this subject?

Subject Search  =  “interpersonal communication”
  •  How many case studies on this subject?

Compare and contrast the nature of each search in detail. Which search proved to be more useful, how were the results displayed?