STATESBORO - Georgia Southern running back L.A. Ramsby has accepted an invitation to play in the third-annual SPIRAL Tropical Bowl, an all-star game played at Daytona Beach Municipal Stadium on Sunday Jan. 14, 2018 at 9 a.m. Since 2016 over 110 players from this game have gone on to the NFL including more the CFL and Pro Arena leagues. The Tropical Bowl is considered a top four bowl game by scouts and is attended by almost every NFL team consistently seeing 27 teams scouts and GMs in attendance.

Ramsby, from Cincinnati, ran for 2,432 yards in his career and 39 touchdowns.

The SPIRAL Tropical Bowl roster is unique in that it gives the NFL and CFL scouts a chance to view and get to know the best college football players from the top FBS schools across the nation. The SPIRAL Tropical Bowl National Team will be head coached by award-winning and 18-year NFL veteran Coach Mike Stock formerly of the Green Bay Packers while the American Team will be head coached by experienced former FBS Coach R. Todd Littlejohn, who has coached for New Mexico, Syracuse, and Cal.

Thirteen-year NFL Scout Ken Moll is the Tropical Bowl game's Scouting Executive and he will be assisted by former Fritz-Pollard NFL Scout of the Year Jerry Hardaway who is also in the Ourlads Pro Scout hall of Fame.
